Final Pep Rally is Given; Lamba Chi Honors Faculty

By BUNNY MOORE

What a way to end the season! The Seagods ended their football season last Friday night with a smashing victory over Swansboro, 33-6. The boys proved that they are still on top and the Beaufort fans consider them the best.

It was the last game for some of the boys and I am sure they will never forget it. This year there was more spirit throughout the high school than ever before and for this reason I know everyone hated to see the season end.

Last Friday morning the last football pep-rally was held. Truly this was one of the best. We had a few words from members of the team and the coach, and then the cheering began.

The Latin Club will hold their bi-weekly meeting today. In charge of the program for this meeting will be Bunny Moore.

The Debating Club held their meeting Tuesday, Nov. 11. The club set a date for taking in new members. Also it was decided that this year debates would be given before the high school.

The Lamba Chi honored the faculty with a tea last Wednesday, Nov. 5. Each person was im-

News from BETTIE

The November meeting of the Bettie Home Demonstration Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ada Simpson. Mrs. Simpson is a very active club member and has not missed a meeting in 16 years.

We certainly could not expect to make such a wonderful record but Mrs. Ada's spirit of attendance should enable us to try to attend more meetings. Her daughter-in-law, Laura, has 15 years perfect attendance plus holding offices and being appointed to committees.

Next month, Dec. 5, the meeting is at Pat Gillikin's house so this is an invitation to all members and prospective members to attend.

Included in this invitation are the Misses Minnie, Mary Ellen, Viola, Kathleen, Faye, Virginia, Josephine, Nannie, Janet, Mattie, Hilda and Lelah.

Attending the last meeting were Mrs. Bettie Midgett, Mrs. Claire Salter, Mrs. Bertie Simpson and Cynthia, Mrs. Ada Simpson, Mrs. Verna Salter, Frankie, Barbara, and Virginia, Laura Simpson and Mary, Emily Gillikin and Debbie, Beulah Salter, Mrs. Spivey and Pat Gillikin and Shannon. They were so good we didn't see or hear them.

Mrs. Floy Garner was not present to Laura Simpson gave a demonstration on working with plastic lacings. It was decided to limit the December meeting's Christmas gifts to fifty cents. Anyone attending bring one gift.

Delicious sweet-potato pie and coffee were served. We all had a good time.

Not a single trace of Amelia Earhart, famed aviatrix, was ever found since she disappeared over the Pacific Ocean after starting her second world flight in 1937.
