

Married in Catholic Church

Mrs. James William Loughman

Miss Catherine Ann Platt and James William Loughman of Leonia, N. J., were married at ten o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Egbert's Catholic Church.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter F. Higgins. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Theodore Phillips, organist, and Mrs. Clifton Lynch and Dr. L. J. Norris Jr., soloists.

Mrs. Lynch sang Ave Maria and Dr. Norris sang Father Most High. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. The basque bodice was fashioned with long sleeves and the bouffant skirt featured a front insert of pleated tulle.

Her shoulder length veil of silk net was attached to a sequined cap. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and white feathered carnations.

Maid of honor was Miss Martha Rae Hill of New Bern. Bridesmaids were Miss Connie Croom of Raleigh, cousin of the bride, and Miss Jean Loughman of Leonia, N. J., sister of the bridegroom.

They wore identical sheath dresses of red velvet with red satin cummerbunds. They wore white net caps and gloves and carried white fans with red flowers.

Richard Davis of Morehead City was best man. Ushers were George Phillips of Morehead City and Richard Brewer of Belleville, N. J.

The mother of the bride wore a brown silk dress with brown accessories and an orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue dress with blue accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception was given Monday evening at eight o'clock at the Morehead Biltmore Hotel. Guests were greeted by Mrs. Mamie Taylor and introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Fred Bell, Mrs. J.

Better Schools Chairman Will Speak Monday Night

The Morehead City Graded School will hold its first PTA meeting of the 1958-59 school year at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the school auditorium.

The program for the evening will include a talk by Dr. M. B. Morey, chairman of the Morehead Citizens Committee for Better Schools. Dr. Morey will give the PTA an up-to-the-minute report on the work of the Citizens Committee in behalf of better schools for our children.

President A. B. Cooper, along with the other officers and school officials, urges that all parents and interested persons attend this and every PTA meeting of the year. Many problems vital to the education of our children will be approached and the support of every person interested in our children and the advancement of our community is essential.

Episcopal Women Hold First Auxiliary Meeting

The first fall meeting of the Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church was held at the parish house at ten o'clock Tuesday morning.

The Rev. Guthrie Brown, rector of the parish, installed the following officers:

Mrs. Philip Ball, president; Mrs. George Stovall, vice-president; Mrs. Guthrie Brown, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Hicks, treasurer.

Mrs. Paul Branch, retiring president, turned the meeting over to the new president, Mrs. Ball, who conducted the business session.

The budget for the year was adopted; the group voted to omit refreshments at the four meetings of the General Auxiliary to be held during the year; heard the report of the Thrift Shop given by Mrs. Mary Shockley and voted to serve supper to the members of the Every Member Canvass at the parish house on Thursday evening, Oct. 30th.

Mrs. Ball announced that the United Thank Offering will be received at special communion services to be held at 7:30 a.m. Friday, Oct. 10. Mrs. David P. Willis, program chairman, presented the aims and objectives of the Auxiliary and urged that each member take part in the planned programs for the year.

Members of the committee headed by Mrs. Mary Shockley served cakes and coffee. Mrs. Paul Branch, who has held the post of president of the Auxiliary for the past two years, was warmly commended for her work.
