

THE YANCEY RECORD

"DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF YANCEY COUNTY"

VOLUME 1

BURNSVILLE, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4th, 1936

NUMBER 13

Johnson City Boosters Here

Motorcade With Members Chamber Of Commerce Stage Program

Fifteen cars from Johnson City, Tenn., formed a motorcade which visited Burnsville on Thursday. Arriving about 11 o'clock the group staged a short program on the square, including talks by several of the tobacco men, and music by the Johnson City High School band.

The tour was one of six planned by the Johnson City Chamber of Commerce to advertise the Johnson City tobacco market. The managers of the four warehouses were in the group. These were Mack Chambers of the Washington County Warehouse, John Smith of the Central Tobacco Warehouse, Hugh Squibb of the Farmers and Merchants, and H. J. Roup of the Foxworth and Cozart Warehouse.

Raymond Rosson, farm agent for Washington county, accompanied the group. In addition to his duties as farm agent Mr. Rosson writes regularly a very interesting and witty column about farm happenings. This column is published in a number of weekly and daily newspapers.

Lunch At Nu-Wray
After lunch at the Nu-Wray hotel the group left for Flag Pond, Tenn.

The tobacco crop in Yancey county is reported to be the best in many years, and judging by the prices paid in the bright leaf belt, the crop here should bring a considerable amount of income into the county.

P-T. A's HOSTESSES TO FACULTY MEMBERS

The members of the hospitality committee of the Burnsville P-T. A. were hostesses at a tea given for the faculty on Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 6:00. The tea was held in the Home Economic rooms.

The decorations for the affair carried out the spirit of the autumn season. The center piece for the central table was a huge pumpkin, cut out to form a basket and was filled with fruits and nuts. Lighted candles in pumpkin holders and quantities of colored leaves were used.

Girls of the Home Economics classes helped serve. The members of the hospitality committee are: Mrs. Rudolph Glatly, Mrs. Hobart Ray, Mrs. D. R. Fouts, Miss Hazel Bolick, Mrs. G. L. Hensley and Mrs. Garrett Bailey.

BIRTHDAY DINNER FOR MISS BAILEY

Mrs. Sam J. Huskins gave a beautifully appointed dinner party on last Tuesday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Mary Bailey, on her birthday. Guests, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Huskins and Miss Bailey were Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bailey, Miss Nan Huskins and Mr. Frank Huskins.

Rev. J. L. Reynolds Goes To Acton

Has Been Pastor of Burnsville Methodist Church For Seven Years

Rev. J. L. Reynolds who has been pastor of the Burnsville Methodist church for the past seven years, was appointed to the church at Acton, and he and his family are planning this week to go to their new home. While here the entire family has endeared itself to all the people of Burnsville of all denominations. The best wishes of all their friends go with them as they go to the new field of service.

Rev. E. C. Widenhouse, who has been pastor of the Methodist church at Boone has been appointed to serve the Burnsville church. He and his family will arrive this week, and the people extend to them a cordial greeting.

Rev. W. E. Ruffy goes from Bald Creek church to Mill Springs. Rev. C. S. Smith will be pastor of the Bald Creek church. Rev. and Mrs. Ruffy have been very popular during their short stay in Yancey county, and the people of Bald Creek community especially regret to have them go.

Farewell Courtesies
Several farewell courtesies were given for members of the Reynolds family prior to their leaving for Acton. Mrs. Fred Proffitt had a party for her Sunday school class of which Ruth Reynolds is a member. Among other things that the girls did was to write letters for Ruth to read after she reached her new home.

Mrs. Reynolds was given a gift by a group representing the Missionary Society.

Mrs. Reynolds wished to remember and honor those of the Sunday school who had had perfect attendance. So Miss Lucille Reynolds took them all down town town for refreshments, and they later played games.

CALL FOR U. S. NAVAL RECRUITS

Guy F. Hull-CCM, of the United States Navy Recruiting Service called by the Record office Tuesday and asked that we give some publicity to the present call for recruits.

He stated that the quota for the Carolinas for November is 23 apprentice seamen and two mess attendants.

The recruiting station for Western Carolina is in the Post Office building at Asheville, with office hours from 9 to 4 on week days and 9 to 1 on Saturdays.

It is not known the exact year in which Saint Dunstan, English archbishop and statesman, was born, but he died in 998.

Canal Street, principal thoroughfare of New Orleans, La., and one of the widest streets in the world is paved with marble.

PASTOR LEAVES

Rev. J. L. Reynolds

Landon Hutchins Dead At Window

Had Been In Ill Health Several Months

Landon Hutchins, age 78 of Window, died at his home Tuesday afternoon following a long illness.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 with Rev. Jesse Blalock officiating. Burial was in the family cemetery, near the home.

