B&PW Club Hears Talk By Artist Tuesday Night

Lt. Cdr. John MacCormack, USN (ret.), showed some of his oil paintings and wood carvings to members of the Carteret Business and Professional Women's Club at their meeting Tuesday night at the Bridgeview Jan. His artwork was displayed in conjunction with remarks on re-tirement and the necessity for preparing for retirement. Since leav-ing the service, Mr. MacCormack ing the service, Mr. MacCormack has built his own home at Atlantic, as well as painted, carved and

"T've been working ever since the government paid me off," he reports. He spent 30 years in the Coast Guard and Navy. During the war, while serving as chief engineer, he asked one of his men, who was narrist to teach him to corder's court, a member of the who was an artist, to teach him to

The man told him what supplies to buy, then told him to draw a picture and paint it. Mr. MacCor-mack did. Then he suggested that Cormack has.

His seascapes are well known in this area. He also does portraits. His carvings include ivory. An acquaintance who operates a sperm whaling factory in Peru once sent him 16 pounds of whale's

He showed an etching done on one tooth. In wood, Mr. Mac-Cormack has carved an owl and a pussycat, which were originally piano legs: bellows, scenes in relief, and figurines

"If you don't prepare for retire-ment, you'll be sitting on the porch waiting for the paper when it comes twice a week," the speaker He announced that his wife, who was with him, has recently written a book for children, Doodle of Dee, which is available through local women's organizations. Mrs. Frank Sample was in charge of the program. Mr. Mac-Cormack was introduced by Mrs.

Ed Oglesby Jr.
Mrs. W. I. Loftin presided during the business session. Mrs. Marshall Ayscue gave the secretary's report and Mrs. Eva Johnson the treasurer's report. Mrs. Loftin requested members to attend Mid-Year Coun-Nov. 6-8 at Wilson.

At the request of Miss Ruth Peeling, nine members volunteered to serve as guides for school chil-dren's groups who may visit the state fisheries museum at Camp Glenn when it opens. Miss Peeling requested the volunteers at the requested the volunteers at the for handling a fund campaign and suggestion of Harry Davis, mu- gave advice for the success of such

Mrs. Holt, hostess for the meeting, served a fish dinner prior to the drive were worked out. the program and business session.

son for public drunkenness Tues-

To Conduct Red Cross Campaign

Herbert O. Phillips III, Morehead City, was named chairman of the Red Cross campaign at a meeting corder's court, a member of the Carteret County Bar Association, and a member of the Morehead City Jaycees.

In accepting the chairmanship, Mr. Phillips spoke briefly of the his teacher give him some additional lessons. All he got was the advice, "Just paint." So Mr. Mac-amounted to $11,000 during the past five years, less than a fifth of what the Red Cross has paid out here. Guests at the dinner meeting, which was held at Rex Restaurant

. . . to raise funds

Leon Davis, Eastern Carolina Red Cross representative of Greenville, Leslie Ray, field representative of Cherry Point and Col. and Mrs. R. C. Berkley of Cherry Point.

Colonel Berkley outlined methods Julia Holt, club member, would appear on the B&PW hospitality hour over WITN Nov. 10.

Mrs. Loftin announced that Mrs. duced the colonel, who is president of the Havelock PTA. James R. Sanders, chapter chairman, presided man, presided. Supplies were giv-en the area chairmen, questions were answered and final details of

Joe DuBols was appointed to handle publicity. It was announce-Citation Issued ed that the area chairmen will Carlton Garner, assistant chief of police. Beaufort, cited James Simp-courthouse for last-minute instruc-

Mrs. Chiddix explained the $5,000 budget set up for the campaign.

