FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1958

PAGE FIVE-SECTION TWO

How Wise Housewives Fill Home Demonstration News Film on TV Will County Fair Will Open Next Week Tell School Story Market Basket on Budget The premiere performanc

The Wayward Wheels

By FLOY G. GARNER

ner — It is begins Monday, Sept. County Fair begins Monday, Sept. In canning fruits, too much sugar should not be used. No defective should not be used. No defective or over-ripe fruits or vegetables will be found in quality canned products. The product should have uniformity of size and shape. The way the fruit or vegetable is way the fruit or vegetable is ceived at the office of the secreceived at the office of the secre. tary of the fair at the fair grounds any time Monday, and until 1:00 p.m. Tuesday. Entries must be exhibits will be released Saturday, Sept. 20, at 4 p.m.

edlework on those cold winter nights or canning fruits and vegetables on the warm on the warm summer days, I hope you were hope you were thinking occathinking occa-sionally of the Fair.

for you to show off samples of your best \ rk, whether it be hem-stitching or a glass of homemade jelly, or hand-painted picture which you think is a work of art. So, get busy right now—dig your needle-work out of the cedar chest, pick out your prettiest jars of preserves and have a gate the general appearance, consis-tency and flavor of jellies are the primary points for judging. The color of jelly should be pronounced, yet natural. The jelly should be transparent and sparkling, with

October, and blue-ribbon entries is tender, breaks with distinct in the County Fair offer keen com-cleavage, angles hold shape; is petition in that big event.

how the judges score canned goods, preserves, jellies, jams, pickles, etc. Appearance, flavor, texture pickles is not homemade, they features, but the type of container for most other exhibits in the fair counts, too. Containers should be standard, and a size practicable been awarded blue ribbons in the

51 Real Estate Transfers

Are Recorded in County

(Editor's Note: In recording real | wife to Alex Graham Jr. and wife,

By FLOT G. GARNER Home Agent Though agricultural fairs and the blue skies of October usually go hand in-hand, for the folks in Car-teret, this year, it's different. Fair Time is not just around the cor-ner — it is here! The Carteret County Fair begins Monday, Sept.

way the fruit or vegetable is packed in the jar is also important

Sept. 20, at 4 p.m. Range Wide Most anyone can take entries to the fair—the range is wide, cov-ering everything from livestock to homemade booties for Baby. When the range doing destroyed by the use of too much sugar. Good texture means tender, but firm and plump. Fruit should be packed in jar with reference to symmetry, and the julce should be clear and not too dark.

The consistency should be heavy, but not enough to crystallize. There should be about one-third as much syrup as fruit. Jams are judged on smoothness, flavor, consistency air. That is the place and the time and texture, color and clearness, and the container in which they and bring it all out to the County no sign of crystallization. Fair on Monday. The State Fair is coming up in natural fruit. "Blue-Fibbon" jelly etition in that big event. How Judged? Several people have asked me from out of the county. They will

Guthrie, left, and Gilbert Rushas also been in the ocean-perhaps millions of years ago. Well, sell, mate on the Dolphin IV. here is a set of truck tires that They must have been some ended up back in the ocean. where on the bottom a long time. The wheels were found drift-ing recently 20 miles off Moremariners say, because inside were baby lobsters and stone crabs. Marine growth, such as They say everything on land | head City by Capt. Wallace barnacles and seaweed, was all over them. Were the wheels on a truck that was part of a ship cargo in world war II? What else is on the bottom where these lay so standard, and a size practicable to average home. Clear glass pint or quart stand ard jars are preferred for jellies, and either quart or pint in canned fruits and vegetables, In canned fruits and v Channel of News for Most People

Photo by Reginald Lewis

By HILLIER KRIEGHBAUM Acting Chairman, Department of Journalism, New York University be compared with that of users of Despite innovation in mass media since the end of World Way The survey showed:

media since the end of World War II, the newspaper remains the main channel for news for most 77% read a daily paper.

Radio-20%. Magazines-10%. Not answered-8%.

and weekly, covered 83% of the

be used to make these de-Sliced roast beef, pork or turkey may licious grilled barbecue sandwiches.

