

United In Holy Matrimony

Miss Mary Julia Pate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hubert Pate of Burnsville, and Mr. James Emmett Ashlock Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Emmett Ashlock, Sr., of Franklin, Ky., were married at 5:00 p. m. Saturday, June 5th, at the First Baptist Church. The ceremony was conducted by Reverend Harold McDonald.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mr. Charles Boone, organist, Miss Mary Ann Howell, pianist, and Miss Susan Hensley, vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floor length gown of white silk organza and chantilly lace with a high scalloped neckline, long sleeves, and a cathedral length train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls.

Miss Carolyn Pate, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She wore a full length Empire gown of turquoise chiffon over satin with matching headpieces and carried a yellow rose.

The bridesmaids were Miss Marsha Banner and Miss Parsy Hughes of Burnsville, N.C.; Miss Pamela Gardner of Rockville, Md., and Miss Regina Lafavers, Pennington Gap, Va.

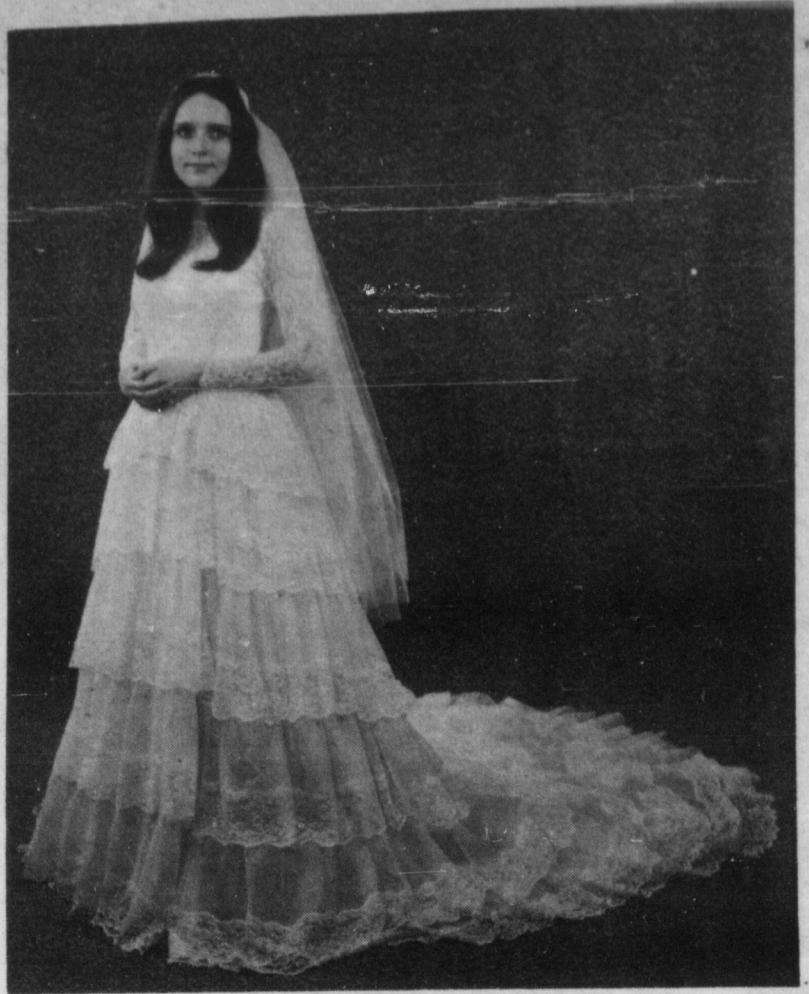

Junior bridesmaids were Miss Beth Bailey and Miss Marie Hunter of Burnsville, Miss Martha Slonaker of Johnson City, and Miss Deborah Gardner of Rockville, Maryland. They wore dresses of a lighter shade of turquoise, similar to the maid of honor's with matching headpieces and yellow rose.

The flower girls, Miss Nicole Ray and Miss Denise Kilpatrick of Charlotte, N.C., wore matching dresses to the maid of honor and carried white baskets of rose petals.

Sean Weakland of Green Mountain was ring-bearer.

Mr. Stephen Smith of Franklin, Ky., served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Dennis Pate and Mr. Gary Pate, brothers of the bride, and Mr. Michael Dunn, Mr. Stephen Ellis, Mr. Dick Downey and Mr. Jimmy Young of Franklin, Ky., and Mr. Kames Palmer of Washington Court House, Ohio.

The bride's mother wore a dress of powder blue magnum with yolk and sleeves of aler con lace and a corsage of yellow roses.

The mother of the groom wore a princess line dress of pink magnum with long full sleeves and collar of silk organza with a beaded yolk. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony.

The couple will live in Williamsburg, Ky., where they will continue their studies at Cumberland College.

Rehearsal Dinner was held Friday night before the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. James Emmett Ashlock, Sr., parents of the groom, entertained at the Nu-Wray Inn and members of the Pate-Ashlock wedding party and out-of-town guests were present. Sixty guests attended.

Mr. Frank House of Bowling Green, Ky., uncle of the groom, entertained 30 guests at a bachelor's breakfast in honor of his nephew at Nu-Wray Inn on Saturday morning, June 5th.
