

Churches to Sponsor Concert Dec. 4 By Greensboro College Glee Club

Newport Churches to Join In Thanksgiving Service

The Union Thanksgiving service at Newport will be in St. James Methodist Church at 10 a.m. Thursday. The Rev. Ralph Fleming Jr., pastor, will preside. The sermon will be given by the Rev. M. O. Sears, pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church, Newport.

Mr. Fleming reported that the opening service in the new sanctuary Sunday, Nov. 9, was most successful. The financial record is especially pleasing, the pastor said. The goals set in the building program and the operating budget are being met.

The campaign for raising funds for the higher education program got under way last Sunday. St. James' quota is $7,200 in three years. Mr. Fleming points out that a hundred families pledging for the three-year period can easily meet the quota.

Six churches, including Franklin Memorial Methodist Church, Morehead City, have already reached their quotas, he points out.

Canvassers in the higher education program will meet at the church at 6:30 tonight.

Revival in Progress At Atlantic Church

The Rev. C. C. McMasters of Harkers Island Pilgrim Holiness Church is the guest speaker at the revival now in progress at the Atlantic Pilgrim Holiness Church.

The series of services, which started Wednesday night, will continue through Sunday. A service at 2:30 p.m. Sunday will be the last.

Evening services begin at 7:15. The Rev. Miss Hallie Wagoner, pastor, announces that singers from Harkers Island will be present at some of the services.

Loaded Fruit

Stratmore, Ala. (AP)—Five tons of apricots were collected this year from one acre of trees that bore fruit for the first time. Original stock for the orchard, managed by the Brooks Horticultural station, came from Manchuria in 1838.

Methodists Set Nov. 23 As 'Victory Sunday'

Sunday will be recognized at First Methodist Church, Morehead City and throughout the North Carolina Conference as Victory Sunday. This is in connection with the Christian Higher Education campaign which is now in progress.

Last Sunday the captains and teams of the church were dedicated in a special service, to the task of raising $41,634, which is First Church's portion of the five million to be raised in the conference.

First Methodist Church is fortunate in having the following persons as captains of the Christian Higher Education canvassing group: W. B. Chalk, George W. Dill, S. A. Chalk, James B. Webb, Judge Luther Hamilton, Grover Menden, W. P. Freeman, Bud Dixon, and Mrs. Truman Kemp. The following persons are the team workers: T. L. Noe, G. E. Freeman, Floyd Chadwick, Walton Hamilton, Coolidge Merrell, Dan Swindell, Milton Piner, Dick Spears, Dr. Sam Hatcher, Jack Morgan, John Seltzer, Clifton Lynch, Truman Kemp, Ed Faucette.

Dr. S. O. Thorne, Allen Colenda, A. H. James, Tommy Russell, Billy Corey, Bob Gaskill, Luther Hamilton Jr., Perry Taylor Jr., Kenneth Wagner, Clyde Burr, Cecil Smith, George W. Ball, Roy Denkins Jr.

The Rev. J. F. Herbert, pastor of the church, is greatly missed in this important undertaking, for it was he who laid the groundwork for the campaign. Mr. Herbert is at present a patient in the Morehead City Hospital.

Rufus Butler, chairman of the Christian Higher Education campaign at First Methodist Church, reports that as of Monday night 52 pledges had been made totalling $11,189. The first report from conference states that $2,036,391.79 has been raised throughout the conference up till Monday night. This is 43 per cent of the conference goal.

The workers in this campaign need all the consideration and cooperation the public can afford. The cause is a worthy one and the need great and is not confined to Methodists alone. People of all denominations are invited to help in the building of the two new colleges, for it is to these colleges our young people will go to learn to be the type of educated Christian so necessary today.

Every American interested in solving the over-crowded school and college problems should realize that here is wonderful opportunity to play a part in bettering educational facilities. Contributions may be made by contacting your nearest Methodist Church or one of the aforementioned Christian Higher Education workers.

American Education Week Observed at W. S. King

By JANICE BECTON and ELOUISE BELLE

Last week we observed American Education Week. The theme was Report Card, USA.

Monday, Mr. R. F. Tootle Jr. spoke on character building. He discussed the following topics:

- intellectual character, • working character, • social character, • emotional character, • physical character and • personal character.

