

Miss Jean Brown Speaks Vows With Roy Kittrell Friday Night

Miss Shelby Jean Brown became the bride of Roy Kittrell in a double ring ceremony Friday evening at eight o'clock in the Faith Free Will Baptist Church.

The Rev. Charles Brown of Elizabeth City, uncle of the bride, officiated. The vows were spoken beneath a white arch entwined with ivy. Floor baskets of white gladioli, pom poms and greenery and seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers were used to decorate the church.

Mrs. R. P. Oglesby, organist, and Mrs. Thomas Woodhall, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Woodhall sang Because, I Love You Truly and Wedding Prayer.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, the Rev. Noah D. Brown Sr. She wore a formal floor length gown of nylon tulle and chantilly lace.

The fitted torso bodice was fashioned with a scalloped portrait neckline and abbreviated sleeves. The voluminous skirt featured multiple tiers of scalloped tulle bordered with lace.

She wore matching gauntlets and a two-tiered fingertip veil of french silk illusion, attached to a coronet of lace and hand-sewn pearls.

The bride carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white french carnations, showered with lilies of the valley and satin ribbons.

Miss Janice Lovick attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of light blue net and lace over taffeta, fashioned with an off-shoulder fitted bodice and ruffled skirt.

She wore a matching blue ruffled headband and carried a ballerina bouquet of pastel carnations tied with satin ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Springle, Miss Shirley Griffin, Miss Sue Bordeaux and Miss Beadie Ballou.

They wore pink and blue ballerina length gowns fashioned similar to that of the honor attendant with matching headbands. They also carried ballerina bouquets of pastel carnations.

Miss Peggy Jean Kittrell, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a pink dress with matching headband and carried a pink basket filled with petals.

Master Barry Roper was ring bearer. He carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Walter Kittrell served his brother as best man. Ushers were Jimmy Morton, Harry Brown, brother of the bride, Charles Springle and Dana Walls.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown wore a black dress trimmed with pink satin with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The mother of the bridegroom wore a blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Upon their return from a wedding trip the couple will make their home at Macon Court, Morehead City.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Noah D. Brown Sr. She is a graduate of Morehead City High School and is employed at Morehead City Garment Co.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kittrell. He is also a graduate of Morehead City High School and is employed at Morehead Motor Parts.

Alford-Stimpson Vows Are Spoken in Charlotte

Mrs. J. Quincy Stimpson of Charlotte, formerly of Morehead City, and Benjamin Randall Alford of this city were married in the chapel of St. John's Baptist Church, Charlotte, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock.

Dr. Claude U. Broach of Charlotte and the Rev. J. W. Alford of Morehead City, father of the bridegroom, officiated.

The bride wore a sheath Dior suit in mink beige with a cloche hat of pheasant feathers and beige accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of fall flowers.

Ushers were Merritt Bridgman of Morehead City and James W. Cox Jr. of Charlotte.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Vinroot, sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Pickett of Charlotte and is employed by John Crosland Co. there. Mr. Alford is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Alford of this city and is president of Herald Printing Company.

After the first of June the couple will make their home in Morehead City.

Miss Brown, Mr. Kittrell Honored at Cake Cutting

Miss Jean Brown and Roy Kittrell, who were married Friday evening at Faith Free Will Baptist Church, were honored at a cake cutting Thursday evening at the church prior to rehearsal.

The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the wedding cake. At one end was placed the punch bowl and at the other end was an arrangement of white carnations. Ivy, wedding bells and streamers were used around the room.

Guests were greeted by Miss Janice Lovick. Mrs. Charles Springle resided at the bride's book. Mrs. Loftis Stocks poured punch and Miss Shirley Griffin and Miss Sue Bordeaux served cake. Good-byes were said to Miss Beadie Ballou.

Married Thanksgiving Day

Mrs. Richard L. Hartness

Miss Barbara Oglesby of this city and Richard L. Hartness of Smyrna, Ga., were united in marriage Thursday evening at seven o'clock at First Baptist Church.

Dr. J. L. Carriek officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Edwin P. Oglesby Sr. She wore a ballerina length wedding gown of chantilly lace over ruffled net and taffeta.

The gown was styled with a fitted bodice, circle neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The bouffant skirt featured a butterfly bow in center back.

She wore a matching half-hat with shoulder length circular veil attached and carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white french carnations.

Miss Daisy Brock was maid of honor and the bride's only attendant. She wore a ballerina length princess style gown of powder blue crystallette fashioned with a strapless bodice.

She wore a matching cape stole and velvet headband with circular rhinestone-trimmed veil and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Joe Glaimo served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Edwin P. Oglesby Jr., brother of the bride, and William Gent of New Bern.

The bride is a graduate of Morehead City High School and a one year commercial course at Woman's College, Greensboro. She was formerly employed as a secretary by the North Carolina State Nurses' Association, Raleigh.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver L. Hartness of Smyrna, Ga. He is a graduate of Campbell High School, Smyrna, and is stationed aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Chilula, based at the state port.

The couple will make their home in Morehead City for the present.

GALAXIE

A New Series in the FORD Line for 1959

Showing Thursday December 4th

A NEW SERIES in the 1959 Ford line — the Galaxie — captures more of the taste and styling flavor of the Thunderbird than any other Ford model. Compared here, the Galaxie Town Victoria in the foreground bears a strong resemblance to the 1959 four-passenger Thunderbird — especially in the roof area, yet it is priced to sell only $48 above comparable models in the Ford Fairlane 500 series. The new luxury series includes six different body styles and will be available at Parker Motors Thurs., Dec. 4.
