

Cattail Creek News

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Howard arrived from Miami on Thursday to occupy their cabin for the rest of the summer and early fall.

Miss Bernice Scoggins of Gary, Indiana is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Suley at their summer home, Blue Horizons. Miss Scoggins is a lover of the Western North Carolina Mountains and the Cattail Creek Region in particular, and pays them a visit each summer.

The Tom Meltons have as their guests this week, Mr. Frank Walters, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Mr. Peter Jones of Charlotte, N. C.

At the Grassmucks Story Book Home new arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Frothman of Cincinnati and Mr. James Mitchell and daughter, Sara Jo of Miami, Fla. Also Miss Marilyn Moffatt has come from Cincinnati to spend the summer.

Much fun and gaiety is being enjoyed by the entire summer colony "up on Cattail." The activities center around the Community Hall which has been completely remodeled lately. The group makes Tuesday evenings a Canasta Party and on Friday evening they gather for round and square dancing. The neighbors for miles around join in the merry making with the summer cabin folks. Last Friday evening an old time Barn Dance was held under the supervision of R. E. Shepherd, assisted by R. W. Craig and W. E. Fielder. The party was well attended and enjoyed by everyone.

How mild can a cigarette be?

MORE PEOPLE SMOKE CAMELS than any other cigarette!

Army Recruiting

In a recent release to The Yancey Record, Sgt. John A. Fisher, the Recruiting Sergeant for Burnsville, announced that up until the time of this article there has been no change in the recruiting policies of the Army and the Air Force. Sgt. Fisher stated that the Air Force and Army have not put out any new regulations about reserves going on active duty, but does expect to get some new information in the near future and will announce it in the Yancey Record as soon as anything comes through.

The Army and the Air Force are still accepting volunteers, between the ages of 17 and 34, single men only with no dependents with or without prior service. All interested persons are invited to see Sgt. Fisher at the Courthouse in Burnsville anytime on Mondays.
