Seadogs, Fans Hope for Victory In Final Football Game Tonight

By BUNNY MOORE

This is the last night. Tonight the Beaufort Seadogs will play their final game of the season. The game between Swansboro and Beaufort will begin at 8 p.m. at the Beaufort field.

We hope that the season will end with a victory, but whatever the outcome, we will be more than proud of our team and the coaches for the fine record they have maintained this year.

Especially we owe a great deal to our four seniors who will be playing for the last time tonight, namely Gordon Becton, John Smith, Snuffy Willis, and Allen Autry.

The Latin Club held its meeting last Friday, Oct. 31. We had a most impressive program given by Patsy Whitehurst.

Committees were appointed to begin getting to work on the Roman banquet which will take place in February.

The Lambda Chi held their annual meeting last Thursday, Oct. 30. The club gave a tea Wednesday to honor the faculty. This was enjoyed by everyone.

The Glee Club will give its Fashion and Musical Review Nov. 14-15. This is going to be one of the big events at BHS this year. High school students will be featured

By MISS LOUISE

The cost of living HAS gone up, but you can still keep your food costs down and give your family nutritious, tasty foods by taking advantage of the specials at Colonial and A&P stores in Beaufort and Morehead City.

Our recipe this week uses quick oats on sale at A&P, 20 ounces Sunnyside oats for 17 cents.

Other items you can get at A&P for $5 plus just one penny this week are a 4-pound pork loin roast, two 48-ounce cans of tomato juice; two 20-ounce Betty Crocker cake mixes, 4 pounds York apples, three grapefruit, 12-ounce glass of strawberry preserves, can of Del Monte fruit cocktail and 2 pounds pole beans.

A $5-bill this week goes a long way at Colonial too: 2 pounds ground beef, 2 pounds beef liver, 3-pound can of lard, dozen doughnuts, 3 pounds cabbage, 5 pounds oranges, bunch of turnips, pound of Silver Label coffee, 24-ounce chocolate cake, pound cottage cheese and 1 can of Big Star margarine.

Change? One penny.

Refer to the food ads in the second section of today's paper to make up the grocery and household shopping list for your family. Planned buying means profit for you!

Because rolled oats are high in food value, it's a good practice to use them as much as possible in their many delicious variations. This is a recipe for raisin-and-spice muffins:
