From The Editor's Desk

Many people in Yancey County feel that the action of the Yancey County Board of Education has been inexcusably unfair concerning the appointment of a Superintendent of Schools for the next two years beginning June 30. The members of the School Board have delayed this crucial appointment for more than 10 weeks, completely disregarding the fact that according to the Public School Laws of North Carolina, School Boards are advised that "At a meeting to be held on the first Monday in April, or as soon as practicable thereafter,..... (they) shall meet and elect a county superintendent of schools,..."

The rule is uniform throughout North Carolina so that the men who hold these jobs in each school system will have ample time to find other positions should their contract not be renewed, or if they wish to change their employment. Vacancies, therefore, are created and filled mostly during April or the early weeks of May and after that time, throughout the North Carolina school systems, the jobs of school superintendent have been assigned.

The Yancey County School Board apparently does not feel bound by rules that apply to others. They not only failed to select a School Superintendent on that first Monday in April, they also failed to take action at any School Board meeting since then. And the way the matter now stands, less than two weeks before his contract is up Landrum Wilson still does not know whether he will be reappointed as Yancey County School Superintendent.

The members of the Board of Education will have to make a decision very soon. But no matter what their decision may be at this late date, a grave injustice has been done to Mr. Wilson. A man with a wife and four children to support, Mr. Wilson asked only to be dealt with fairly by these men who wield such power in this school system--he surely deserved that much.

How wide is the bounty
of the Lord,
How immeasurable the gifts
from His hand;
What harvests He has set
upon the field,
What glory of growth
upon the land!
Home and its love--

friendship that we fine--
His sacred Word
a guide for soul and mind.
How great the love of God,
how wide His mercy flows, Praise Him through days for gifts that He bestows!

Yancey Men At Workshop

School is out now for students in the Yancey County School System, but for many administrators, principals, and teachers, it will be "business as usual" through most of the summer months. Many school officials will be attending an administrator's workshop at Lees McRae College in Banner Elk in late June. Attending from the Yancey County system will be Landrum Wilson, superintendent; and Boyd C. Deyton, principal, Mica-ville Elementary School.

In addition, many teachers will be attending various institutes and workshops during the summer months.

The workshop to be held in Banner Elk is jointly sponsored by the Northwest Regional Education Center and the Appalachian Teacher Training Complex.
