The Sheep and the Pig

One morning, bright and early, a sheep and a curly tailed pig started out through the world to find a home.

"We will build us a house," said the sheep and the curly-tailed pig, "and there we will live together." So they went a long, long way, until they came to a rabbit.

"Where are you going?" asked the rabbit of the two.

"We are going to build us a house," said the sheep and the pig.

"May I live with you?" asked the rabbit.

"What can you do to help?" asked the sheep and the pig.

The rabbit said, "I can gnaw pegs with my sharp teeth; I can put them in with my paws."

"Good!" said the sheep and the pig; "you may come with us."

So the three went on, a long, long way farther, until they came to a goose.

"Where are you going?" asked the gray goose of the three.

"We are going to build us a house," said the sheep, the pig and the rabbit.

"May I live with you?" asked the gray goose.

"What can you do to help?" asked the sheep, the pig and the rabbit.

The gray goose said: "I can pull moss, and stuff it in the cracks with my broad bill."

"Good!" said the sheep, the pig and the rabbit.

"Where are you going?" asked the sheep and the pig.

Three Enroll In Birthday Club

Three new members have enrolled in the Birthday Club this week. Happy to have you!

They are Rosalie Gillikin, route 1 Beaufort, who was 9 years old Thursday; Timothy Styron, Cedar Island, and Rodney Day, Cedar Island.

Rosalie, who sent her picture with her enrollment blank, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gillikin.

Everyone who enrolls in the Birthday Club receives a birthday card when his or her birthday rolls around, and that week their names appear in the birthday column of the Happy Times.

It costs nothing to enroll in the Birthday Club. It costs nothing to have your picture in the paper. Just send it along when you enroll.

and the rabbit, "you may come with us."

So the four went on, a long, long way, until they came to a barnyard cock.

"Where are you going?" asked the cock of the four.

"We are going to build us a house," said the sheep, the pig, the rabbit and the goose.

The cock said, "I can crow very early in the morning; I can awaken you all."

"Good!" said the sheep, the pig, the rabbit and the goose, "you may come with us."

So the five went on, a long, long way until they found a good place for a house.

Then the sheep hewed logs and drew them.

The pig made bricks for the cellar.

The rabbit gnawed pegs with his sharp teeth, and hammered them in with his paws.

The goose pulled moss, and stuffed it in the cracks with her bill.

The cock crowed early every morning to tell them that it was time to rise.

And they all lived happily together in their little house.

"Good!" said the sheep, the pig and the rabbit.

"Where are you going?" asked the sheep and the pig.

Fishing

fish and the fisherman get away, without getting name, address and serial number of the fisherman, the size of the fish or where it was caught. All he could tell us was that it was a tarpon, and that it was caught near Atlantic—or someplace. Now if it had been a marlin...

Missing from our report this time are the catches of Edna and Johnny Styron's Sylvia, but we know that they were out there catching blues and Spanish along with the rest.

Offshore, Blue Water had 2 amberjack, 2 dolphin, 7 albacore and 2 cudas, one weighing 30 pounds; Blue Water also had several cudas in the previous day's catch. Greta D came back with 12 dolphin, 2 kings and an amberjack.

Excellent catches have been made aboard Danco, 40 pounds or more per fisherman; Jack Piper VII fishermen were getting an average of 40 to 50 pounds each. Swiss exchange students Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Stuffer of State College caught 48 mixed fish aboard Carolina Queen; it was their first fishing trip. Young Richard Joliff Jr., son of the mate aboard the Queen, landed a 26-pound amberjack.

Ocean pier fishermen are all wearing big smiles these days, with blues running steadily through the day and early evening, and spots cutting loose at night; Walter Sochack of Goldsboro headed a party of five at Sportsman Pier for 450 spots.

James Thrower of Raleigh caught 90 pompano, spots and blues from Triple-Ess Pier; we also have word that the Triple-Ess has its new live bait tank operating.

Thompson's at Emerald Isle reports excellent gray trout fishing at night, with blues and pompano during the day, and some speckled trout on plug.

Ralston Slade and J. D. Carraway from Florence reported 100 spots, 20 croakers and some blues at Fleming's.

Edrew Johnson, 1958 graduate of Queen Street High School, Beaufort, has received an appointment to the US Coast Guard Academy, New Haven, Conn. Johnson, who played football, baseball and basketball in high school, will leave for the academy Wednesday.

Graduates serve as officers in the Coast Guard. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnson, Havelock RFD.

L. R. Johnson, principal of Queen Street School, has announced the names of other Queen Street alumni who will be attending college this fall.

They are Elsie Fisher, Hampton Institute, Virginia; Roosevelt Nelson and Edward Carter, Virginia State College, Petersburg.

Leavey Campbell, Charles McCabe, Robert Murray, George Pasteur, Joseph Pasteur, Lacy Stanley, Bateman Jones, and Fernie Hlyman, A&T College, Greensboro. Albert Hucks, from this county, but who attended Georgetown High, Jacksonville, will also attend A&T.

