Cub Scout Den Welcomes Two New Members

Den 1 of Pack 367 met Wednesday afternoon after school at the home of the den mother, Mrs. Julius Adair. We welcomed two new boys, twins, Victor and Lemuel Willis.

After the pledge to the flag, we discussed plans for our den skit. We made paper bag masks to be used to make us look like cattle in a round-up skit.

Julius Adair and Phillip Bennett were to be cowboys, and round-up the six new boys to "brand" as our den skit. Joe Belamash, den chief, assisted.

Phillip Bennett served refreshments. Jerry Autry will serve refreshments next week. We closed with the living circle and cub scout promise.

Miss Nassef of Kinston Weds Troy Ormond Jr.

Miss Carolyn Jean Nassef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Namon A. Nassef of Kinston, and William Troy Ormond Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ormond of Kinston, were married last Sunday at Queen Street Methodist Church, Kinston. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. B. B. Cole of Beaufort.

The Rev. Marvin T. Vick, pastor, officiated and music was presented by John Dyer, organist, and Miss Carol Kelley, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin and chantilly lace. The gown was designed with a basque bodice featuring a bateau neckline and long pointed sleeves with a bouffant skirt.

Her fingertip veil fell from a crown embroidered with seed pearls and she carried a prayer book topped with a white purple-throated orchid.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Ross E. Rouse Jr. of Chicago, Ill., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Jo Ormond, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Marie Sutton and Miss Dianne Adams.

All the attendants wore teal blue street length taffeta dresses with matching headbands and carried white lace fans with coral carnations.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Ross E. Rouse Jr. and Maylon Hamilton, both of Chicago, Harold Moringo, Tommy Phillips and Grover C. Cox. Tony Nassef was junior usher. A buffet supper was held at the home of the bride following the wedding.

The couple will live in Chicago upon their return from a wedding trip.

Miss Julia Allen Mason Speaks Vows with Charles M. Weatheby

Miss Julia Allen Mason of Beaufort and Charles Melton Weatheby of Fort Worth, Tex., were married at Ann Street Methodist Church Friday evening at seven o'clock.

The Rev. John Cline, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Charles Hassell, organist, and Tucker Littleton, soloist, who sang O Promise Me and The Lord's Prayer.

The vows were spoken before a background of white gladioli and carnations with greenery.

The bride entered the church alone. She wore a full length gown of satin fashioned with a pointed collar outlined with pearls and long sleeves ending in points over the hands.

The skirt featured a front insert of net ruffles and extended into a train in back. The sides of the satin skirt were also outlined in pearls.

She wore a full length veil of illusion attached to a pearl headband and carried a white prayer book showered with white carnations.

Miss Lavinia Mason, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a full length gown of pink net and taffeta fashioned with a fitted taffeta bodice with narrow straps and bouffant skirt.

Her headband was of matching pink material and she carried a pink and lavender nosegay.

Thomas Stanley of Jacksonville was best man. Ushers were John A. Wetherington Jr. and Thomas M. Wetherington of Morehead City, cousins of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Mason wore a grey tweed suit with black velvet trim and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the church after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Fort Worth, Tex. Upon their return they will be at home in Jacksonville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mason. She is a graduate of Beaufort High School and is employed by Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Co., Jacksonville.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herchell H. Weatheby of Fort Worth, attended Amon Carter High School and is stationed at Camp Lejeune with the Marine Corps.

Mrs. W. J. Cherry Joins CP&L Co.

Mrs. W. J. Cherry ... home economist

Mrs. William J. Cherry, Morehead City, has been named home service representative for Carolina Power & Light Co. in the Morehead City-Jacksonville area. Mrs. Cherry succeeds Mrs. Cecil Adams, who has transferred to CP&L's New Bern office.

Mrs. Cherry is a native of Morehead City and is a graduate of Flora Macdonald College, where she received a degree in home economics. Following graduation, she worked with the State Extension Service and taught home economics in the public schools. She recently completed a training course in home service work for CP&L.

Mrs. Cherry's area of work with CP&L includes Morehead City, Jacksonville, Havelock and Richlands. Her services include advice and assistance to homemakers in planning for better living, demonstrations of electrical appliances, assistance to electrical appliance dealers, and cooperation with civic, social, church and other organizations and agencies.

Sears Introduces New Credit Plan

A new deferred credit plan designed to make Christmas shopping easier on the family budget will be introduced in Sears, Roebuck and Co.'s 1958 Christmas catalog, scheduled for distribution now.

Under the new plan, no payment will be due until January of 1959 on merchandise ordered before Nov. 17. Thurlow Wheaton, Morehead City office manager, explains.

This new deferred payment program will be in effect on all merchandise offered in Sears current catalogs whether ordered by mail, telephone or through the local catalog sales office.

Sears is introducing the new deferred credit plan for the purpose of encouraging early Christmas gift selection and to make it easier for customers to budget their year-end expenses, Mr. Wheaton said.

Cars Collide

Buicks driven by F. M. Thompson, Beaufort, and William M. Thomas, route 1 Beaufort, collided in the alley behind Rose's dime store in Beaufort Saturday. Damage to Thompson's car was estimated at $300 and to Thomas's car, $200. Police Chief Guy Springle reports there were no charges.
