

Former Resident Speaks Vows in Home Ceremony

In a home ceremony Sunday afternoon at Greenville Miss Patricia Ann Herring and Roger Inman Sturtevant were married.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Herring, former residents of Beaufort, and the bridegroom is the son of Ralph Irving Sturtevant of Rocky Mount and the late Mrs. Sturtevant.

The Rev. Percy B. Upchurch officiated at the ceremony. Recorded music was used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown which her mother designed and made. It was of white lace over satin featuring a fitted bodice with scoop neckline and long fitted sleeves, and a full skirt.

She wore a fingertip veil attached to a tiara of pearls and sequins and carried a lace and satin-covered Bible topped with an orchid.

Mrs. George G. Clark, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of red taffeta with a red feather bandeau and carried a cascade bouquet of peppermint carnations.

The bridegroom's father served as best man and Jimmy Wheatley of Beaufort was usher.

Following a wedding reception, the couple left for a wedding trip. They will live in Atlanta, Ga., after the bride is graduated from East Carolina College in March. Mr. Sturtevant is employed by American Bakeries Co. in Atlanta.

Miss Judy Kay Piner Becomes Bride of Hugh Fulcher Monday

Miss Judy Kay Piner of Williston became the bride of Hugh Lee Fulcher of Beaufort in a double ring ceremony Monday evening at seven-thirty at the Williston Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Leon Piner of Williston and the bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Luther Fulcher of Beaufort.

The Rev. D. M. Tyson, pastor, officiated at the ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Ray West of Straits, organist, who played O Promise Me, Whither Thou Goest, O Perfect Love, and The Sweetest Story Ever Told. Mr. Bobby Bell of Morehead City sang Always and Miss Bobbie West of Straits sang Prayer Perfect.

The church was decorated with pine sprays, baskets of white gladiolas and candelabra holding lighted tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballarina length gown of lace fashioned with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt.

The bodice was designed with a scalloped neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The front of the skirt featured a panel of pleated net.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown encrusted with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Beverly Kay Piner of Williston was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of blue velvet fashioned with fitted bodice with scoop neckline dipping low in the back, and bouffant skirt.

She wore a matching blue velvet headband and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Barbara Jean Fulcher of Beaufort, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Phyllis Jo Piner of Williston, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

The bridesmaids wore street length dresses of red velvet identical to that of the maid of honor with matching red velvet headbands and they carried bouquets of white carnations.

Donald Gray Fulcher of Beaufort was best man for his brother. Ushers were Eric Wade of Williston and Curtis Lewis of Stacy.

Mrs. Piner, mother of the bride, wore a blue brocade dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's dress, Mrs. Fulcher, wore a street of blue faille with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church social room. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Willis.

Mrs. Marvin Robinson presided at the bride's book, Miss Patricia Tyson poured punch and Mrs. Troy Willis served cake.

The bride is a junior at Smyrna High School. The bridegroom is a graduate of Beaufort High School and is a sophomore at the University of North Carolina School of Pharmacy, Chapel Hill.

Upon their return from a wedding trip south, the couple will be at home in Williston.

Peggy Williams, Bill Ginn Honored at Breakfast

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Williams entertained at a wedding breakfast Sunday at twelve-thirty at the Morehead Biltmore Hotel for the Ginn-Williams wedding party and out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams greeted the guests and invited them into the dining room, where the tables were arranged in a U shape. A red, green and white color scheme was used.

The head table was centered with an arrangement of red carnations, white gladiolas and fern. Poinsettias, red ribbon and greenery were used on the other tables. Wedding bells were used as favors.

The meal consisted of fruit cocktail, turkey, dressing, peas, cranberry sauce, stuffed celery and hot rolls. A beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was placed before the bridal couple.

After they had cut the first slice, the cake was served with block ice cream to the thirty-five guests.

Wedding Party Honored At Two Parties Saturday

Prior to the rehearsal of the Ginn-Williams wedding Saturday evening Mr. Fred Ginn of Goldsboro entertained the wedding party and families of the bride and groom at a dinner party at Rex Restaurant.

Following the rehearsal Mr. Ginn, who is the brother of the bridegroom and was best man at the wedding, also was host at a dance at the Blue Ribbon Restaurant.

