Winners and runners-up in the three departments were: Primary Department, Mrs. D. H. Johnson and class 1A with Rocco Godette, as king; Mrs. B. W. Harris, 4C and 5A, runner-up with Wynona Cowan selected as queen.

The grammar department winner was Mr. S. H. Barrow and class 7B-8A with Gloria Teel selected as queen of the class. Mrs. M. O. Williams and class 6C-7A were runner-up with Iva Ray Atkins selected as queen.

Winners of the high school department and of the entire drive was Mrs. E. P. Valentine and the 9A class, with Carolyn Godette reigning as queen of the festivities. Runner-up was La Vern Godette representing the senior class. The Homecoming events this year proved to be one of the most successful in the history of the school.

The Home Economics Department needs various supplies in order to carry on our program successfully. Last year the students of the home economics classes sold light bulbs, so that we could have funds to purchase the things needed.

We appreciate most sincerely the cooperation received from parents and friends in the community which helped us to make that project successful.

This year we are undergoing a similar project for the purpose of financing our department. The students will be selling Christmas cards, paper, stationery, book marks, make-up combinations, and bracelets.

Please purchase one or more of these items from some student of the Home Economics class. We appreciate greatly your cooperation and consideration given us throughout this campaign, which began Nov. 3 and ends Dec. 3, 1958. —Mrs. Evelyn Pasture Valentine Home Economist

Cat Spends Second Life

Winning in Major Shows
Albuquerque, N. M. (AP)—The second—at least—life of Babette is truly an amazing one.

Babette is a calico cat belonging to Mrs. Josephine Rippey of Albuquerque. She was rescued from possible execution at the Animal Shelter less than two years ago.

Since that time she's won major show honors for color and breeding at Las Vegas, Nev., Denver, and Albuquerque and just recently was named All-American cat by Cat Magazine.

The December meeting was planned during the business meeting. Pineapple upside down cake and coffee were enjoyed during the social hour.

The Mary C. Millis Circle had nine members present when it met with Mrs. Gertie Howard Tuesday evening. Mrs. Floyd Garner assisted her mother as hostess.

Mrs. R. C. Garner called the meeting to order, and Mrs. Milton Warren gave the program. She used the 100 and 106 Psalms as part of the devotional with material from The Methodist Woman for her program.

After a brief business session the group enjoyed donuts and coffee, and a visit with "Mrs. Gertie".

The study course, Christian Concerns of North American Neighbors, will have had its first study on Nov. 12.

If you missed this one, then try to be present on the 19th and 20th, when the second and third sessions will be held. The time is 7 to 9 p.m. in the educational building of the St. James Church.

A coffee hour will follow the last study on Nov. 25. Come. Bring your family and a friend.

The postal employees at the Newport postoffice enjoyed an oyster roast Tuesday evening at the home of clerk Harvey Garner.

Good News About

By Harry Ventors, 4-H Advisor

As the names of the winners won the tractor driving contest and Allan Kelly, Newport 4-H'er, placed second. All of the boys did real well considering none had ever been in a contest of this kind before.

Keep up the good work! Every 4-H'er should receive a certificate of achievement. These are given for satisfactorily completing a project and turning in a record book. I do hope that all 4-H'ers will work toward this achievement this year.

Mrs. Garner and I also wish to thank Mrs. Bill McDonald, Mrs. Billy Smith and Mrs. Dyon Simpson for helping to organize the 4-H Fair which was held at the same time. We really couldn't have managed without you.

I also want to thank Reginald Adams, Morehead Senior 4-H Club president for the work he and his committee did in cleaning up the gym for the program.

Doris Phillips and Donna Bell of the Morehead Senior 4-H Club and Barbara Hill, Beaufort Senior 4-H Club, did a wonderful job of decorating the gym. I've never seen it look better.

J. T. Oglesby and D. S. Oglesby furnished the tractors we used in the tractor driving contest Saturday afternoon. This is the first contest of this kind sponsored for 4-H'ers. From the amount of interest shown, I know we must have more.

Earl Temple, Beaufort 4-H'er,

4-H'ers are receiving their health improvement record books at 4-H meetings this month. I hope that everyone will make a real effort to complete these records, improving their own personal health, their families health and their communities health.

While Health is listed as an activity and not a project, I believe that it can do more to contribute to each persons happiness than anything else in 4-H work.

4-H projects have been selected. Mrs. Garner and I plan to give the project record books to 4-H'ers at the club meetings in December.

Motorist Compliments Officer after Arrest

Groton, Conn. (AP)—State Police-man George Beckwith is still scratching his head on this one.

Beckwith arrested a speeder on the Connecticut Turnpike. The motorist complimented the officer for his fine handling of the case, saying, "His behavior was beyond reproach in the performance of his duty."

NORTH CAROLINA FACES A CHALLENGING FUTURE

In the first half of this century North Carolina has advanced from a cash crop economy to a respectable balance between agriculture and manufacturing. Our state is virtually "pulling itself up by its bootstraps" ... raising our per capita income so as to bring the better living standards that come with better education and enlightenment.

Evidence of this progress is found in the growing state-wide sentiment favoring "legal control" of the sale of beer and ale as the practical system which works in the best interests of all law-abiding and progressive communities.
