Mountain Democrats and county precinct officials will have a chance to mingle with members of the North Carolina Council of State and state party officials who will be traveling in the usual caravan, in order to attend a rally in each Congressional District.

Congressman Tay'or said the ra'ly is being held in Marion at the invitation of McDowell Democratic leaders as a special convenience and gesture of friendship for the two newest counties in the district, Rutherford and Mitchell, added earlier this year. Also, the rally has never previous y been held east of Asheville, Taylor said.

"We hope that large groups from Rutherford and Mitche'l will attend and that they will be made to feel very much a part of the enlarged 11th District," Rep. Tav'or said.

The Congressman said he would soon announce an "outstanding speaker" for the Marion event, along with other program details.