Girl Scouts, Brownies Report Recent Activities

Girl Scout troop 123 met at Mrs. training course at the Scout cabin King's house Monday afternoon. We practiced songs, folk dances So on Saturday Mrs. Sam Kali and games so that we can assist the leaders of the Brownics. We closed the meeting with day-

-Clara Safrit, Virginia Day,

Mrs. John Mease, Girl Scout neighborhood chairman for Beaufort, has announced the following scout information for Beaufort:

Second grade Brownies, new troop, led by Mrs. Bob Slater; sec- the car and went to our campsites

Third grade Brownies, troop 17, led by Mrs. Mease; fourth grade Brownies, troop 93, led by Mrs. Albert Chappell; fourth grade Brownies, troop 100, led by Mrs. Martha Loftin; fifth grade Intermediates, troop 111, led by Mrs. Monroe Simpson

Sixth grade Intermediates, troop 160, led by Mrs. Phil Thomas; sixth grade Intermediates, troop 121, led by Mrs. Vance Fulford Jr.: seventh grade Intermediates, troop 123, led by Mrs. Hubert King; seventh grade Intermediates, troop 154, led by Mrs. Gilbert Potter. One hundred and ten girls are registered in Scouting in Beaufort.

A song and game workshop was A song and game workshop was held Oct. 22 at the Beaufort Scout house for Brownie and Intermedi-ate Girl Scout leaders. The work-shop was given by Mrs. Hugh Por-ter, representing the Coastal Carolina Council.

Attending were Mrs. Albert
Chappell, Mrs. Martha Loftin, Mrs.
Bob Slater, Mrs. John Mease, Mrs.
Hubert King, Mrs. Gerry Talbot,
and Mrs. Phil Thomas.

A similar course will be given
Thursday, Nov. S, at the civit center, Morehead City, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Scout Troop 226, Morehead City, decided to go to the patrol leader's training course at the Scout cabin at Cherry Point Oct. 24 and 25. So on Saturday Mrs. Sam Kale picked us up at 9 a.m. We arrived at the Scout camp at 9:45 a.m. We were registered and then assigned to our troop and patrol. We were all put in different patrols. Then we were told to go inside the cabin and have our tempera-tures taken. We are sorry to say that Diana Tippett had a tempera-ture so her parents came up and troop, led by Mrs. Bob Stater; second grade Brownies, new troop, led by Mrs. Louise Bridgers; third grade Brownies, troop 153, led by Mrs. Gerry Talbot and Mrs. F. J. Vernberg.

Third grade Brownies, troop 77, lunch, with milk being furnished.

We held a meeting to elect of-ficers. After this, the whole camp, of 128 girls took part in a flag cer-emony. We were dismissed to go-back to our troop, but our elected cooks went to get the food for our supper. Before we had finished o cooking our supper, the rain was pouring down. Everyone grabbed up their food and ran to their tent. We soon discovered the hamburg-

We soon discovered the hamburg-ers were raw and so were the po-tatoes. The biscuits were either burnt to a crisp or not cooked enough to out. Soon afterwards we went into the Boy Scout cabin to pop corn. We also sang songs and played games. Then we went back to our tent for taps at 9 p. m. With overyone in their sleeping bags, songs began to sound forth from every tent so it was really around 10 p.m., be-fore all was quiet.

fore all was quiet.

The next morning Karen Kale woke up to discover a worm had spent the night with her in her alceping bag.

The cooks began to get breakfast—eggs, bacon and toast. After breakfast we had a flag cereanous. Then we went down to the shore and had a Scout's Own. When we arrived back at camp, we took down our tetts.

See GIRL SCOUTS, Page 5

Negro News

Morehead City Respiral Admitted: Sunday, Mrs. Rester, Morehead City.

Monday, Mr. Joseph Carter, Miss Bertude Carter, Master Booker T. James Jr., Beaufort.
Tuesday, Mr. Fred Jackson, Havelack.
Discharged: Sunday, Mr. Romulous Dunn, Newport; Mrs. Zilphia
Sawyer, Morehead City; Mr. Arthur Teel, Havelock.

thur Teel, Havelock.
Monday, Mr. Coutte Bell, More-head City; Mrs. Rosella Godette, Mr. Barbara Johnson Mrs. Lula Pritchett

Newport. Tuesday, Mrs. Mary Truman,

Morehead City.

