Beta Club Inducts Members; Varsity Queen to be Named

By WENDY LOWE

Quite a few things have been happening around MCHS during the past few weeks.

On Thursday, Oct. 16, 23 juniors were welcomed into the Beta Club. The impressive service was led by President Guy Sabiston. Wendy Lowe, Truman Kemp, Charles Lynch, and Jennie Lou Smithwick spoke on Education for Leadership, the objectives, emblem, and requirements of the club.

The new members were then tapped. They are:

Mary Hanes, Nancy Laughton, Cathy Chalk, Virginia Thompson, Leslie Fulcher, Carl Ball, Anne Sanderson, Marlene Moore, Doris Farmer.

Mokey Lasitter, Andrea McKnight, John Phillips, Suzanne Beck, Annette Cooper, Johnny Baker, George Wallace, Barbara Roush.

Bud Daniels, Evelyn Morris, Barbara Jones, Wayne Economon, Priscilla Salter and Geraldine Reid.

After they were seated on stage, the president congratulated them. We, too, say Congratulations, Beta Babies!

The biggest excitement in school is the Varsity Queen contest. This year she will be chosen by the students by a secret ballot. Contestants are:

Bunny Brinson, Douglass West, Linda Lockhart, Sara Goodwin, Cathy Chalk, Jo Ann Parsons, Mary Hanes, Sarita Bedsworth, Becky Stiles, Doris Farmer and Melva Swinson.

The big question of "Who will she be?" will be answered tonight at the half-time of Morehead's homecoming game — the annual battle with Beaufort for the mullet bucket!

The Tri-Hi-Y is busy preparing a student-teacher directory. This "little black book" will include the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of students and teachers of MCHS.

Janet Thomas, Lillian Royall, and Phyllis Whitehead are in charge of gathering the necessary information. These directories will be distributed during the next two weeks and the price is only 35 cents. Be sure to put your order in early.

That's all the teen topics for this time. Be sure to look again next week for more news of MCHS.
