Miss Hilma Chadwick Weds

Mrs. Robert Earl Payne

The wedding of Miss Hilma Lucille Chadwick and Robert Earl Payne was solemnized Sunday evening at six o'clock in a ceremony at Straits Methodist Church. The vows were heard by the Rev. C. R. West.

The church was decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums in baskets, southern smilax and seven-branched candelabra held lighted cathedral tapers.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Gerald Whitehurst of Straits, pianist, and Bobby Bell of Morehead City, soloist. Mr. Bell sang Because and I Love You Truly.

Given in marriage by her brother, Leslie Chadwick of Winston-Salem, the bride wore a gown of crystal satin, nylon net and alocen lace.

The gown featured a fitted bodice with high neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands and a bouffant skirt.

Her veil of illusion fell from a lace cap embroidered in seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations showered with satin ribbons.

Miss Dorothy Chadwick of High Point College, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Sam Meadows of Swansboro, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

They wore identical ballerina gowns of blue nylon net over taffeta with matching headbands and carried colonial nosegays of carnations.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ella Margaret Davis of Portsmouth, Va., and Mrs. Leslie Chadwick of Winston-Salem, sister-in-law of the bride.

They wore pink dresses fashioned like those of the honor attendants with matching headbands and carried similar bouquets.

Frank H. Whitehurst of Baltimore, Md., was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Sam Meadows of Swansboro and Aubrey Bates of Charleston, S. C.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Chadwick wore a dress of blue crepe embroidered with beads, with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of Mrs. Lela Chadwick, aunt of the bride, in Morehead City after the ceremony. Guests were greeted