The junior choir of Jacksonville will give a program Sunday after-noon at 3 at St. Luke Baptist Church, Morehead City. It is beonsored by the Faithful Few The public is invited.

party planned for Saturday night. Another party will be held later.

Sunday night at 7:30 the choir union will give a program at St. Stephens AME Zion Church. The Rev. O. R. Ellis, pastor, announces that the initial report on the church rally will be given and he hopes that every member will contribute. The pastor invites the public.

A youth program will be any ed by Mrs. Nannie Ward, Beaufort, at 7:30 Saturday night in St. Mary's Heliness Church, Morehead City. All young people are invited.

Everyone is invited to the quar terly board meeting Sunday at St.
Mary's Holiness Church, Morehead feited City, announces the minister.

Springfield, Hl. (AP) - Illinois produces about 54 per cent of the fluorspar mined in the United States. The mineral is a raw mat-

(Continued from Page 1)

Tony Wade—Larceny. Six months in jail, suspended on payment of $10 and court costs and five years good behavior. Pierson Willis — Assault. Not prosecuted Charles Herbert Davis-No oper ator's license. Not prosecuted.

Yancey B a r b o a r — Improper lights. Bond forfeited.
Dallas Salter — Driving on the rong side of the road. Bond for-

Bryant Gillikin-Falling to yield the right of way. Not prosecuted. Found guilty of discharging fire-Freddie Fulford — Public drunk-enness. Three months in jail. Charles Arthur—Violation of fish-

The Order of Eastern Star, Chaperial for hydrofluoric acid, used of the prosecuting witness, togetheter 209, has cancelled its Halloween to make frosted glass.

Thomas Noe of Beaufort—Public Farrior, Bert Brooks and Billie er with court costs and that he remain on probation as prescribed in former judgment.

W. Boyd — Issuing worthless check. Paid court costs and check.

Beaufort firemen answer

ness. Not prosecuted. Johnie Pollard-Speeding. Costs

Frances Maria Forest - Public runkenness. Costs paid. Emil Paul Tkachuk—Failing to was restricted to the furnace.

ield the right of way. Costs paid. Mack Styron — Speeding. Costs less check. Paid court costs and the check.

Elvin Reels—Cheat and defraud. Pay $40 and costs, the $40 to go to Nat Ebron-Violation of fishing laws. Costs paid. prosecuting witness.
Norman Whitehurst—Assault and Jimmy Fox-Failing to yield the right of way. Costs paid. discharging firearms in town.

Louis J. Schwertzler - Issuing bad check. Paid court costs and made the check good. ing laws. Costs paid.

Redden Kelly—Issuing worthless

Beaufort firemen answered an accident. Sixty days in jail to comply with restriction of driv-suspended on payment of $50 and court costs and eneck.

Sixty days in jail to comply with restriction of driv-suspended on payment of $50 and court costs and eneck.

Beaufort firemen answered an all the residence of the state of the court costs.

Beaufort firemen answered an all the residence of the state of the court costs and eneck.

Beaufort firemen answered an all the residence of the state of the court costs and eneck.

Beaufort firemen answered an all the residence of the court costs and eneck.

Beaufort firemen answered an all the residence of the complex to the complex to the complex to the court costs and eneck.

Beaufort firemen answered an all the residence of the complex to the court costs and eneck. Bradburry, 216 Ann St.

A fire department spokesman said the blaze was apparently caused by the furnace becoming overheated. Damage from the fire

Barbara Willis Thomas-Follow-

board

(Continued from Page 1)

given opportunity to speak regard ing the proposed annexation. Gray Hanell, sown engineer, reseted on prospers in massing the areas outside the town limits. Carlton Rose, member of the board of adjustment, was sworn in. Pour members have been sworn in to date. A fifth is still being

The board invited members of the merchants association to with them Monday, Nov. 9.

