Girl Scout Troop Meets, Learns Song from Africa

Girl Scout troop 220 met Wednesday at the Camp Glenn School. The hike planned to the new city park was delayed due to bad weather.

Girls in our troop are Adrienne Wagner, Rebecca Katje, Rosemary Fredericks, Linda Logue, Beth Hufham, Joan Goodwin, Lucy Taylor, Lynda Corey, Amy Dickson, Sharon Lewis, Cheryl Weeks and Nancy Bittner.

A song from Africa was learned. It was called Kee-Chee. Games were played and refreshments were served by Nancy Bittner and Lynda Corey.

We will not have a Scout meeting this week because a teachers meeting of Carteret County will be held at the school.

Club Welcomes Seven More

Seven new members this week. Whew! Count them—seven: Karen Lee Guthrie and her little brother Eddie, and Patricia Faye Lawrence, Morehead City; Lynn Talbot, Marsha and Rodney Hunt, Beaufort; and David Gatton, Baltimore, Md., formerly of Morehead City.

Glad to have you with us, boys and girls. Goodness, it's wonderful the way our Birthday Club keeps growing.

If you're not a member already, wouldn't you like to join? All you have to do is fill in the blank on this page and mail it to THE NEWS-TIMES. If you have a picture of yourself, send it along. It costs nothing to have your picture in the paper, and that's a good way to introduce yourself to other club members.

How about doing it right away? If you wait 'til close to your birthday, sometimes the Birthday Editor gets so busy she can't get your card off to you on time.

Did I say card? Yes, indeed, every club member receives a birthday card from THE NEWS-TIMES on his birthday, and his name appears in the Happy Birthday column in the Happy Times. It's fun to belong to the Birthday Club!

Form titled 'I WOULD LIKE TO JOIN THE NEWS-TIMES BIRTHDAY CLUB' with fields for Name, Address, Present Age, Birth Date, and a note about eligibility.