Margaret Ann Nolan, Shaw University, Raleigh; Lathan Windley, Lenwood Davis, Deveria Martin, Theodore Godette, Benjamin Godette, Iceland Frazier, Esther Godette, Ada George, Finley Hargett, Betty Godette, Yvonne Martin, Doris Godette, North Carolina College, Durham.

William Hardesty, Matthew Godette, John Jones and Harold Hargett, Elizabeth City State Teachers College.

You won't get any rebate on the higher phone bills you've been paying since Nov. 25.

The State Utilities Commission ruled Friday in favor of Carolina Telephone and Telegraph, allowing phone rate increases totaling $1,532,000 a year.

An April request by the phone company for another $1.4 million hike in rates (probably a psychological move merely to assure it would get the $1.5 million it asked in November) was denied.

The utilities commission said the rate hike would give the company a profit of only 5.76 per cent on a "fair value" investment of $67,300,000.

In view of the fact that the law allows at least a 6 per cent return, some observers say that Carolina Tel and Tel will be knocking on the door of the commission in another year or so with another rate hike request.

Eastern Carolina towns and counties served by Carolina Telephone banded together to fight the rate request. Although Mayor Robert I. Powell, Clinton, head of the phone fight committee, said an appeal to the courts is being considered, it is unlikely that an appeal will be made.

The phone company put up three-quarters of a million dollars when it raised the rates in November to assure the state that rebates could be made in case the utilities commission denied the rate request.

Tax Collector Gives Report on August Income

County taxes collected in August amounted to $49,494.31, E. O. Moore, county tax collector, reported to the county board Tuesday.

Collected on the 1958 levy was $43,358.59; on 1957 and prior levies, $5,363.72. Business license fees amounted to $772.

Percentage of the 1958 levy collected to date is 41.25 per cent. E. L. Brinson, deputy collector of delinquent personal property taxes, collected $648.65 in August.

North Carolina Press Association will hold its annual summer meeting at the Morehead Biltmore Hotel July 16-18, 1959, according to an announcement by Michael Taft, manager of the hotel.

Pet Corner

Persons wanting to find homes for pets or acquire pets at no cost are invited to use the Pet Corner free of charge. Phone PA 6-4175.

Key Reaches Switzerland

Little keys travel long distances.

Mayor George Dill on Saturday received an airmail letter from the Union Bank of Switzerland at Luzern.

The letter informed him that a key with "Morehead City, N. C." on it was found on the counter of the bank and what should the bank do with it?

The key, of course, is one of the Centennial keys on a key chain which have been handed out to the Morehead City key, the owner can be found. (Keys given to ship captains and other dignitaries are engraved with their names).

If no name is engraved on it, heavens knows who it belongs to. The mayor handed out hundreds of the keys to United States mayors at San Francisco last winter when he attended the American Municipalities meeting.

If there are other keys attached to the Morehead City key, the owner is probably frantic. If not, the bank can just consider the key as others have, as a token of friendship from Morehead City.

Outstanding Carrier Retires

Retiring, after four and a half years of outstanding work as a NEWS-TIMES star carrier is Ray Tallent, Atlantic.

Ray, son of Mrs. Anita Morris, is a freshman in high school this year and plans to go out for basketball, so he wants to devote all his time to that.

Ray started his route in the spring of 1954 with only 28 customers. He developed the route to a total of 127 customers. His records have been accurate to the penny, and without fail, his payment to the newspaper came in by mail every week.

The only exception was one week last winter during freezing weather. The following week Ray's report, for two weeks, arrived.

NEWS-TIMES carriers work under the "little merchant" plan. The newspaper sells the papers wholesale to the carrier, he

Two Get Jail Terms Thursday

Jimmy Collins and Ida Mae James drew six-month jail terms for assault in county recorder's court Thursday. Judge Lambert Morris sent the woman to woman's prison and Collins to the roads.

Steven Mitchell was fined $25 and ordered to pay court costs when he was found guilty of disturbing the peace. E. K. Corl paid $10 and costs for being drunk on the highway and possession of non-taxpaid beer.

Alfonzo Nash Simmons was ordered to pay costs for parking on the wrong side of the road.

Nine defendants forfeited bonds. They follow: Charles Davis and Lillian Chadwick, assault; Harold Lee Baker and Gray Dudley, allowing unlicensed persons to drive; Thomas P. Oglesby and Mrs. Ray Cummins, running stop signs; Elwood Basden, passing at an intersection; Woodrow W. Grimsley, following too close and failing to maintain proper lookout; and Alex Norris, driving without a license.

The state elected not to try four defendants. They were Macon Ennett Jr., charged with driving without a license, having improper equipment and running a stop sign; John L. Locklear, charged with speeding; Herbert M. Morris Jr., charged with speeding; and Leamon Garner, charged with public drunkenness.

Alvin Crooms was cleared of charges that he had failed to comply with a court order and the capias was dismissed. There were 78 cases continued.
