

Martin's Chapel Methodist

A very well attended and successful revival came to a close on Sunday, with Rev. George Gordon of Asheville as the preacher.

The M. Y. F. of this church have enjoyed two outings recently — the first one being to Cherokee with all the "trimmings", including a visit to Ghost Town, stopping over at Lake Junaluska on their return trip. The second trip was to Linville Caverns and Linville Falls, all of which was greatly enjoyed by the young people.

Newda'e Presbyterian

Eight young people from this church, along with eight from the Grassy Creek Presbyterian Church, had a very enjoyable three days recently at the farm of Rev. Paul Fowler, located near Linville, N. C. They were accompanied by Rev. Stephen Woodward, Rev. Fowler of Dothan, Alabama, has recently purchased a large estate which he and his family will use for a summer home.

This church would like to extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend the Wednesday night prayer services, singing, and Bible study. The members of the church are finding a renewed interest in the Bible study which is taught by the pastor, Rev. Stephen Woodward. Services begin at 7:30 and last till about 8:30.

The pulpit of the church will be filled by a visiting pastor for the next two Sundays, while Rev. Woodward and his bride are honeymooning. He is marrying Miss Nan Hooper of Greenville, S. C., at five o'clock Saturday, the 27th, in the First Presbyterian Church of Greenville.

Faith Fellowship Mission

Rev. and Mrs. Charles L. Kistler and seven year old twin sons, Davey and Danny, will be moving to Burnsville this week to begin their new duties as pastor of Faith Fellowship Mission. The Kistlers serve under the Rural Home Missionary Association, an organization which seeks to open and establish rural churches throughout the United States. He has served churches the past four years in Alabama, coming to Burnsville from Ebenezer Bible Church in Deatsville, Ala. Both Rev. Kistler and his wife are graduates of Bob Jones University in Greenville, S. C., and are natives of Cherryville, N. C.

Rev. and Mrs. Lee Talmage, who have been serving at the F.F.M. the past four years, have joined the Bancroft Gospel Ministry of Route 1, Kingsport, Tenn.

Pensaco a Methodist

The Pensaco M. Y. F. met Thursday, August 18th, at 4:00 p. m. at what is commonly known as the "Flat Rock" for a cookout and swimming. Following the cookout the meeting was held at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Byrd H. Metcalf.

Miss Susan Bowditch of the Estatoe Presbyterian Church attended the Florida Bible Camp at Boca Raton, Florida.

Burnsville Presbyterian

A very impressive dedication service took place in the sanctuary of the church Sunday afternoon, followed by a reception and open house, details of which will appear in another place of this issue.

A full program will go into high gear shortly, beginning with Junior choir rehearsal, and meetings of the Fellowship group.

First Baptist

The young people of the church will be taking over the entire functions of the church during this week. Officers for the week are as follows: Youth Pastor, Steve Boone; Youth Minister of Music, Jerry Clevenger; Church Secretary, Norma Sparks; General S. S. Superintendent, Mike Warren; Chairman of Deacons, Joe Moody.

Saturday night at 7:00 o'clock a banquet will be held in Fellowship Hall for all young people, their Sunday School teachers, training Union leaders, etc. The theme for the banquet will be "A Star for Christ Shines Brighter" — with the decorations carrying out the theme. All planning, and decorating for the banquet is being done by the young people. The speaker for the evening will be Jim Smithwick, Minister of Education and Youth at Calvary Baptist Church in Asheville.

Youth Week will come to a climax Sunday morning, with the youth taking over all departments of the Sunday School. They will take over the teaching from the Junior Department through the adults.

Steve Boone, youth pastor, will preside over the Sunday morning worship service. Jerry Clevenger, youth minister of music, will direct the youth choir.

Youth Week is designed, among other things, to give the young people in the church teaching experience, and learning more about the offices in the church, thus training them to become future leaders in the church.

For the Sunday night worship service Rev. McDonald will continue his sermons from the Book of Acts, his text for the evening being taken from the 12th chapter of Acts.

REV. CHARLES L. KISTLER

Notice

An Orthopedic Clinic was held at the Health Center in Burnsville on August 24th. Dr. J. B. Galloway of Asheville was the attending clinician. This clinic serves residents of the Avery-Mitchell-Yancey health district.

Mrs. Kiser Receives Masters Degree

Mrs. Ron Kiser of Chapel Hill and Burnsville has recently completed requirements for the degree of Master of Arts in teaching in the field of Mathematics at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For the past year she has been a member of the Academic Year Institute for High School teachers of Mathematics and science, sponsored by the National Science Foundation. She is the former Susan Shepard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Shepard of Burnsville.

DOCTOR SHORTAGE

Afghanistan has only 1 doctor for every 53,279 persons, against a U.S. ratio of 1 for every 645 people. American and Canadian doctors sent by MEDICO, a service of CARE, are helping to train more Afghan physicians.

HE TOLD THE TRUTH — Hugh Morton (right) of Wilmington and Linville is shown with Kitty Carlisle and Tom Poston, following his guest appearance on the television show, "To Tell The Truth," in New York

City on August 24. Miss Carlisle and Poston were two of the four panelists on the program, and Poston was the only one to identify correctly Hugh Morton as owner of Grandfather Mountain. (Photo by Joseph Costa.)

You gotta be stubborn
If you're gonna save money!

It's amazing how a woman can be a good shopper watching her pennies like a hawk, and still see the months go by without putting anything into the family savings account. Savings must be planned, not just what's "left over." You gotta be stubborn if you're gonna save money!

THE NORTHWESTERN BANK

MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION