

Girl Scouts Help Beautify Outdoor Spots

Have you noticed any little girls dressed in green out at the Morehead City park? You may have seen them digging in the earth around the trees and various spots. They have been performing their duties as Girl Scouts by participating in the Outdoor Good Turn for 1958. Each troop has picked out its own plot and set out bulbs that will be blooming in the spring.

They intend to follow up the planting by caring for the beds and keeping them thinned and weeded.

These girls are the Brownies, the 7 to 10-year-old group and the intermediates, 10 to 14 years old.

The recreation building, being the meeting place of two intermediate troops, will also get its flower beds set out, probably annuals as well as a few bulbs.

The two school houses of Morehead also furnish meeting places for troops and they will benefit also from the Girl Scout's contribution to the out-of-doors.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troops No. 97 and No. 148 will view films on the patrol system at the recreation center tomorrow after school.

All leaders and scouts are asked to be on time. There will be a discussion period following the films, led by Mrs. Hugh Porter.

Firemen Make Weekend Calls

The Morehead City fire department answered an alarm at 8:35 p.m. Sunday and another at 12:20 p.m. yesterday.

The fire Sunday night was at Amy's Grill, 1212 Bridges St. Bad wiring for a neon sign caused an electrical fire. Although the firemen had trouble finding the fire, which was inside a wall, the fire was put out without too much damage. They stayed at the grill about an hour.

A car caught fire at 2705 Arendell St. yesterday. The car, a Cadillac, was damaged under the trunk when a fire blew out and caused the back end to catch fire.

Firemen were at the fire about twenty minutes.

The PTA Fashion Show and Music Review at Beaufort School Friday and Saturday nights is in three parts, a fall symphony of music and ballet followed by fall fashions, a football farce as part two, followed by fashions for outdoor sports and cold weather, and part three, a yuletide setting followed by Christmas fashions and gift suggestions.

The three-part show attempts to create an artistic and musical setting for the three fashion categories.

Part one is a fall symphony of music and ballet, followed by fall fashions.

The football farce features members of Glee Club, cheer leaders and football team. Starring as himself, the coach, is Vernon Morrison, and his long suffering assistant and trainer, Bruce Tarkington.

A boy's quartet will serenade with the immortal Whiffenpoof Song. Leading singing roles are played by Becky Munroe and Denard Harris.

Others in the farce are Lilly Herbert as a Southern belle, Allen Aultry as a football beef without brains; Summy Fisher the wise cracking bench-warmer and Julia Smith, a smart cookie. This act is followed by fashions for outdoor sports and cold weather.

Part III will feature a girl's group of Christmas Carolers, led by Tucker Littleton of the high school faculty. A gigantic Christmas tree under real falling snow gives the added touch of real Yuletide spirit. Christmas fashions, gift suggestions and glamorous evening wear will follow.

Doors will open at 7 p.m. to allow time to visit the brilliant show rooms set up by stores on the first floor of the school. Glee club ushers will direct customers to the Country Store and Snack Bar, also on the first floor.

These attractions will be open during the 20-minute intermission. All sorts of delicacies will be on sale at the Country Store.

Master of ceremonies will be Walton Hamilton; fashion commentator, Dick Babcock; radio sports caster, Charlie Markey; fashion director, Mrs. Wiley Lewis; showroom director, Mrs. W. R. Hamilton.

Admission is a dollar for adults and 50 cents for children.

The show was written and is directed by Mrs. Charles Hassell.

Carnival Sets Newport Record

R. K. Montague, Newport Hal- loween Carnival publicity chairman, reports that the profit made on the carnival Oct. 31 was almost twice as much as made in the past. The profit amounted to more than $1,500. Over $900 was made on the king and queen contest.

Attendance at the carnival was estimated at 6,000, also believed to be a record.

Mr. Montague reports, "The side shows were a lot of fun. No one will forget the different scents on Double Your Money. The fishing and duck ponds were popular as always and people couldn't get enough candied apples. The grab bags were full of surprises."

"Mr. Glenwood Garner won nearly $15 worth of items when he won the surprise box. The tickets sold for a dollar each. The rumor is that Mr. Garner almost didn't buy a ticket. How lucky can you get? Patsy Garner and Tim Mann each won cakes in the cake walks."

King and queens were as follows: primary, Rodney Garner and Betsy Garner; elementary, Douglas Summerill and Sue Edwards; high school, Garland Whitaker and Lina Lineberger.

"The carnival was the most perfect of any we've ever had," Mr. Montague concluded.

