I am so sorry I didn't get to send in my peek for last week. I have been away at 4-H Camp and it slipped my mind. The peek last week was sent in by Mrs. Jim Arrowood. I am glad to have it in this week and would like to thank all the people who have helped me with my column. I will be glad to include anything of interest in the community that has happened or any club meetings that are scheduled, etc...

Burnsville, N.C.

Mrs. Paul Pritchard Briggs, Jr.

United In Marriage

Miss Rita Lynn Foxx and Paul Pritchard Briggs, Jr. were married Sunday at four p.m. in the Mars Hill Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis Foxx of Burnsville, and Mr. Briggs is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Briggs Sr., of Mars Hill.

The ceremony was conducted by Reverend William L. Lynch of the Middle Fork Baptist Church, who was assisted by Reverend Richard Price of the Mars Hill Baptist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal empire waist gown of white bridal satin overlaid with white organza, and trimmed with re-embroidered lace and seed pearls. The chapel train was of the same material and re-embroidered lace as that of the gown. The fingertip triple-tiered veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of satin petals trimmed with pearls, and centered with seed pearls imbedded in an applique of re-embroidered lace. She carried a bouquet of white roses centered with a detachable white orchid.

Miss Janet Gail Foxx, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a formal empire waist gown of yellow bridal satin, overlaid with yellow organza and trimmed with white and yellow lace. Her headpiece was a matching bow and veil of yellow net. She carried a bouquet of Shasta daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ralph Walter Edwards, Jr., of Reidsville, N.C., sister of the bride; Mrs. Francis Barwick Carr of Asheville, sister of the groom; Miss Deborah Lee Swann of Charlotte, and Miss Glenda Sue Williams of Telford, Tenn.

Their gowns and headdress were identical to that of the honor attendant. They carried nosegays of shasta daisies.

Mr. Francis Barwick Carr

of Asheville, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were William Randy Foxx of Burnsville, brother of the bride; Charles Home of Swannanoa; and William Briggs and Gayle Briggs, both of Mars Hill.

A reception in the Church Social Hall followed the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of East Tennessee State University and is employed in the Burncombe County School System. The bridegroom attended Mars Hill College and is a graduate of Wilson County Technical Institute. He is employed by Eller Oil Company in Mars Hill.

After a wedding trip, the couple will live at Route 2, Mars Hill.

Dean's List

A record breaking 2,841 students at North Carolina State University earned Dean's List honors for academic excellence during the spring semester, Chancellor John T. Caldwell announced.

Honored for a perfect record was William H. Buckner, agricultural education, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Buckner of Route 3, Burnsville.

Rudy Morrow, Agricultural Institute, son of H. R. Morrow of Route 3; and Kirk L. Young, materials engineering, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Young of Route 2, Burnsville, were other Burnsville students on the Dean's List.

Dean's List students from Green Mountain included Dennis E. Deyton, horticultural science, son of Mr. and Mrs. Yates Deyton of Route 2; and James E. Blair, mechanical engineering, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blair of Route 1.