If you want to beat the rising apple sauce), pound of ground costs of filling that market basket, beef, a big 12 ounce jar of consistent buying of specials offer-strawberry preserves; with a Beaufort and Morehead City will help you do it. free! And 7 cents in change coming to you. Housewives who shop THE

What a $5 bill will buy this weekend at A&P: one pound of 8 O'clock coffee, 3 pounds of boneless chuck NEWS-TIMES food ads first find that they can make their "house money" go farther. In this, as in roast, two 10-ounce packages of A&P chopped spinach, a can of Del Monte small green peas, a dozen other things, advance planning (making out that shopping list) ears of corn, pound of Blue Bonnet margarine, 3 pounds of pays. bananas, pound of delicious seed less white grapes, a large Jane Parker angel cake and two 12-ounce glasses of jelly (grape or ap-J. E. Crowe Enters ple). And after all that, you'll have 3

Race for Lions District Governor cents change to jingle in your

Morehead City Lions have voted your pocket. Crowded Out was filmed in real A chuck roast, with the potatoes ools by Agrafilms for the NEA and the angle of the second se Iresn grapes on the side as a saiad, topped off with a fluffy slice of angel cake, and iced coffee. If you're wondering what to do with the left-over roast (should your family be the type who sad-total campaign committee. The Lions topped off with a fluffy slice of rederick were appointed as his topped off with a fluffy slice of rederick were appointed as his topped off with a fluffy slice of the Lions office. The Lions of the Lions of the topped office. The Lions of the Lions of the Lions of the the Lions of the Lions of the Lions of the the Lions of the Lions of the Lions of the Lions of the the Lions of the the Lions of the Lions o made the plans last week at the Hotel Fort Macon. Cliff Edwards was appointed dles you with left-overs), try jiffy Slice the left-over roast, dip the barbecued sandwiches.

slices in prepared barbecue sauce, fit neatly into slices of bread. Then Sept. 21 through Oct. 5. The health and welfare commit-fit neatly into slices of bread. Then broil under your range broiler, turning to toast bread on both sides. This is a tasty variation for the old standby luncheon sand-wich. A $5 bill will go a long way at Colonial this weekend: a 5-pound smoked Luter's picnic ham (and what can produce more, different main dishes than a ham?), two Club had netted $3,000 on its dream loaves of bread, a half gallon of saples (fine for pies, baked apples, during the boat show.

Thus the newspapers, both daily postoffice. Applications will be accepted from persons who reside within the delivery of the Postoffice or week.

who are bona fide patrons of such who are contained pairons of such office. Persons employed in the postoffice will be considered bona fide patrons. Applications must be received or postmarked on or be-fore Oct. 2, 1958.

nounces an open competitive ex-amination for career or temporary appointment to the positions of substitute clerk, substitute carrier, and substitute special delivery messenger in the Morehead City new motion picture, Crowded Out, is scheduled for Sunday over chan-nels 7 and 9. Produced by the National Education Association (NEA) in cooperation with the North Caro-lina Education Association, Crowded Out dramatically tells the story of what happens to individual chil dren when communities outgrow

The film will be shown on chan nel 9 between 3:30 and 4 (follow ing the ball game) and on channe 7 at 4 p.m., according to H. L. Joslyn, county superintendent of

From the standpoint of the skilled teacher who can no longer give her pupils individual atten tion; from the standpoint of the gifted child, the withdrawn boy, and the eager girl who wants to learn the story unfolds and shows how tragic neglect of school facilities is overtaking the nation and

"The film is being shown on TV simultaneously all over the coun try at a time when the problem of overcrowded schools is a major problem in almost every American community," said Miss Joyce Taylor, president of the Carteret unit, NCEA, "and when, in spite of record school construction pro-grams, the needs of individual children are being woefully neglected. "When we look to the future we realize that tomorrow's engineers, in today's elementary schools. To neglect these children now is to gamble with the progress and security of our nation. I urge every citizen of this area to see Crowded

Out in Its television premiere this their schools

schools

its youngsters.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text> <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Also attending were Mrs. Emile Gillikin asd granddaughter Debbie, Laura Simpson and Mary, Mrs. Dolores "Pat" Gillikin and Pam and hostess, Claire Salter.

See us for a Personal Loan

Things could brighten up for you in a hurry with a convenient, low cost personal loan from First-Citizens. Drop in soon and discover how simple it is to get your head above water.

Ann

IRST

2000

3% GUARANTEED INTEREST ON SAVINGS

Conveniently Located in Morehead City Besufort Newport Swanshore Cherry Point Havelock and in other fine N. C. communities

We never lorget to Theat The