3. What is your opinion of WKYK's general news coverage?
4. How can this station improve in the area of public affairs programming?
5. What is your opinion of WKYK's agriculture, sports, and educational programs?
6. What in your opinion, are the most significant needs of this community?
7. How can WKYK best help to meet these needs through its programming?
8. What type or types of music do you prefer? Country(modern) _____; Country (Hillbilly) _____; Popular _____; Rock and Roll _____; Gospel _____; Easy Listening standards _____; Other _____.
9. What suggestions would you make to improve the operation and programming by WKYK?
10. Other comments _____

We would appreciate it if you would take a moment to fill out this questionnaire and return it to WKYK by mail or in person. Thank you, WKYK.. Dedicated to You.

News From Cattail Creek

By Mrs. Neva Renaldo Cattail is really jumping this week with more and more of our people arriving-- the David Days have just arrived from Appalachicola, Florida to spend a month in their newly completed cabin.

Ralph Newby and son have arrived to spend two weeks. Mrs. Leo Schupp finally made the scene, but without Leo who found it necessary to stay in Miami.

From Perrine, Florida come the Rev. Mays and family who are guests in the Simon's cabin.

Mrs. Don Aderton is visiting with her mother (Mrs. Roger Dewey) and grandmother, Annie Sue Read.

Missionary Don Gahagen flew in to spend a few days with the Dr. Gahagens, his parents, before picking up his two sons, Craig and Timmy and returning to Peru.

The G. Davenport has returned to St. Pete to entertain their granddaughter arriving from Germany.

Harold and Louise Melton of Fordeyce, Georgia spent a few days with Auntie Mary Melton.

Rev. Scotty Bizeman rushed over from Junaluska long enough to cut his lawn--but has visions of being back with us later in the summer.

The Don Dolles played host to Lennie Hernandez and daughter Lindy--with a Jeep trip to Roan Mountain. The Rhododendron were at their blooming height--and were a spectacular sight for our first time visitors.

JEAN YOUNG

Mrs. Jean Young, 59, formerly of MicaVille, died Wednesday evening in a Portsmouth, Ohio hospital after a long illness. She was the widow of Sheldon Young who died in 1963.

She is survived by a son, S. R. Young of Hendersonville; two sisters, Mrs. Grace Morris and Mrs. Mable Haffner of Springfield, Ohio, and a brother, George Hickman of Springfield; and three grandchildren.

Mr. H. Pinder has had the pleasure this week of caring for her little 8 month old granddaughter, Stefanie, from Elovig Rock.

We are all looking forward to seeing Grace Grassmuck back at Story Book Home-- at this writing we understand her condition has improved to the point where she will be released from Spruce Pine Hospital in a few days.

The William Heckarts celebrated Mrs. (Julie) Heckart's birthday with a patio party for seventeen guests. The Michael Bowdens and Mrs. Michael Heckart came in from New Castle, Pa. to fête their aunt.

Our grateful thanks to the Joe Wards for their contribution of a much needed sink for the Community House--also our thanks to Bill Heckart and Don Dolle for their efforts at installing it. The Gals all embrace you!

The Monday night movies are proving popular. Attendance is growing. Do plan to take advantage of our social programs. Movies on Monday, Bingo on Wednesday and Card Night on Friday. All at 7:30 p.m. "You all come".