Mr. Hutchins is survived by the following children: Mrs. Turner Price of Window; Charles Hutchins, of Burnsville (attorney); Jas. J. Hutchins, superintendent of Yancey county schools; Andrew J. Hutchins, superintendent Canton schools; and W. H. Hutchins of Micaville.

Bald Creek High School Happenings

The Hallowe'en Carnival held in Bald Creek gymnasium Friday, October 30 was very successful. A large crowd attended. Miss Hattie Helen Bailey, of the 8th grade, was winner of the popularity contest.

The French Club met on Thursday, October 29th, and the following program was presented: Devotional, Wanda Pate; Song by the Club; Conversation, Beryl Wilson and Broma Phillips; Song Opha Shepherd and Lela Taylor.

The Senior class organized a literary society Monday, November 2. The following officers were elected: President, War Smith; secretary, Mildred Yelton; Program Committee, Max Yelton, Ralph Holcombe, Wintz McIntosh; Critic, Miss Ray.

SIXTH GRADE STAMP CLUB ORGANIZED

The students of the sixth grade at Burnsville High school have organized a stamp club. In addition to making collections of their own, the members of the group plan to make a class collection. They would like for anyone who has unusual stamps or duplications to give them to the class.

Officers for the club are: Charles Hamrick, president; Barbara Cheek, vice president; and Charlotte Ray, secretary.

Miss Daisy Mackey of Asheville came over to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Reynolds.

Red Cross Broadcast Programs

"Red Cross Reports" Subject To Be Broadcast on November 7, 11 P. M.

OVER C.B.S. NETWORK

Annual Roll Call November 11th 7-11 P. M.

The dramatic sketch or the highlights of Red Cross history put on over a coast to coast network of radio stations last November was so enthusiastically received that I know you will be delighted that the great radio chains have again this year agreed to give us time for three such programs.

The Columbia Broadcasting System's program on the night of November 7th from 11 to 11:30 p. m., E. S. T., will consist of a 30-minute dramatic sketch entitled "The Red Cross Reports." It is a presentation of the highlights of the flood and tornado disaster relief work and in addition to heroic accomplishments, the Red Cross will show a series of dramatic episodes.

The National Broadcasting Company scheduled for November 10th, from 10 to 10:30 p. m., E. S. T., will consist of a 30-minute dramatic sketch written for the Red Cross by one of the outstanding radio writers of the country, Mr. Burke Boyce. The sketch is entitled "When the Floods Came." Mr. Boyce wrote the 30-minute program which NBC presented a year ago.

The Mutual Broadcasting Company network originating with station WOR will broadcast a Red Cross program on November 10th from 8:15 to 8:30 p. m., E. S. T. This will be a presentation by professional talent of a fifteen minute dramatic sketch on Red Cross Emergency Highway First Aid Stations.

POST OFFICE BUILDING IS BEING REPAINTED

The post office building has been entirely refinished inside, and some minor repairs made. This building, owned by Guss Peterson, is one of the most desirable business locations in Burnsville. The U. S. government has just leased it for another period. The upstairs rooms are occupied by the offices of the Appalachian Telephone company.

Television For Olympics

The Japan broadcasting company is experimenting in an effort to make direct television views of the 1940 Olympic games available to all homes and possibly throughout Japan.

C. W. GALLOWAY AT CHEVROLET DEALERS MEET

The finest Chevrolets in the company's quarter-century of automobile manufacture will make their bow here and throughout the country on Nov. 7, Mr. C. W. Galloway of the Gem City Chevrolet Company, Chevrolet dealers, announced, this week upon his return from Charlotte, where, one thousand dealers, sales managers and salesmen from North Carolina obtained official news of the new product from Mr. T. D. Hunter, manager of the Charlotte zone and members of his staff.

Mr. Hunter has just returned from Detroit, where 1,000 members of Chevrolet's wholesale organization from coast to coast spent four days inspecting and driving the new car, reviewing with factory executives the program to be followed in presenting it. The new models adhere closely to time-tried Chevrolet engineering principles, he reported, but combine greater power, economy, safety, and durability with striking new beauty and grace.

M. E. Coyle, president and general manager of Chevrolet, announced during the convention that the company had shattered all previous records during 1936, selling more cars and more trucks than in any previous year in its history, and leading the world in sales for the seventh time in the last 10 years. The total for the year will exceed 1,125,000 units, he said, and the objective for 1937 is 1,200,000. Mr. Galloway was accompanied to the Charlotte meeting by J. H. Galloway and W. T. Ensley.

GREAT RALLY HERE SATURDAY WHEN CLYDE HOEY SPEAKS

A large, enthusiastic crowd from Avery, Mitchell, Madison and Yancey counties greeted Clyde R. Hoey when he spoke here on Saturday afternoon at the Burnsville High School auditorium. Miss Beatrice Cobb, widely known newspaper woman and National Committeewoman from North Carolina, was present also and made a short talk.

