Catholic Society Plans Book Fair and Bazaar

A feature of the bazaar to be sponsored by the Rosary-Altar Society of St. Egbert's Catholic Church Nov. 8 will be a book fair.

Over 200 children's books will be on display for sale and to order. The books have been selected in three groups: first through third grade, fourth through sixth grade, and seventh through ninth grade.

In the first group will be Chow Chow by Francoise, Buffalo Bill, George Washington and The Magic Meadows by d'Aulaires, as well as other books.

Beautiful Joe by Saunders is on the list of fourth through sixth grade books. Monsell's Young Stonewall; Tom Jackson, Mark Twain's Prince and the Pauper, Lofting's Story of Dr. Doolittle, and Wheeler's series on famous musicians will be in this group.

Offered in the third group will be biographies of such famous men and women as Alfred Smith, Poca-hontas and Thomas Edison, and a number of mysteries.

A Contemporary World Atlas will be offered and of interest to teens and near-teens will be a selection of etiquette books, such as Betz's Your Manners are Showing and Boykin's This Way Please.

If organizations wish to buy books for donations to church or school libraries, special donor's labels will be given free.

Any person or group desiring information or wishing to see the book selection at a date other than that of the bazaar may phone Mrs. John Lavoy, PARK 6-8432.

GENERATIONS OF SERVICE! The old family rocking chair (in which grandma rocked daddy) has become a well loved symbol of long and faithful service in many a home. We can heartily applaud this warm sentiment for the tried-and-trusted... because we too have had the privilege of serving one generation after another for 60 years... have helped them to achieve security and success. Confidently we look forward to doing the same for their children and their children's children.
