The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Donerson of Dover and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. L. E. Kelley of Jacksonville and the late Mr. Kelley. The bride's sister, Mrs. Luther R. Lewis of Kinston, was matron of honor and Mr. E. T. Arthur of Jacksonville was best man.

A. B. Cooper Comments on PTA Plans for Year

Mr. A. B. Cooper, president of the parent-teacher association of Morehead City School, announces that the first meeting of the new school year will be held Sept. 22 in the school auditorium. The time will be announced later. The PTA board of directors will meet with Mr. Lenwood Lee, school principal, Sept. 18 at 4 p.m. at the school to discuss plans for this year.

Serving on the board are Mr. Shelby Freeman, Mrs. Sylvester Fleming and Mrs. J. W. Thompson, in addition to Mr. Cooper. Membership, program and carnival chairmen and a luncheon committee are badly needed, according to Mr. Cooper. He asks that anyone interested in serving in any of these capacities contact him.

Mr. Cooper said the PTA is looking forward to the cooperation of every parent and grandparent in Morehead City to make this year the best the PTA has experienced.

Nephew of Mrs. Henry Holt Undergoes Surgery

Mrs. Henry Holt, Beaufort-Morehead Causeway, reports that her nephew, Vance Ward, 27, has recovered from an appendectomy. Mr. Ward, who has been in a coma since Nov. 27, 1956, is in the Community Hospital, Long Beach, Calif.

He has improved recently, however, and until the appendectomy, was able to be in a wheel chair. He is unable to speak, however, Mrs. Holt reports. He will drink coffee and eat soft foods if fed him, but otherwise he receives 3,500 calories of nutrition daily through tubes.

Mr. Ward was injured in a motorcycle accident. His wife and children live in Long Beach. He lived with his aunt, Mrs. Holt, in Morehead City for seven years before going to California.

His mother, Mrs. H. O. Park, Winston-Salem, returned home recently after spending three months with him this summer. She said she noted some improvement in his condition. Expenses of his recuperation are covered by insurance, Mrs. Holt said.

Nelson-Penny Vows are Spoken At Parkview Church Sunday

Mrs. Thelma Council Penny and Mr. Ernest Nelson were married at four o'clock Sunday at the Parkview Baptist Church. The Rev. W. P. Huff, pastor, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Council of Raleigh and the bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nelson of Atlantic.

Tall baskets of white gladiolas, ivy, and candelabra holding lighted tapers were used to decorate the church.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Josephine Mizesko, organist, and Mr. Frank Carlson, who sang I Love You Truly, and Miss Bernice Willis, who sang Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee.

The bride was given in marriage by her nephew, James B. Cole of Durham. She wore a sapphire blue crepe street length dress fashioned along semi-chemise lines with a low round neckline and small collar.

She wore matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Carolyn Wooten of Winston-Salem was matron of honor. She wore a pink crystalline dress with scoop neckline and bouffant skirt. She wore a matching headband and a white carnation corsage.

Mr. McDonald Nelson was best man for his father. Ushers were James E. Sykes and Wilbert D. Barnes.

Miss Carol Penny, daughter of the bride, wore an aqua crystalline dress with full circular skirt. She wore a white flower headband and a white carnation corsage. The women of the Parkview Church entertained at a reception following the ceremony.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. L. O. Crowe and introduced to the receiving line, composed of the bridal couple, their attendants, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cole and Mrs. L. W. Bishop of Raleigh.

Mrs. McDonald Nelson presided over the bride's book. Miss Carol Penny poured punch and Mrs. J. W. Holmes, sister of the bride, served cake. Goodbyes were said to the Rev. and Mrs. Huff.

Following a wedding trip to the western part of the state the couple are making their home at Mitchell Village. Mrs. Nelson is administrative assistant at the US Fishery Laboratory, Beaufort, and Mr. Nelson is a commercial fisherman.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cole and Miss Cindy Cole of Durham, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Holmes and Mrs. L. W. Bishop of Raleigh, Mrs. Carolyn Wooten of Winston-Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Willis, Atlantic.
