Miss Seadog Will be Crowned At BHS Homecoming Tonight

By BUNNY MOORE

"Tonight is the night!" Miss Seadog will be crowned, there will be floats, the band will perform, and the cheerleaders will cheer! Beaufort High School will hold its annual Homecoming at 8 p.m. at the athletic field. The game will be played between Farmville and Beaufort.

There will be a parade at 3:30 this afternoon giving you a preview of the contestants running for Miss Seadog.

After traveling all the way to Contentnea last Friday night, it was discovered that the game had been cancelled due to rain.

Everyone had to turn around and come back home. This was quite a disappointment for those who had made the trip.

The Latin Club met Friday morning for their second annual meeting. Sandra Haskins was in charge of the program and it was enjoyed by all.

Beaufort was well represented at the district FHA rally in New Bern, Saturday, Oct. 4. About 26 FHA girls attended. The Beaufort chapter gave the devotional and it was very impressive.

The Debating Club met Friday for the first time this year. Jackie Wheatley, last year's president, called the meeting to order. New officers were then elected and are as follows:

President, Linda Salter; vice-president, George Huntley; secretary, Ann Davis; treasurer, Donna Hudnall; program chairman, Clifford Lewis.

Douglas Piner, president of the Student Council, called a meeting Tuesday, Oct. 7. One of the projects of the club this year will be to promote better school spirit.

This week for the first time Mr. and Miss Senior are being interviewed.

Miss Senior, Glynda Lee Harris,

is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Harris.

Glynda was born June 15, 1941, and is seventeen years old. She stands 5' 4 1/2" tall and weighs 105 lbs. She was chosen most talented and best dancer in the senior class.

Her favorite food is pizza pie. The artists she admires most are Johnny Mathis and Joni James. As for music, the song that is tops with her is I Give You My Word. Glynda's pet peeve is people who can learn Latin.

Her future plans are to attend East Carolina and study music. While in high school, Glynda has been a member of the FHA, Tri-Hi-Y, Latin Club, Glee Club, Annual Staff, and a majorette.

Mr. Senior goes by the name of Sammy Ray Merrill, born to Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Merrill, on Sept. 6, 1941. He is seventeen years old.

Sammy stands 5' 1" tall and weighs 100 lbs. He was voted the most talented and most outstanding boy in the class.

His favorite food is steak. The male and female artists Sammy enjoys most are Nat King Cole and Joni James. His favorite song is If I Loved You. Sammy's pet peeve is sarcastic people.

He plans to attend college and major in music. While in high school Sammy has been a member of the Latin Club, Glee Club, Varsity Club, Student Council, piano student, band, basketball, and co-editor of the annual.

Longest-Gillikin

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gillikin announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathy, to William B. Longest III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Longest Jr., all of Beaufort.

The wedding will take place Friday, Oct. 24.

PTA to Meet

The Beaufort School Parent-Teacher Association will meet at 7:30 Tuesday evening in the school auditorium, announces the president, Mr. Gordon Becton.
