Coast Guard Increases Quotas Recruiter Says

Coast Guard recruiting is on the upswing, announces Fred Alcock, recruiting officer in Morehead City. He says that quotas have been increased and that both veterans and men with no prior service are eligible to enlist, provided they meet the high physical and mental standards of the Coast Guard.

There is an unlimited quota for veterans in the Coast Guard Reserve, boatswain Alcock adds. Veterans from the Navy and Coast Guard are guaranteed their rating and veterans from other services should check with the recruiter to find out what rating they may get.

Ratings higher than previously held may even be obtained in numerous cases by all veterans. "Also, think of the extra pay for being a member of an organized reserve unit," the recruiter says. A petty officer second class with over six years service receives $6 each drill attended. Multiply this by 48 drills each year and you have earned $288 extra for the year.

All young men between the ages of 17 and 21 with no prior military service should check into the 6 x 8 program. A few of this program's many advantages are extra pay, education and adventure. "But bear in mind these three points barely break the surface on the many ways you may benefit," the recruiter says.

Interested men may apply at the Coast Guard recruiting station, Morehead City, room 120, postoffice building, or in Wilmington at the postoffice building. The Coast Guard recruiter will explain advantages of the many programs offered.

Atlantic Library Nears Completion; Council Meets

By EVELYN HARRIS

Hi! After two weeks of wonderful vacationing, we return once more to AHS to broaden our education and start the new year. I hope Santa was good to everyone and that the new year will bring happiness and success.

"Roll call" and everyone is accounted for at AHS. We all seemed to be in high spirits Monday morning, although most of us looked half asleep and acted a wee bit drowsy.

The school library is near completion—thanks to the librarians. Every book has been catalogued, marked, put in its right place and dusted. Most of the books have had face-liftings and soon the library will sparkle. Thanks to Charles Allen, the floor looks very nice.

The librarians this year are Brenda Salter, Susan Lewis, Eva Gant, Annette Gaskill and yours truly. We would like to say thanks to Judy Guthrie who has helped us in the library although she is not a librarian. Judy has assisted Brenda and me very much and we want her to know it's appreciated.

Reading Program Will Start Monday, Jan. 18

Mrs. Floy Garner, home agent, announces that the tv reading program scheduled to start Thursday, Jan. 14, has been postponed until Monday, Jan. 18.

The program, designed to teach non-readers to read and write, consists of a half-hour tv lesson.

Church Members Attend Three Holiday Meetings

During the Christmas holidays the Cedar Island Methodist Church held three holiday meetings.

On Sunday night, Dec. 20, members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Sunday school gave a Christmas program.

Mrs. Bill Brittingham, Mrs. Rupert Styron and Mrs. Arlie Daniels took part in the devotions and Mrs. Hugh Lupton gave a talk on The Meaning of Christmas.

Each Sunday school class took part. There were recitations and dialogues and Christmas carols were sung. Teachers are Mrs. Harliis Styron, Mrs. Henry Styron, Mrs. Dallas Goodwin, Mrs. Brittingham, Mrs. Hugh Lupton and Mrs. Julian Lupton.

Monday night, Dec. 21, the WSCS held its annual party at the recreation building. The room was decorated with electric candles, poinsettias and holly. Games were enjoyed, carols were sung and stunts were given.

Mrs. Rupert Styron gave a humorous reading, Christmas Shopping. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments of fruit punch and layer cake were served. Thirty-eight persons attended.

Serving on the social committee were Mrs. Hugh Lupton, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Bill Brittingham and Mrs. Vernon Daniels.

Tuesday, Dec. 22, twenty baskets of food were prepared by the WSCS members to be distributed to aged people in the community. They were distributed by Mrs. Floyd Daniels and Mrs. Dora Day.

Core Creek Says Thank You

Howard E. Mason, chairman of publicity for the Core Creek Methodist church, made the following statement this week relative to the nativity scene displayed by the church:

"Our nativity scene depicting the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ closed as the old year ended and the new year came in, to ever remind us that our living for Jesus Christ and becoming fishermen of men's souls is our only hope for salvation with peace and good will toward men.

"We, the members of the Core Creek Methodist church, rejoice with deep satisfaction and joyful hearts that our memorial to Christ was visited by so many and was truly a success for the promotion of God's kingdom on earth.

"To the many people who contributed to the building of our scene, we extend our thanks and our blessing for a Happy New Year."

Jan. 5—Mrs. Roxie Barco of Coinjock and Mrs. Fay Hooper and son of Baltimore, who visited Mrs. Barco's father, Mr. Walter Goodwin at Cedar Island, visited relatives here a short while Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goodwin and two children of Atlantic visited Mrs. Sophia Lupton and family Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Ida Goodwin and Mrs. Mollie Goodwin visited Mr. and Mrs. James Willis Sunday.

Mrs. Ollie Bell, Coral Bay, visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Willis, Saturday.

Mr. Walter Goodwin visited his sisters here the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McIntosh, daughter, Eleanor and son, Jamie Lawrence, who spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Gus Meden and family at Jersey City, N. J., arrived home Sunday afternoon.

College students who spent the holidays with their parents were Joseph Pake, who returned to Greenville, Bobbie Willis, to Elon, Miss Vonda Goodwin, who returned to Flora MacDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Willis took their son, Bobbie, back to Greenville Sunday.
