Based on last year's perform-ances, Butch Hassell of Beaufort will be the man to stop this year. During the regular season Hassell secred 351 points in 17 games for an average of 20.7 points per game. Other there is a second to cause opposing teams all sorts of trouble. With another year's experience-under their belts, several rising juniors and seniors plan to cause opposing teams all sorts of trouble. Only Llewellyn Phillips of More head City, now graduated, scored more points. He averaged 27.9 points over the season.

Roger Harris of Atlantic will be back for another shot at the scorback for another shot at the scor-ing title this year. He averaged 16.4 points per game in 17 games for the Pirates last year. That was good far third place in the county. Johnny Mason of Newport finish-ed fifth in the county scoring race last year with a 15.9 point average. He scored 266 points in 18 games.
