Hoopsters Win First Two; Today is College Day

By BUNNY MOORE

"Shoot them in the basket, score, score." Basketball season opened last Thursday and Friday night with a bang.

Never before have our teams been in such good condition. The large crowd that was present at the game Friday night was evidence that the Beaufort fans are really going to support their team and I'm sure it gave the team a good feeling.

We, the students at BHS, are especially proud of Gordon Becton for making the class A All-Eastern football team and John Smith and Eddie Taylor for being honorably mentioned.

The Glee Club performed for the teachers' meeting Tuesday afternoon. The program consisted of the northern states and they gradually move south with the sun. The geodetic work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, a Bureau of the Department of Commerce, consists of several types of surveying operations, which require the highest degree of accuracy. The resulting information is used as the basis or framework for maps, charts, local surveys, and for various engineering projects, both public and private.

Geodetic Team Will Survey Coast South of Morehead

A triangulation survey, which will cover an area of slightly more than 3,600 square miles in eastern North Carolina, is now being made by a 30-man field party of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

The survey, which consists of determining and marking the geographic positions of selected points, will be used primarily by the Geological Survey for future mapping. These points, marked with small bronze discs, will be scattered throughout the area and spaced at 4 to 5-mile intervals along the main roads.

The party of 90 (including wives and children) arrived at their trailer park, southeast of Ahoskie, N. C., on Nov. 21. Its equipment includes 27 trucks, two office trailers, one supply trailer, and 21 privately-owned mobile homes.

Someday you may notice a slender steel tower silhouetted against the skyline, or at night the blinking of lights in Morse code may catch your eye. These strange sights coupled with the busy movement of men and trucks may cause some of the local residents to stop and think.

But don't worry, these sights, though unfamiliar to the area, are actually part of one of the oldest

Dec. 10 — Mrs. Maltby Taylor is spending a few weeks with her sons, Dan and Leslie, in West Palm Beach.

Miss Loretta Belle Taylor, Lumberton, spent the holiday weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Taylor Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fulcher, of Virginia, spent Saturday here with friends. Andrew lived here when a kid. He was delighted with the many improvements and we were glad to see him.

Mrs. Ulmont Rose, who has been a patient in the hospital here, is now spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Owens and family in Beaufort.

Mrs. Careda Salter spent the weekend in Swansboro with her son, state patrolman Rodger Garland, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Howerin, Beaufort, were visitors in our community Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Hardy attended services at the Free Will Baptist Church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Hicks returned to their home in Bristol, Tenn., after spending two weeks with Mrs. Ward's sister, Mrs. Weldon Salter and family.

Miss Sally Tosto, Louisburg, and her brother, Paul, and family of Raleigh, spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Tosto.

Mrs. Mollie Willis spent Thanksgiving at the old homestead of her parents in Smyrna. Her brothers and sisters were present for this occasion.

Anadarko, Okla. (AP) — The School Board says it did a "beer case worth of business last year." The board's secretary was hunting a place to put old records and found they fit just right in an empty beer case.