The Democratic candidates for the county were seated on the platform. Dover R. Fouts, chairman of the County Democratic Executive committee, introduced the speakers.

Mr. Hoey, in his inimitable way, reviewed the record of the Democratic party and prophesied that further progress would be made within the next few years.

MRS. J. L. RAY HOME BEING REFINISHED

The home of Mrs. J. L. Ray is being repainted and improved. The upstairs apartment is being modernized and with the installation of a bath and other improvements will be a very attractive and convenient apartment.

CLEARMONT 4-H CLUB MEETING

Birds And Bird Life Is the Subject Of This Interesting Meeting

The Clearmont 4-H Club met October 23rd and a very interesting program was given. The program was on birds most common in this section, their habits and care. The club president, M. L. Bailey, presided over the meeting. Herrick Peterson gave an interesting talk on "Birds of the South;" Colleen Wray recited a poem that brought out interesting features of birds and wildlife; Gertrude Johnson discussed the birds most common in Yancey county; Fern McCurry gave an interesting talk on "How we may attract birds to this section;" Prof. Frank Howell gave the club members some good suggestions on how to make some attractive bird houses to place about their homes.

The 4-H Club string band, under the leadership of Boyce Brinkley, furnished the music for the program. June Honeycutt added to the amusement of the program by giving jokes.

OCTOBER TERM CIVIL COURT ADJOURNS

The October term of civil court, presided over by Judge Hoyt Sink was in session four days last week, and tried only the Monday afternoon of cases. The following decisions were made: Ellen Ferrell vs. Glenn Ferrell, divorce.

Robert Presnell vs. Yancey County, judgment, no suit. Mrs. Beth G. Forrest vs. Will D. Peterson (car wreck) compromise, judgment against plaintiff for cost.

John L. Young vs. Frank Garland (car wreck); jury returned verdict in which they charged both parties with negligence, but did not award damages to either.

M. D. Boone vs. Clinchfield Railroad Co.; judgment for plaintiff; damage of $877.13 awarded; (truck torn up at crossing.)

REAL ESTATE DEALS MADE HEREABOUTS

J. A. Goodin has bought the B. C. McIntosh house from the owner, B. C. McIntosh. This small bungalow, situated next to S. T. Bennett's home, is one of the most desirable small homes in Burnsville. Mr. Goodin plans to rent the house at present.

Lee Boone, who has been living with his father-in-law, Charlie Murphy, since moving back to Burnsville several months ago, has bought the Joe Murphy house from the owner.

Singing Services Held At Presbyterian Church

Rev. and Mrs. George K. Neff have been holding a series of weekly singing services at several of the Presbyterian churches in their charge. Mr. John S. LeFevre has accompanied them on most of these visits to the various churches.

Junior Class Gives Party

Host To About Forty Members Of Burnsville High Football Squad

The Junior class of Burnsville High School, having sold more football tickets than any other class, had the honor of being host to about forty members of the football squad and their friends recently at the school gym. School pennants were appropriately used as decorations.

An imaginary football game was the outstanding event on the program, with the Bumblejackets beating the Skunks by a touchdown. The color scheme of yellow and green, the school colors, was carried out in the decorations, date cards and refreshments. Many thanks are due the class officers, under the able direction of Miss Mildred Griffith and Mr. Justice for sponsoring such an original and unusual party.

The Junior class of Burnsville High School has elected its class officers—they are as follows:

President, Mildred Griffith; vice president, Marie Bailey; secretary, Grace Hensley; treasurer, Chas. Wilson; reporter, Rush Beeler; sponsor, Mrs. Alden Honeycutt.

AMERICAN LEGION MONTHLY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett on Tuesday evening, October 27th. After the regular business meetings a social hour and refreshments were enjoyed. It was voted to have the Armistice Day program at the next regular meeting at which time a banquet will be held.

MRS. ROBT. STYLES HAS OPERATION ON EYE

Mrs. Robert Styles of Burnsville underwent an operation in an Asheville hospital for the removal of her left eye. The eye became infected several days ago and the operation was necessary. Miss Alma Styles is with her mother, and during her absence Miss Marjorie L. Butner is substituting for Miss Styles at Micaville school.

TOWN TAX RATE FOR 1936 IS FIXED AT $1.75

At a meeting of the Burnsville Board of Aldermen the town tax rate for 1936 was set at $1.75. It will be divided into the following: General funds, .77; debt service, .81; sinking fund, .17. The present assessment is a reduction of .25 on the hundred as the 1935 rate was $2.00.

Broken Arms

Mrs. John Phillips of Paint Gap and Hubert McMahan of Micaville were treated by local physicians for broken arms, sustained in falls at their homes.