Tuesday, Mrs. L. M. Haynie spoke on Education and Survival. She said, "Education is life—real life problems and vital experiences of children and adults. Children are given large opportunities for self-development."

"There is an urgent need for education in the world we are experiencing now. We are living in a world of spiral changes, or shall we say that we are living in a world of changing needs."

spoke on a Space Age Curriculum. He talked on how high school curriculum provides for general education and for certain specialized training.

He also stated that a well-rounded student participates in activities outside the classroom. And, as a reminder, he said that all important learning does not take place in the classroom.

Thursday Mrs. M. J. McLendon spoke on The Teacher and Human Values. She said that in our present world of tensions it must be assumed that the teacher not only has the opportunity to aid in international understanding, but professionally must consider this opportunity as an obligation.

Friday, Mrs. E. D. Hill spoke on Developing Talents. She said developing talents deals with developing outstanding creative abilities of students. The role of the teacher is to encourage all potentialities of students having talents.

The Thanksgiving festivities have started. This year we will raffie off a turkey, chicken, and a ham. Anyone interested in buying a ticket will be able to purchase one from any of the school children.

The student council, under the direction of Miss D. M. Carraway, held its first meeting this month.

Officers are: president, Mott Hester, vice president, James Jones, secretary, Hannah Bryant, assistant secretary, Marian Reese.

Davis FWB Church Will Observe Homecoming

The Davis Free Will Baptist Church will observe Homecoming this Sunday, Nov. 23, 1958. The Rev. L. R. Ennis of Goldsboro will be the special speaker for both the morning and evening services.

At 2 p.m. the church choir will present a song sermon under the direction of the pastor, the Rev. Henry J. Van Kluyve.

Dinner will be served on the grounds at noon.

All of the former pastors, members, and also the friends of the church are invited. Churches in the immediate area are also asked to come and share in the blessings of the day and the fellowship with God's people.

The Homecoming will be the first one to be held in the new sanctuary. "A special welcome awaits you," says the pastor.

Red Cross Thanks County Club Women

County Home Demonstration Club women have been commended for the aid they gave Red Cross workers following Hurricane Helene.

The following letter was received from the Red Cross last week by Mrs. Floy Garner, home agent.

Dear Mrs. Garner: We want to thank you for your splendid help to our staff during the Hurricane Helene operation. Miss Awtry and Mrs. Waddell told us of your successful efforts to furnish the office with volunteers.

The volunteers were of much help to the staff and were available as long as needed. Both our workers remarked several times how nice the ladies were and further said they did anything requested of them.

Our disaster operations are always made easier by the local people like you who pitch in and do so much. Perhaps we shall meet you at some future time. . . . Again, thanks to you and your club women.

Sincerely yours,
Emil F. Lewis, Director
Disaster Service

(Miss) Eleanor M. Ramsey
Chief Casework Supervisor
Home Demonstration women who assisted in the Red Cross operation were Mrs. Bernice Jarman, Mrs. Matie Piner, Mrs. Marion Tarkington, Mrs. Sue Miller.

Mrs. J. L. Seamon, Mrs. Minnie Simpson, Mrs. Pauline Beachem, Mrs. Lee Garner and Mrs. Leona Rogers.

Proper gift on the third wedding anniversary is something designed in candy. Or, sugar, sweets and spices.

Depositor Takes Big Bottle to Bank

Akron, Ohio (AP)—Eyes bulged at the Evans Savings Association here when a depositor notified a guard that he needed help to carry his money inside.

It turned out to be Brian Ulrick, 11. With the help of his father, S. J. Ulrick, and the guard, he hauled in a huge display-type beer bottle stuffed with coins and a few bills. It weighed 175 pounds.

It took two tellers three hours and 14 minutes to count the money — $809.51. Ulrick said he has been saving his pocket change for five years as a down payment on a college education for Brian.

"I'm going to start all over," the father added as they left. "See you in another five years."

Presbyterians Will Meet Thursday Morning

Members of the Wildwood Presbyterian Church will meet with the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Morehead City, at 8 a.m. for a Thanksgiving service.

The service will be followed by a social hour. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

The junior choir of the First Presbyterian Church will rehearse at 7 p.m. Sunday in the fellowship hall. Children 9 to 12 are invited to join.
