Carteret Women Attend Seminar

An educational seminar for the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the New Bern District of the Methodist Church was held recently at Centenary Church, New Bern, with Mrs. T. C. Lewis of Kinston, district secretary of Missionary Education, presiding.

More than a hundred women were present. Suggestions for presenting the programs of the year were given by Mrs. Fred Whitty of New Bern, district vice-president. Helpful information for teaching the four study courses was given by the following: Isaiah—Mrs. Sam Dunn of Enfield, Conference Secretary of Missionary Education; Christian Concern of North American Neighbors—Mrs. C. W. Taylor of Havelock and Mrs. John Steiner of Kinston; The Middle East—Mrs. John Wooten of Kinston, and Mrs. Walton Bass of New Bern; and Understanding Other Cultures—Mrs. J. L. Smith of Havelock and Mrs. Marvin Vick of Kinston.

Literature which is available concerning these subjects and other work of Methodist women was presented by Mrs. Eugene Koonce of New Bern.

The district president, Mrs. I. N. Moore of Beaufort, dedicated the offering, and Mrs. E. E. Davis of Beaufort gave a meditation based on selections from the book of Isaiah.

Ann Street Church Will Observe Education Week

By MRS. W. S. POTTER JR., Director of Christian Education
 Ann Street Methodist Church will open Christian Education Week, which begins Sunday, with Rally Day. The purpose of Christian Education Week and Rally Day is to inform our people of the goals and aims of our educational system.

The Rally Day program will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the sanctuary of the church. The nursery will be open for the infants and 2-year-olds in the educational building. The 3-year-olds will sit with their parents in the church.

Seats will be reserved on the front left hand side of the church for the 4 and 5's. The first six pews in the middle section will be reserved for grades 1 through 6. No other seats will be reserved.

The remainder of the Sunday School members may sit wherever they desire, unless a class has previously arranged to meet and sit together.

The program will consist of a brief summary by the director of Christian Education on what the board of education is trying to do in the field of Christian education. Following this, the kindergarten, primary and junior departments will present phases of the actual work and teachings that are included in the Sunday School classroom.

In addition to the regular offering, a special Rally Day offering will be taken. Envelopes were given out in Sunday School last Sunday and there will be a few available in the racks of the church. This offering comes back to us in the
