Fashion Models Draw Praise, Juniors Enjoy Ice Cream Party

By BUNNY MOORE "New York here they come." When you think of models you usually think of girls but if you were present at the Music and Fashion Show last Friday and Saturday nights you saw something a little different.

It never pays to sneak anything or your might get stuck. (Ask Paula Hill if her mouth is still stuck together from the candy apples.) The Juniors were entertained last Friday with an ice cream party. The party was given to the class that had sold the most subscriptions for the magazine sale.

Basketball practice began last week at BHHS. This year Jimmy Fodrie, who so ably assisted in coaching football, will be the girl's coach. Mr. McQuaid will have his same place coaching the boys.

This week we are featuring Miss Linda Kay Salter as Miss Senior. She was born to Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Salter on April 17, 1941. Linda stands 5' 3 1/2" tall and weighs 113 lbs. Her favorite food is steak. The song that rates highest with her is Autumn Leaves.

While in high school she has been a member of the Beta Club, Latin Club, student council, FTA, Varsity Club, Debating Club, senior superlative, class officer, annual staff, band, and a member of the basketball team.

Mr. Senior is Mr. Frank Hollis