Attending Monday's special ses sion, in addition to the se mention ed, were members of the zoning commission, Gilbert Potter, chair man, Earl Mades, Ralph Thomas and J. P. Harris; clerk Ronald

GDAYS-FRIDAY & SATURDAY, OCT. 30 & 31

BELIEVE US WHEN WE SAY YOU HAD BETTER BE HERE EARLY! We reserve the right to limit quantities . . . We want everyone to get an equal chance at these "CRAZY" Savings! Come a-running to BELK'S DEPT. STORE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, OCT. 30 AND 31.

Children's

Shoes & Sandals

The summer has come and gone we wish these were gone too. Values to $2.99. Take them

50c pair

Skirt Markers

Don't children wear rain boots

Children's

Rain Boots

$2.00 pair

Canvas Shoes

99c pair

Hurricane Lamps

$1.00 pair

Ideal for Christmas Gifts

Bed Spreads

$1.00 off

the regular price

Plastic

Bathroom

Curtains

Any one with a buthreen should have one of these. Value $1.39

Now 39c

We have no reason f this but you can save shoes just didn't fit too Bon't know what to do hem. Won't you please any more? We are stuck with these. Values $3.99, yours for Boy, oh boy, this is a dilly.

Value $1.69

School Supplies

We're getting out of the school supply business — if you'll help us. Zipper Note Book Binder, value $1.27

Now 88c

Now 49c

Men's Jewelry

Values to $5.00. Can't find any one with $5.00. Anyone have

99c

White Dress Shirts

Everyone's gone mad about wash and wear white shirts. These are not that kind; they are the old fashioned broadcloth and you can afford to be old fashioned

$1.99

Men's Suits

We have a lot of suits we would like to sell — If you'll buy one we will give you a beautiful dress shirt FREE.

Ladies' Belts

These belts have been hanging around too long. Value $1.00

Now 33c

Suede Jackets

We thought we were getting a good buy — but the public didn't think so. How about this price. Value $16:99

Now $7.77

Men's Belts

These belts are nationally ading at them too long.

SHOP BELK'S FIRST

FREE CARTON OF COCA-COLA

WITH EACH $5.00 PURCHASE TO THE

FIRST 100 CUSTOMERS

Value $1.50 Now $1.00 Value $2.00

Now $1.50

Casual Shoes

Shoes, shoes, shoes, we have too many! Please help us. Values to $7.90

Now $3.99

Dress Shoes

Values to $9.39. If you have a narrow foot you can have these for

1/2 price

Boys' Top Coats

Children's Shoes

We're tired of looking at these

$1.99 pair

Boys don't wear top coats any more — so they tell me. We have two left. Values $9.95 and $16.95. Come and get them for

$5.00 each

3-Pc. Luggage Set

Value $25.97. Yours Friday and Saturday only for $19.99

Ladies' Dresses

My friends tell me I'm 'CRAZY but I'm going to do it any way. 'On any ladles' dress value from $4.99 up

Save $1.00

Off the Regular Price

House Dresses

Come and get an arm full. You

$1.88

Ladies'

Summer Hats Summer is just around the cor-

25c each

Work Socks

Flannel

Value 49c Vard

If you want to do your sewing

now . . . hurry down and take this home at lc per inch

Don't be so lazy, buy son socks and go to work!

3 pairs 88c

Men's Cotton

Work Gloves

Dress Panties

You can't afford to miss this bargain price. Value $1.98

Now 44c pair

Girls' Dress Coats

All new fall and winter mer-chandise. Values to $16.99, any

$1.00 off

the regular price

Bengaline Faille

Do people use faille any more? Value $1.49 yard. Take it home

88c yard

300 Yards Summer Fabrics

Only a few months 'fil summer Start your sewing now. Values to use yard

Now it per inch

The salesman told me that con-tinental jeans were real bot. We still have them — you want them at

22c pair

3 pairs 79c Boys' Overalls

If you're planning there's a good buy.

They tell me that boys don't wear overalls any more. Will your boy wear them at this price? Value $1.98

New 17c pair

Boys' Jeans

$2.19 pair

Bermuda Socks