Literary and Art Members Get Ideas for Christmas Decorating

Mrs. Bill Bynum of New Bern was the guest speaker at the Literary and Art Department meeting Tuesday afternoon at the civic center. Mrs. Bynum, who was presided by Mrs. Gus Davis, used as her topic Make Your Own Merry Christmas.

Mrs. Bynum said that in decorating a home for Christmas a particular theme should be followed throughout. She suggested decorations in every room.

Mrs. Bynum made several beautiful arrangements using materials available to nearly everyone.

In a particularly lovely arrangement Mrs. Bynum centered a silver cake tray with a gold-sprayed fresh pineapple and made a background of large leaves. She placed bunches of fresh grapes on either side of the pineapple and filled in with green and gold Christmas balls.

For a door she suggested using a red dustpan turned upside down and filled with pyracantha or yucca branches. She tied a red bow on the handle and punched a hole in the top for hanging.

Mrs. Milton Roush, chairman, presided at the business meeting. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Bernard Leary, Mrs. Gus Davis read the minutes. She also read a letter from Mrs. D. Cordova, president of the Woman's Club, thanking the department for the coffee hour given at the preceding meeting.

Mrs. Roush recognized the guests, Mrs. John Lashley, Mrs. George B. Howard, Mrs. H. S. Gibbs, Mrs. Dick Parker and Mrs. G. H. Jackson of Raleigh. New members welcomed were Mrs. George McNeill, Mrs. G. D. Gamble and Mrs. James Webb.

Help-at-home project slips were passed out and the members were asked to fill them in with items they would give to the welfare department. Mrs. B. F. Royal volunteered to attend the symphony meeting to be held at the civic center Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Roush reported on the district meeting at Trenton and Mrs. S. T. Chadwick gave a report on the beautification of the grounds at Samarcand, two-year project of the Woman's Club.

Mrs. A. B. Roberts reported that 291 children took part in the UNICEF campaign on Halloween night and $310.24 was collected.

The hostesses, Mrs. Charles Bennett, Mrs. L. J. Norris, Mrs. Dewey Willis, Mrs. Gordon Willis, Mrs. W. G. Oglesby and Mrs. Chadwick served refreshments of fruit cake and coffee.

Episcopal Women to Send Gifts to Children's Home

St. Mary's Chapter of St. Andrew's Episcopal Auxiliary will send Christmas gifts to the children at Thompson Orphanage, it was decided at the chapter meeting Wednesday morning at the parish house.

Mrs. Grayson Bullock, chairman, presided. Devotions were given by Mrs. Bill Dick, who read an article, Thanks for What, and gave a Thanksgiving prayer.

It was announced that Mrs. R. H. Dowdy's team will serve the Men's Club dinner Nov. 25. Mrs. Richard McClain's team will serve as the clean-up committee.

The members were reminded of the convocation meeting in Goldsboro Nov. 20. The acolytes will be honored at a reception following a special service for them Nov. 30. A congregational supper will be held Nov. 17 at 6 p.m. in the parish house.

Mrs. Ernest Guthrie, vice-chairman, gave the program, a reading from The Prophet.

Mrs. E. Guthrie Brown served cookies and colas at the conclusion of the meeting.

Eight Persons Win Prizes At St. Egbert's Bazaar

Lingerie Shower Honors November Bride-Elect

Miss Jean Brown, bride-elect of Nov. 28, was entertained at a lingerie shower Tuesday evening, given by her bridesmaids at the home of Mrs. Edward McLawhorn. Hostesses were the Misses Shirley Griffin, Beadie Ballou, Janice Lovick, and Sue Bordeaux and Mrs. Ruth Springle.

Upon arrival, the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Noah Brown, and the mother of her fiancé, Mrs. W. R. Kittrell, were presented corsages of white carnations.

A green and yellow motif was followed. Arrangements of yellow flowers were used in the living room. The gifts were placed before the stone fireplace, in which a parasol decorated in green and white was placed.

