NEW CONTESTANTS IN MISS YANCEY CONTEST

Janet Crisp

Sue Edwards

Pat Letterman

Three more contestants have entered the Yancey Beauty Pageant to be held in connection with the Christmas Parade sponsored by the Yancey Merchants Association.

The deadline for entrants in the contest has been set for November 15th.

Miss Janet Crisp is sponsored by Ray Brothers Food Center. She is a Junior at East Yancey, where she has been a cheer leader for the past two years. She is also the Homecoming Queen for 1967-68.

In addition to her school activities, Miss Crisp has been active in community work, having served as a "Candy Stripper" for three years at Yancey Hospital. A Senior Girl Scout herself, she has been assistant leader for both the Brownie and Cadet Girl Scouts.

Miss Crisp is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crisp of Burnsville.

Sue Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Edwards of Rt. 4, Burnsville, is sponsored by a member of the Merchants Association. Sue is a 1966 graduate of Cane River H'gs School, and Dilly Beauty School, Asheville. She has been employed as a beautician at Fay's Beauty Shop for the past year.

Miss Pat Letterman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Inzy Letterman of Brush Creek. She is a graduate of Cane River High School, and a sophomore at Mars Hill College. Pat is sponsored by Hilltop Restaurant.

Two Yancey Boys Injured In Viet Nam. Meet In Hospital

Word has been received of injury to two Yancey County boys while serving in the Viet Nam conflict. Sp. 4, Ralph Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bartlett, Newdale, sustained a broken hip. Ralph had received the Purple Heart following an earlier injury. He is a 1965 graduate of East Yancey High School.

Cpl. Roger Swann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Swann of Cane River, who is in heavy artillery, suffered a permanent back injury caused from lifting heavy materials. Roger is a graduate of Cane River High School, and is married to the former Mary Phillips of Mars Hill. They are parents of a seven months old son, Jeffrey. Mrs. Swann teaches English at Cane River High School. While her husband is away she and Jeffrey live with her parents in Mars Hill.

Bartlett and Swann landed in the hospital in Tokyo, Japan, at the same time and occupy beds side by side. What must have been the thoughts of these two Yancey County boys upon looking across the bed at each other? To use an old cliché, no doubt it was "Small World."

The families learned of the arrival of the boys in the U. S. Army Hospital in Tokyo through a telephone call from Roger to his wife at 4:30 a. m. Sunday.

After recuperating in the Tokyo hospital for a few weeks, both boys will be returned to a hospital in the states, and the families are looking forward to having them home for Christmas.

East Yancey PTA To Meet

The East Yancey Parent-Teacher Association will meet Monday night in the school library at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. Eugene Burr's, County Coordinator for WAMY Community Action, will be the guest speaker. All parents are urged to attend.

Home Visitors Nursing Course

Friendly Home Visitors, now known as Neighborhood Visitors, will be engaged in a four-day home nursing course this week.

This course is being taught by Miss Annie Jo Hawfield, a representative of the Red Cross.

When the course is completed, the Visitors will be qualified to teach others.

HUSKEY-HAMBY

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Huskey of Rhodhiss, N. C., announce the marriage of their daughter, Trula Ann, to Michael Hamby, son of Mrs. Alda Hamby of Whitel, N. C. and the late Mr. Hamby.

The wedding was solemnized Saturday, October 28 in South Carolina.

The bride is a senior at Granite Falls High School and the bridegroom graduated from Hudson High School last year and is employed with General Electric in Hickory.

The Huskeys are former residents of Burnsville.

Mrs. Fouts Hostess To Garden Club

Mrs. D. R. Fouts was hostess to the Garden Club at her home on Academy Street last Friday night.

Mrs. Troy Ray, program leader, introduced Mrs. W. A. Y. Sargent, who showed color slides of Canada and Alaska and gave an interesting travelog of the tour which she and Dr. Sargent made in August and September.

President of the club, Mrs. Troy Ray, appointed a committee composed of Mrs. Fred Proffitt, Mrs. D. R. Fouts, and Mrs. Brooks Wilson, to nominate officers for the coming year. Mrs. Sargent, chairman of the civic committee, was appointed to see about having needed repairs made to street signs in the town.

It was decided to discontinue meetings of the club during January and February. The next meeting will be held on December 1, at the home of Mrs. Fred Proffitt with Mrs. D. R. Fouts as program leader.

The hostess was assisted during the social hour by Mrs. Troy Ray and Mrs. Brady Bailey. Mrs. Hubert Justice was a guest of the club.

Scout Neighborhood To Meet

The Yancey Girl Scout Neighborhood Association will meet Thursday, November 9 at 9:30 a. m. at the Community Building in Burnsville.

Two members of the Pisgah Girl Scout Council, "The Piper Team", will be present. This is a project to enlist more girls for scouting.

All leaders and Troop Committees are urged to be present at the meeting.

Fall Festival At Pensacola

Pensacola Fall Festival will be held at Pensacola Elementary School Friday, November 3, 1967. Food sales begin at 6:00 p. m. The program will begin at 7:00 p. m. String music will be furnished by "The Leaders". Skits by school children and adults.

This is sponsored by the Pensacola P. T. A.

Admission will be 25 and 50c.

Wilcox At Gospel Mission

Rev. Handy Wilcox will be preaching at the Free Will Baptist Gospel Mission, Main Street Sunday afternoon at 2:30. The Free Will Baptist Gospel Mission is occupying the Banks Building directly across from the Yancey Theatre.

There will be special singing by the choir of Rev. Wilcox's church near Elizabethton, Tenn. The public is cordially invited.