People Leave Spigots Running, Drain Mains

Calera, Okla. (AP) — After a breakdown of several days, Calera's water pumping machinery was repaired and Water Superintendent Andrew Hamilton threw the switch.

The flow of new water didn't fill the mains and Hamilton investigated. He discovered many residents had left their faucets open and the water was pouring down the drain.

The Misses Leola and Etie Phelps of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Zell Knight of Newport News, Va., are holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Phelps.

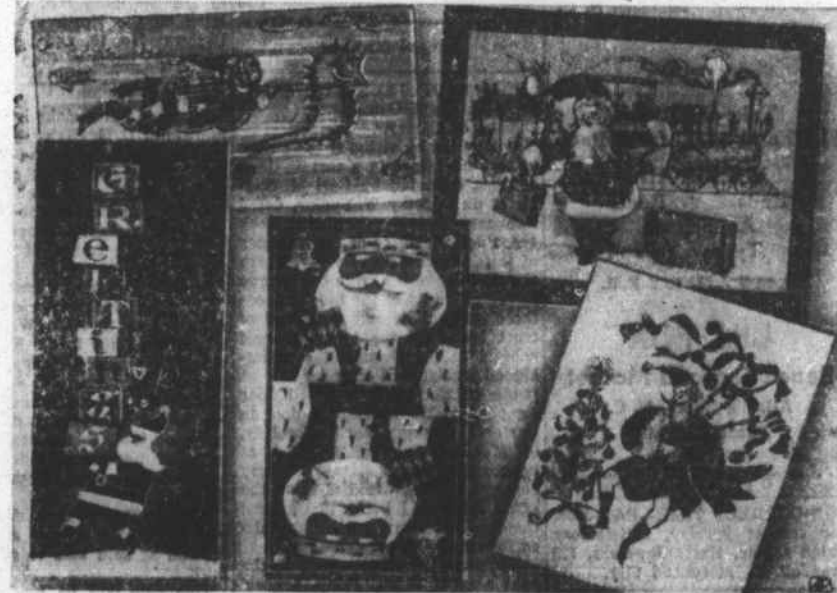

For the Yuletide and the coming year we wish all of our many friends a full measure of happiness and health.

Santa in Many Moods

As artists see Santa . . . St. Nicholas appears in every imaginable mood in the current crop of Christmas cards. Pictured are typical cards done by the American Artists Group and the designers and illustrators. Some see Santa as the traditional, benign saint of childhood memory. Others give Santa new talents, such as skin diving. A modernist puts him on a playing card. But whatever his mood, he's still the spirit of Christmas.

Colonel Kisses New Lieutenant

Edgewood, Md. (AP) — It was just a simple swearing-in ceremony in the colonel's office.

But, when it was over, the colonel gave WAC Lt. Dorothy Fellenz a fatherly kiss on the cheek.

And why not, since Col. Lloyd E. Fellenz, commander of the chemical warfare laboratories at the Army Chemical Center, is her father.

The Fellenzes are only two of many members of their family in government service.

An uncle, Brig. Gen. J. L. Throckmorton, is commandant of cadets at West Point.

Another uncle, Lt. Col. E. F. Higgins, is an advisor to the National Guard at Hartford, Conn.

Lt. Alex Burke, a cousin, is with the Air Force's Strategic Air Command in Nebraska.

Thomas B. Throckmorton, another cousin, is a cadet at West Point.

A third cousin, PFC. Joseph Gatti, is stationed at Fort Totten, N. Y.

The lieutenant's grandfather, Robert A. Fellenz, retired from the Army with 38 years service.

Uncle H. R. Fellenz is a retired Army captain living at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

And the end is not in sight. Dorothy's 19-year-old sister, Genie, is a student at the College of New Rochelle, N. Y., and works at the chemical center during the summer.

A younger sister, Andrea, is a teen-ager. And there are three younger brothers, ranging in age down to Johnny, a first-grader.

Two Score Years

Norfolk, Va. (AP)—The Naval Air Station here was so busy it didn't take time to celebrate its 40th anniversary. It was commissioned in 1918 with equipment of six tents and six seaplanes. Now it is one of the largest and most powerful facilities of its type in the world.