Coast Guard Makes Assists

Fort Macon Coast Guardsmen made three rescue calls over the weekend. At 7:55 a.m. Saturday the 31-foot yacht, Anna Maria, owned by Raymond McCallum, Goldsboro, had engine failure five miles south southeast of the Beaufort sea buoy. The boat was towed to Beaufort.

At 11:45 a.m. Saturday, the Coast Guard got a call from the Morehead City yacht basin reporting the 36-foot yacht Ricky D. in trouble 15 yards from lighted buoy 14 in Morehead City channel.

The yacht's anchor had become caught in something on the bottom. The Coast Guard 30-footer could not free the anchor. At 12:55 p.m. two boats got the anchor free and the Ricky D., owned by J. M. Boyette, Wilson, was towed to Cannon's boatworks.

On Sunday morning Coast Guardsmen assisted Jim Pittman, Salter Path, in freeing his anchor embedded in a fish net off Fort Macon beach.

Mild Winter Reported So Far

Weather observed Stamey Davis reports that this month is much warmer than November 1957. He says that the minimum temperatures are running as much as 10 degrees warmer than this time last year.

The temperature has not dropped below 47 degrees this month and Sunday afternoon the mercury climbed to a warm 73. Except for about a quarter-inch of rain on the first and a wind squall Sunday night, this month has been free of bad weather.

In Sunday night's wind squall Mr. Davis estimates that the wind got as high as 40 miles per hour. Maximum and minimum temperatures and wind direction for the month follow:

Driver Cited After Saturday Wreck

L. V. Jones, Beaufort, charged with careless and reckless driving and speeding, was admitted to Morehead City Hospital Saturday night. He and another person were in a 1955 Mercury which went off a curve at 10:20 on the Merrimon Road about a mile from the intersection with highway 70.

Patrolman J. W. Sykes said the car traveled 315 feet along the ditch, after it left the highway.

Both Jones and his passenger were taken to the Morehead City Hospital. Only Jones was admitted. He was later discharged.

Nothing Important Is Left in Theatre

Newark, N. J. (AP)—Kids will leave mittens, scarves, galoshes and even shoes behind after attending Saturday movie matinees. But a water pistol or coonskin cap? Never.

A survey of lost and found departments of several downtown theatres showed mounds of clothing that mother made their offspring wear when they went to the movies.

But there was hardly a slingshot, space helmet and other such really important articles in the whole pile.

Checking Up Windsor, Ont. (AP)—Police are to patrol a new parking area after dark, following a complaint in a letter to city council that many young people "are not parked there to admire the Detroit River."

Former Smyrna Resident Wins Position in Florida

Harry R. Chadwick Jr., successful candidate

Harry R. (Bobby) Chadwick Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chadwick, Smyrna, was elected a county commissioner of Pinellas County, Florida, Tuesday.

Mr. Chadwick, a Republican, was a popular candidate. Born in Washington, D. C., he received his bachelor and law degrees at Duke University. He is 29 years old.

Salary of a county commissioner in Pinellas County is $10,000 a year. Pinellas embraces St. Petersburg and Clearwater.

The St. Petersburg Times, which endorsed Mr. Chadwick, said, prior to the election, "Harry R. Chadwick Jr., at present the chief deputy to the Pinellas Circuit Court Clerk, seems to us one of the best commission potentialities ever to offer himself in this county.

"Mr. Chadwick is both an accountant and a lawyer. As deputy clerk he has had an unparalleled opportunity to learn the county's business. He is the most articulate spokesman in public life against the excessive fills which have ruined Boca Ciega Bay and threaten all Pinellas waters. His position in regard to the Bayway echoes the public interest.

"Intelligent, informed and vigorous as he is, we believe Harry Chadwick is outstanding in this race."

Mr. Chadwick is married and has a son. The family lives at 6780 29th Avenue North, St. Petersburg.

He graduated from Smyrna High School and after his college education, went to St. Petersburg where he obtained a position in county government.

Broadway Writer Switches to TV

New York (AP)—Richard Adler, Broadway songwriter, is gambling that show history is going to repeat.

Adler, co-author of the hit shows "Pajama Game" and "Damn Yankees," is currently doing the scores for two television musicals.

The composer says that he has been asked why he is risking his reputation in video, where many previous tune efforts have failed.

"I'm sure that in the early days of movies, there was a clique of Broadway snob-writers who were declaring the prospects of success of original motion picture musicals were very slim," he says.

"They were proven wrong, and I'm gambling that these cynics are wrong once more."

In Holland Thanksgiving Day services are offered for Americans visiting or working in that tiny country.
