Miss Edna Frances Young Weds Ray Dudley in Oxford Ceremony

Miss Edna Frances Young of Oxford became the bride of Ray Coleman Dudley of Bloomington, Ind., in a ceremony Saturday evening at Oxford Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. James Doane Young of Oxford, formerly of Beaufort. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Harry Dudley of Courtice, Ontario, Canada.

The bride's father officiated at the ceremony. Music was furnished by the church choir, directed by Mrs. James Dunn, with Mrs. George Coghill of Winston-Salem soloist and Miss Myrtle Jane Pruitt organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Doane Jackson Young of Dallas, Tex. She wore a gown of chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned with a scalloped sabbina neckline with long sleeves. The lace-trimmed skirt extended into a chapel train.

She wore a waist length veil of french illusion attached to a tiara of seed pearls and sequins and carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley with two white orchids.

Miss Betty Bynum of Stantonburg was maid of honor. Miss Dolores Murray of Smithfield, Miss Linda Lee Tise of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Doane Jackson Young of Dallas, Tex., were bridesmaids.

They all wore dresses of emerald green taffeta and carried bouquets of American beauty roses and gladioli.

Noel Dudley of Courtice was best man for his brother. Ushers were Stuart Nall of New York City, Eddie Gilliam of Graham, Robert D. Eason of Scotland Neck and James W. Crawford Jr. of Oxford.

Following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the church social room.

The bride is a graduate of Greensboro College and has been a member of the Danville, Va., school faculty. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto, Canada. He is a concert pianist and is a visiting professor of music at Indiana University.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to New York City, the couple will live in Bloomington, Ind.

Cars Collide as Driver Misjudges Right Turn

Joan Faye Guthrie, Morehead City high school student, driving a 1951 Buick, ran into a 1950 Ford driven by John Tunnell, Morehead City, at 2:25 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 21.

Miss Guthrie, driving east on Bridges Street, made a right turn at 7th Street and hit Mr. Tunnell's car. He had stopped at the stop sign. Sgt. William J. Condie investigated. There were no charges.

Damage was estimated at $30 to the Buick and $150 to the Ford.

Well-Tended Grounds

San Diego, Calif. (AP) — Lisle Shoemaker and Bill Teawell, advertising partners, were delighted at the way the landscaping around their new office thrived. After a month, a bookkeeper discovered why: Shoemaker had hired a gardener to work Wednesdays and Fridays, and Teawell had hired one for Mondays and Thursdays.
