Air Rifle Bullet Injures Boy's Eye

A Christmas gift, an air rifle, caused an eye injury at about 9 p.m. Sunday to Ronnie Pinkham, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pinkham, Fulford Street, Beaufort.

According to witnesses to the accident, children were playing when Karen Willis, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Willis, Ann Street, accidentally fired the rifle in the direction of the Pinkham boy. The bullet hit him in the right eye.

The rifle was reportedly owned by Ray Raffaldi, who had received it for Christmas.

Ronnie Pinkham was taken to Morehead City hospital and then to St. Luke's, New Bern. An eye specialist was not available there Sunday, but one was expected to see the youngster yesterday morning.

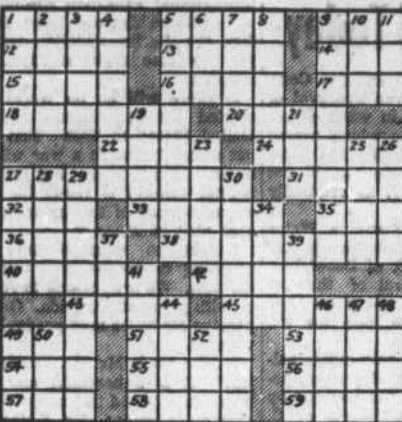

Mrs. Pinkham went to New Bern yesterday morning. It was not known whether the sight in the eye could be saved.

The accident was investigated by Carlton Garner, assistant chief of police.

False Alarm
The Morehead City fire department answered a false alarm turned in from box 48 Sunday night at 9:20 p.m. Box 48 is located at 24th and Fisher St.

World Federation Report Postponed

Due to the death of Charles W. Davis, the annual report on the World Federation movement was not given in Beaufort Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Davis was the uncle of Robert Lee Humber, who annually reports on World Federation during the Christmas season in Beaufort.

The report has been postponed until this coming Sunday, Jan. 3, at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church, Beaufort. The move to promote World Federation has been under way since Dec. 27, 1940 when the project was initiated by Mr. Humber on Davis Island, Carteret County.

Two Cars Scrape At Intersection

Minor damage was done to two cars Saturday at 3:05 p.m. in a collision at 4th and Arendell St., according to the Morehead City police department.

Police reported that Paul Clinton Stewart, New Bern, had stopped on 4th street at the Arendell intersection, when his car was struck by a 1955 Chrysler being driven by John Ishmel Bell Jr., 508 Pine St., Beaufort. Bell, going west on Arendell, made a right turn at 4th and scraped Stewart's car.

The investigating officer, Sgt. Bill Condie, estimated the damage to Stewart's 1959 Chevrolet at $65 and that to Bell's auto at $5. No charges were filed.

Two Accidents Occur in Town

Morehead City police investigated two accidents recently.

Charges of speeding were filed Christmas day against Roger Williams of New Bern after the car he was driving struck a parked car at 1007 Arendell St., Morehead City.

According to police reports, Williams was going west on Arendell and struck a parked 1950 Ford belonging to John William Davis of Raleigh.

Police estimated damage to the parked car at $100 and that to Williams' vehicle at $300. Patrolman J. C. Steele investigated.

Mainly Mason of the Beaufort-Morehead City causeway and Donald Wayne Maye, 1808 Bridges St., Morehead City, were the drivers involved in a Wednesday afternoon accident.

Police say that Maye, going south on 15th Street, came to a stop at Arendell. He then pulled out into the intersection and collided with the Mason auto which was coming east on Arendell. Police said that Maye stated he didn't see Mason's car until he hit it.

No charges were filed against either driver by Sgt. Bill Condie of the Morehead City police department, who investigated.

Damage to Maye's car, which is owned by Otis Purifoy, Morehead City, was estimated at $85 and that to Mason's 1953 Ford was set at $100.
