The Old Woman and Her Pig

An old woman was sweeping her house and she found a little crooked sixpence.

"What," said she, "shall I do with this sixpence? I will go to the market and buy a little pig."

As she was coming home she came to a stile; the piggy would not go over the stile.

She went a little farther, and she met a dog. So she said to the dog: "Dog, dog, bite pig; Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

But the dog would not. She went on a little farther, and she met a stick. So she said: "Stick, stick, beat dog; Dog won't bite pig; Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

But the stick would not. She went a little farther, and she came to a fire. So she said: "Fire, fire, burn stick; Stick won't beat dog; Dog won't bite pig; Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

But the fire would not. She went a little farther, and she came to some water. So she said: "Water, water, quench fire; Fire won't burn stick; Stick won't beat dog; Dog won't bite pig; Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

But the water would not. She went a little farther, and she met an ox. So she said: "Ox, ox, drink water; Water won't quench fire; Fire won't burn stick; Stick won't beat dog; Dog won't bite pig; Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

But the ox would not. She went a little farther, and she met a butcher. So she said: "Butcher, butcher, kill ox; Ox won't drink water; Water won't quench fire; Fire won't burn stick; Stick won't beat dog; Dog won't bite pig; Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

But the butcher would not. She went a little farther, and she met a rat. So she said: "Rat, rat, gnaw rope; Rope won't tie butcher; Butcher won't kill ox; Ox won't drink water; Water won't quench fire; Fire won't burn stick; Stick won't beat dog; Dog won't bite pig; Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

But the rat would not. She went a little farther, and she met a pig. So she said: "Piggy won't get over the stile; And I shall not get home to-night."

Two New Members Join Happy Birthday Club

On this Thanksgiving week we have two new club members to announce. They are Dallas Myrl Foster Jr., Morehead City, and Sharon Pharis, Alexandria, La. Happy to have you!

We're thankful that we have such a fine group of boys and girls as Birthday Club members and readers of The Happy Times.

Those of you who are going to school will have two big holidays this week—Thursday and Friday. We hope you have lots of fun, and get such a good rest that you're all ready to start back to school next Monday, bright and happy.

If you're not a member of the Birthday Club, why not join right now? All you have to do is cut out the blank on this page, fill it in and mail it.

It costs nothing to join the club or to have your picture in The Happy Times. You'll receive a birthday card each year on your birthday and the week of your birthday your name will appear in the Happy Birthday column. We'll be looking for you! Happy Thanksgiving Day to you all.

News from GLOUCESTER

Nov. 21—Miss Josie Pigott and Mrs. Dollie Taylor of Smyrna have returned from New York City where they attended the United Nations fall meeting. Miss Pigott was a delegate from the county.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Murphy left Sunday for Miami, Fla., after spending the summer at their cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Meadows, Jr., Swansboro, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chadwick, Sunday.

Mr. Bill Pigott is a patient at Veterans Administration Hospital in Durham.

Mr. Crawford Pigott, senior at East Carolina College, spent the weekend at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pigott.

Dr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Webb and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph DeWalt of Sea Level were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Al Hubbard Jr.

Only about one-third of the residents of Washington, D. C., were born in the city.

Register of Deeds Records 52 Real Estate Transfers

(Editor's Note: In recording real estate transfers, the law does not require that the amount paid for the property be stated in the deed. A token amount, such as $10 or $100, may be stipulated.

Attached to each deed, however, must be United States documentary stamps, the value of the stamps based on the price paid for the property.

Property which changes hands for less than $101 requires no stamp, according to Odell Merrill, register of deeds. Property which brings a price between $101 and $500 must bear a stamp valued at 55 cents. From $501 to $1,000, the stamps affixed to the deed total $1.10, and thereafter for each additional $500 paid for the property the stamp value goes up 55 cents.

From the value of the stamps placed on a deed an estimation of the price paid for the property can be determined. In the transfers listed below, the seller is listed first, the buyer second, and finally the value of the stamp affixed to the deed.)

Fifty-two real estate transfers were recorded in the register of deeds office Nov. 5-18. They follow:

Morehead City — Sound Chevrolet Co. to Walter Teich and other $2.20; L. & C. Corp. to B. B. Bagus, $11; Paul Cleland and wife