The dining table was covered with a white cloth. At one end was a five-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers and tied with a white satin bow. At the other end of the table was an arrangement of miniature white chrysanthemums.

Games of bingo were played after which the honoree opened her gift. She received a gown and peignoir from the bridesmaids.

Refreshments of nut sundaes, cake squares, salted nuts and mints were served.

Stork Shower is Given To Honor Mrs. Chadwick

Mrs. Donald Chadwick was honored at a stork shower Wednesday evening at the Jefferson Coffee Shop, given by Mrs. Alma Chadwick, Mrs. Bonnie Jarman and Mrs. Ronald Byroade. Upon arrival the honoree was presented a novelty corsage of baby items.

The table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a bowl of lavender and yellow miniature chrysanthemums. Other arrangements were placed around the room. A large stork and a decorated bassinet were placed near the gift table.

Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Jimmy Parker, Mrs. Gloria Jackson, Mrs. Georgia Parker, Mrs. Ann Smith, Mrs. Barbara Gilpin, and the honoree, Mrs. Smith won the name-the-baby contest and the door prize was won by Mrs. Carlton Robinson.

Cake squares, peanuts, mints, coffee and soft drinks were served.

Methodist Pastor Gives Devotions at PTA Meeting

The Rev. Samuel S. Moore, pastor of Franklin Memorial Methodist Church, gave the devotions at the meeting of the Morehead City PTA Monday night at the school.

Mr. A. B. Cooper, president, presided. He expressed his appreciation to all who contributed to making the Halloween carnival a success. The carnival profit amounted to $1,330.95, which the PTA will use in its projects.

It was announced that a panel discussion on the present school situation and plans for improvement will be presented at the Dec. 5 meeting. Mrs. Darden Eure will be narrator.

A filmstrip, Crowded Out, was presented as the program. The film dealt with school conditions.

Miss Lewis, Bride-Elect, Is Honored at Cola Party

Mrs. Frank Moran, Mrs. L. J. Norris and Mrs. John Lashley were hostesses at a cola party Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Katrina Lewis, bride-elect of Nov. 23.

Four Tri-Hi-Y Girls Attend Convention; Juniors Order Rings

By ANN SANDERSON

Four girls from the MCHS chapter of the Tri-Hi-Y attended a convention of Tri-Hi-Y delegates from North and South Carolina held in Lexington. The girls, Cathy Chalk, Doris Farmer, Anne Herbert, and Barbara Roush, left Friday morning and returned Sunday. During the convention, officers for the next year were elected. Our own Cathy Chalk was elected a member of the inter-state council. The officers will represent their regions and plan for the convention to be held the next year.

The program consisted of workshops explaining and instructing in officer's duties, club-school relations, and worship services. Dr. McMillan was one of the outstanding speakers.

The convention was sponsored by the Lexington YMCA and delegates visited in the members' homes. On the return trip the girls visited four college campuses. All the girls reported having a wonderful time and expressed special pleasure in meeting so many new people.

The long-awaited day arrived Tuesday when the junior class met to fit class rings. The rings are of the usual MCHS stone, the ruby. Rings are available in three stone sizes and pins are also available.

As usual, the girls were complaining about their large ring sizes and the boys were bragging that they could not get one to fit them.

A $5 deposit was required to be paid to Mary Hanes, the class treasurer.

All the juniors are anxiously awaiting the day when they can

Child Recovers From Non-Contagious Disease

Jesse W. Gorman, Newport, whose 2½-year-old daughter, Sharon, was stricken with meningitis last Thursday night, says that Sharon did not have the contagious type of meningitis.

He said that quite a few persons in his neighborhood were alarmed. Dr. Harold Peacock, Sea Level Hospital, where the child was hospitalized, told Mr. Gorman Tuesday morning that tests show Sharon did not have the contagious type of infection.

She was kept in isolation at the hospital until the seriousness of her disease was determined. She is recovering satisfactorily.
