NOTICE OF RESALE OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY North Carolina Carteret County Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust executed by J. J. Quinn and wife, Helen H. Quinn, dated May 2, 1955, to the undersigned Trustee for First-Citizens Bank and Trust Company, and covering among other lands, the hereinafter described dwelling and land and personal property contained therein, situate in Carteret County, and the said deed of trust being recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Carteret County, North Carolina, in Book 161, at page 630, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness hereby secured; and the holder of the indebtedness hereupon secured by said deed of trust having requested a foreclosure by the trustee of the hereinafter described real and personal property situate in Carteret County, North Carolina, and expressly reserving all of its rights and liens covering the other lands described therein, the undersigned trustee, did offer the hereinafter described property for resale on the 25th day of August, 1958, and reported said resale in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court on August 25, 1958; and Whereas, on September 2nd, 1958, an upset bid was filed with said clerk, and a further Order of Re-Sale having been entered for the said real and personal property hereinafter described, the undersigned trustee will offer for re-sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at the Courthouse door in Carteret County, Beaufort, N. C., at about 12 o'clock noon on Friday, the 19th day of September, 1958, the said lands and personal property conveyed in said deed of trust and situate in Morehead City, Carteret County, North Carolina, and more particularly described as follows:

Being Lot No. 501, according to a map of Morehead City, N. C., made by George J. Brooks, C. E., January, 1949, recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Carteret County, N. C., in Map Book 1, page 139. Also all the personal property now in the dwelling on said lot; and being the same property described and conveyed in that certain deed appearing of record in Book 123, page 82, Carteret County Registry. And being the same lands and personal property conveyed to Helen H. Quinn by J. J. Quinn by deed of record in Carteret County in Book 154, page 380. And being the house and lot designated as No. 2413 Evans Street, Morehead City, North Carolina, and is a waterfront lot.

The personal property offered for sale consists of the household and kitchen furniture, including electric stove and electric refrigerator, bed linens, and kitchen equipment situate on the premises and connected with the occupancy and use thereof.

The said personal property above described will remain in said premises and will not be present at the courthouse door, but reasonable opportunity will be afforded every prospective purchaser or bidder to inspect both the real and personal property prior to the sale by applying at the office of Chalk & Gibbs, Morehead City, N. C., and arranging a time for such inspection.

The said house and lot above described, together with its contents, will be offered for re-sale, together

Negro News The Rev. Wesley Davis, 12 years old, of Morehead City will preach at the Walters Chapel AME Zion Church of Newport Sunday at 3 o'clock.

He will be accompanied by the St. Mary's Holiness Church choir. Sponsors of the program are Mrs. J. M. Kenon, Mrs. D. B. Tootle and Mrs. L. V. Warker.

Morehead City Hospital Admitted: Wednesday, Mrs. Josephine Pearson, Morehead City; Mrs. Bernice Colson, Beaufort; Friday, Miss Merinda Lyons, Detroit, Mich.

Sept. 16—The Broad Creek Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Nellie Parker on Thursday evening. The meeting was opened with the song, Onward Even Onward. Eleven members were present. The secretary read the minutes and the treasurer gave a report.

Mrs. Ruth Morris gave the treasurer a dollar and related the following incident: Recently, while preparing for the annual fish fry of the club, a neighbor of Mr. and Mrs. Morris dropped in. They invited him to the fish fry. He declined the invitation, but laid a dollar on the table with this remark, "I want to give this on your fish fry, for you are the first group of women I know who have stayed organized this long and haven't pestered me for money." Needless to say, he will receive a note of thanks from the club.

After the usual order of business, Mrs. Garner gave a demonstration on "Color in the Home." The members participated by choosing samples of materials for complete decoration of a room.

Several months ago the members of this club decided to add variety to the meeting by having a door prize. The person receiving the prize at one meeting brings the prize for the next month. Mrs. Macie Smith received the prize for September.

Refreshments of delicious homemade ice cream and cake was served.
