

entering, and larceny. not be in session today. The term diversions while the Elks are in The Beaufort town board last night will be resumed at 9:30 tomorrow. business sessions.

Postal Staff

Attends Dinner

Bound to Superior Court

The judge ordered that William Henry Jones be brought into court on a drunken driving charge, and that Carl Locklear also be brought into court to be tried for breaking, entering and larceny. Because of the election, court will be discussed of the election, court will be discussed of the election, court will at the interiment of the section of the s Patromarr3. W. Sykes said that the oil tanker, driven by Odum Mc-Lelland, Bolivia, N. C., was going east and smashed into the rear of a 1956 Ford driven by Troy Mason Simmons, route 2 Newport. The Ford, to avoid hitting a 1955 Plymouth ahead of it, swerved. The Plymouth was driven by Lynwood Clifton Hill, New Bern. Hill saw in his rear view mirror what was happening and he too tried to avert the accident. Woman Charged with Bigamy

They succeeded fairly well. Dam age to the Plymouth was about $25, but damage to the Ford was about $700. Damage to the 1957 Interna-tional tractor-trailer oil tanker was estimated at $150.

following too closely. No one was hurt.

Morehead Band

models.

Court of Honor

Civitan club members are now | ganizations, business firms and selling fruit cakes to raise money friends in the Buck-a-Month club. importance of keeping proper rec-to finance the club's civic projects. The Civitan state organization has ords. Warren Beck, sales chairman, warren Beck, sales chairman, this as one of its official projects announces that 1,400 pounds of and has an obligation to donate fruit cake are on hand, most of the cakes in 3-pound sizes. Per-sons who would like to have a cake (Claxton brand) can call Wal-ter Morris, Jeweler, or Sound Appliance Co.

Civitans Sell Fruit Cakes

Claixton brand) can can the state chairman of "Boys Home" Mr. Simpkins explained that "Boys Home" of Morehead City on highway 70 He also reported that Civitans and purpose of providing a home for

The Civitan state organization has this as one of its official projects

List Registrants

Mrs. Charleen Bryant, alias Mrs., Two women paid court costs Guy Avery, was bound over to They were Elizabeth Gray, dis-superior court under $500 bond turbing the peace, and Ida May Thursday. County recorder's court Dixon, assault. judge Lambert Morris heard charges that the woman had mar-Five defendants forfeited be Defendants and charges follow ried Avery without getting a di-vorce from her husband in Vir-Joseph Earl Boyd, and Joseph Gi-vielli, speeding; John R. Basden,

In bonor of Clarence Pelletier, who retired from the Morehead City postoffice staff Friday, pos-tal employees and their wives at tended a dinner Wedn sday night at the Rex Restaurant. Postmaster Harold Webb read a letter of commendation to Mr. Pel-kein and presented him pel-

To Solicit Funds Members of the Morehead City

School band will start raising mon ey for the band Friday night. Be ing at 6:30 they will call at tes for contributions.

Flag bearers and majorettes will be in the business section Satur day seeking contributions and at 1:30 p.m. Saturday the basic unit

McLelland has been charged with

Music Review The Beaufort PTA will sponsor

ceeds will go to the PTA.

For Cubs Will Be

The program, under the direc-tion of Mrs. Charles Hassell a fashion show and music review Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 14 and 15, at Beaufort School will feature the high school glee club. Fashions for men and wo-men will be shown by local tan Club sign just off Arendell Street near Freeman's Wholesale Co. Another sign was put up near the western city limits.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. Admis-sion will be a dollar for adults and 50 cents for children. Pro-

To Finance Civic Projects PTA to Sponsor

somebody just came up behind him and threw a knife into him.

Now, through affiliation with the N, C. Cosmetologists Guild Inc., and also with National Hairdress-ers and Cosmetologists Association, Inc., it is their hope to be able to bring big name hair stylists and factory technicians to them.

The group, being civic-minded, has started to inquire about try-ing to bring in beauty conventions for this area. Each monthly meeting will be of the birth of our present federal tax and ended by stressing the a worthwhile one. At the last meet-ing, Josiah Bailey, CPA, spoke about taxes. He gave a summary

Five Precincts

