Mrs. Robert Barnum Reports on Girl Scouts

County Agents Judge Fair Entries

I want to thank all of the women who have consented to give of their time and talents, to the Girl Scout organization for the coming year.

It is a considerable effort for some to volunteer; but the results are quite rewarding when they know that they have helped to open up new fields of interest for a number of girls.

In the past two years, Girl Scouting has grown rapidly in Morehead City. We now have 13 full and active troops. There are girls still on waiting lists who need leaders. Right now we are starting a troop for 5th grade girls. Mothers and girls interested please contact me.
