The W. S. C. S. of the Celso Methodist Church will hold a continuous rummage sale starting this week-end in the Celso post office. The society will hold the monthly all day meeting at the church on Tuesday, October 14. The ladies will clean the church basement in the forenoon.

A reader told me Saturday that he enjoyed reading my columns which included recipes and comments along with the news. That was a reminder that I hadn't given a recipe for a long time. Several people consider my husband an expert at making toss salad. He always tries to get as many different fresh vegetables as possible. One time we counted ten vegetables. Then he uses this homemade French dressing. I found it in an advertisement for Mazola, but we have used several different kinds of salad oil.

FRENCH DRESSING
1-3 cups salad oil, 1-3 cup vinegar, 1-3 cup lemon juice, 1 clove garlic, 1/2 tsp. dry mustard, 1 tsp. sugar, 1 1/2 tsp. salt, 2 tsp. paprika, few grains cayenne
Measure all ingredients into bottle or jar. Cover tightly and shake well. Chill several hours then remove garlic. Shake thoroughly before serving.
I hope you have made the green tomato mince for which I gave the recipe last fall. I made some last week and hope to make some more. Isn't it wonderful for vegetable and fruit lovers that the frost has stayed away so long this year?

HORTON HILL COMMUNITY CLUB NEWS

By: James C. Byrd, Reporter

Thursday night, September 25, members of the Horton Hill Community Club met at the Horton Hill Church and held their regular meeting, which was called to order by Fred L. Anglin, president.

Noah Hughes was in charge of the devotion. A speech entitled "I Speak For Democracy" was delivered by James C. Byrd.

At this meeting the drawing on the quilt, which was made by the club women, was held and Lawrence King was the lucky winner. Around $50.00 was made from selling chances on the quilt. The money was turned into the treasury.

A discussion was held concerning things which the organization should do before each organized community is judged this fall by the 1958 Western North Carolina Rural Development Program. A committee was appointed to select the pattern for the community entrance signs. Also, a committee was selected to contact those members who have not purchased a uniform mail box.

Several members were present at this meeting for the first time. Cookies, lemonade and coffee were served as refreshments.

The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday night, October 9 at 7:30 p. m. Community members are urged to attend this meeting.

CONSERVING FOOD FOR WINTER

By: June Street, Home Agent

Most of your food has been put away for winter, but there are a few last things we need to do.

You want to be sure to take advantage of the large apple and pear crops. Use them in different ways—fresh, canned, baked, and make into sauce and preserves.

Harvest pumpkins and store in a warm place. Pumpkin pies are one way of getting more vitamin A in the diet.

You may want to check the amount of beef in your deep freeze. During the next two months beef may be lower in price, and you with home freezers might consider purchasing beef during October and November.

Use some of those green tomatoes that are left on the vine, if the frost hasn't gotten them. They may be stewed, fried, used in main dish casseroles or even as a dessert. Here is a recipe for Green Tomato Pie which you might like to try: 6 to 8 medium-sized tomatoes; 2 tablespoons lemon juice; 1 teaspoon grated lemon or orange rind; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1-4 teaspoon cinnamon; 3-4 cup sugar; 2 tablespoons cornstarch; 1 tablespoon table fat; pastry.

Wash, remove stem ends, and slice tomatoes. Combine with lemon juice, lemon or orange rind, salt, and cinnamon. Cook 15 min.

Use stirring constantly. Add fat, and cool slightly, then pour into a 9-inch pie plate lined with pastry. Cover with pastry and seal edges. Bake at 425 degrees (hot oven) 40 to 50 minutes.
