On the Death of Pius XII

Eugenio Pacelli, 262nd occupant of the office of St. Peter and twelfth Pope to be called Pius, died on October 9th.

It is interesting to note that the Roman Catholic Mass for that day well suits the commemoration of this great and holy man, as it is Catholic custom to remember the dead on the day he died—that is, the day he was born into heaven. The following are excerpts from this Mass:

The Introit, Eccl. 42, 15-16: "By the words of the Lord are his works. The sun giving light hath looked upon all things: and full of the glory of the Lord is his work."

Epistle, Paul's Cor. II 4, 1-6; 15-18: "Brethren: seeing we have this ministration, according as we have obtained mercy, we faint not; but we renounce the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, not adulterating the word of God: but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience, in the sight of God. And if our gospel be also hid, it is hid to them that are lost, in whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of unbelievers, that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not shine to them. For we preach not ourselves, but Jesus Christ our Lord; and ourselves your servants through Jesus. For God, who commanded the Light to shine out of darkness hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ Jesus. For all things are for your sakes; that the grace abounding through many, may abound in thanksgiving unto the glory of God. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man is corrupted, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For that which is at present momentary and light of our tribulation, worketh for us above measure exceedingly an eternal weight of glory. While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen, are temporal; but the things which are not seen, are eternal."

And from the Gradual, Isa. 49, 2: "He hath made my mouth like a sharp sword: in the shadow of his hand He hath protected me, and hath made me as a chosen arrow." The Gospel is that of Luke in

Men's Fellowship Will Conduct Service Sunday

The Christian Men's Fellowship will conduct the worship service Sunday morning at 11 in the First Christian Church, Morehead City.

The Bible School hour will begin at 10 a.m. Visitors are welcome, announces the Rev. J. W. Funk, pastor.

which Christ sends forth the seventy-two.

The Offertory quotes Col. 1, 25: "I am made a minister of Christ according to the dispensation of God, which is given me, that I may fulfill the word of God."

Some Mass books, called Missals, include at the end of each day's variable biblical excerpts, a Daily Thought from the Following of Christ. For that day, it reads: "If thou hadst a good conscience, thou wouldst not much fear death. If thou art not prepared today, how wilt thou be tomorrow? Tomorrow is an uncertain day; and how knowest thou if thou shalt have tomorrow?"

The Christian Viewpoint

Prepared by Department of Bible Presbyterian Junior College, Maxton, North Carolina

"One of the reasons America's standards of living are higher than the rest of the world's," said an advertising man, "is that Americans read in ads about a new invention and rush down to buy it. Other people do not even know it exists."

There is a story about a man who asked the church sexton how he liked the new preacher. "I like to hear him preach and I like to hear him pray," said the sexton. "He asks the Lord for things I didn't know the Lord had."

One of the things which holds us back is that we do not ask the Lord for some of His best gifts. We pray "Give us this day our daily bread" much more earnestly than we pray "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done."

Jesus said, "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you." (Matt. 7:7)

Dependents of Disabled Can Apply for More Benefits

"An important notice was enclosed with the social security checks delivered this month to the 200,000 disabled workers who are receiving monthly disability insurance benefits," reports W. W. Thomas, manager of the New Bern district office of the Social Security Administration.

This notice tells them about a provision in the 1958 amendments to the social security law under which supplementary dependent's benefits may be paid to certain members of his family.

Disability insurance benefits have been payable to severely disabled workers 50 to 65 years of age since 1957. These disability payments are equal in amount to the monthly old-age insurance benefits the worker would receive if he were already 65 years of age, but the dependents of these workers have not until now been eligible for payments.

Under the new amendments, the disabled person's dependents will be paid the same benefits they would receive if he were 65 and drawing benefits as a retired worker.

Benefits can be paid to any of his children who are under age 18 (or who have been totally disabled since before their 18th birthdays), and to his wife regardless of her age, if she has in her care children who are eligible for these dependent's benefits.

If there is no child in the family eligible for benefits, the wife of a disabled person can qualify for benefits when she reaches 62. It is estimated that about 180,000 dependents of disabled workers could start collecting benefits, beginning with a payment for the month of September 1958. Before payment can be made, however, an application must be filed by or on behalf of the eligible dependent with the nearest social security office.

The office that services this area is located at 305 Pollock St., New Bern, N. C.

A social security representative visits this county every Tuesday from 9:30 a.m. to noon. His office is in the courthouse annex, Beaufort.

Parents, Children Study Together in Ohio School

Yellow Springs, Ohio (AP) — Some youngsters here have had a chance to see how well Mom and Pop do in school. The Adult Center at Antioch College gave courses in science and French for families to take together as a group.

The age difference didn't create too many problems, says Dr. Oliver Loud, professor of physical sciences, who adds:

"On the whole, the parents kept up pretty well with the children."

Bull Bolted

Portage La Prairie, Man. (AP)—A young bull being washed before going on show at the annual fair here got some water in his ear which annoyed him. He broke his halter and tore across a nearby golf course, treeing three golfers before being recaptured.

Teachers Go To Kinston Today

Members of the Carteret NCEA will attend the district meeting at Kinston today. Schools are closed to permit teachers to be there.

Announcement of the district meeting was made at the recent meeting of the county NCEA unit at Camp Glenn School.

The speaker at that meeting was Mrs. Phoebe Emmons, NCEA field representative. Entertainment was provided by children of the fourth and fifth grades of Camp Glenn School, taught by Mrs. Ed McKinley and Mrs. Mary Richardson. The children sang in the Little Red Schoolhouse, An Apple for the Teacher, and three folk songs.

Mrs. Bill Sewell, secretary-treasurer, gave her reports and Miss Joyce Taylor, president, gave the welcome. Miss Gertrude Styron presented the meditation, a discussion of the 23rd psalm and prayer.

Theme of the NCEA is Professional Growth through Professional Organizations.

Voting was made compulsory in Puerto Rico in 1917.
