Homemakers Club Met

The Pensacola Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Isaac Williams on July 17, at 7:30 p.m. with the majority of members attending.

Since the theme for the month was "Take a look at Youth and You", each member gave a thought on keeping young--physically and spiritually--as well as "fashionably".

The devotions were included in the talk given by Mary Margaret Deyton, who used pictures and a musical record of a lovely "young type" hymn, to demonstrate that the youth of today are the "happening" generation with inquisitive, searching and optimistic minds. They look for peace and meaning to their world.

During the business session, some handcrafts were displayed--including leaf printing notes that will be sold at the Crafts Festival. Each member agreed to donate time and money or an article (or all three) to the festival.

The hostess served refreshments and the group discussed some help as a group toward the proposed Hospital fund--as suggested by Mary Melton.

Plans were made for the August meeting to be a family type picnic--August 14th, at the home of Mrs. Melton.

Penland School Auction Set

The Penland School of Crafts located in Mitchell County has designated the Blue Ridge Hospitals Development Fund as the recipient of the proceeds from its auction to be held on August 3, 1972.

The auction will be held in a large log building known as "The Craft House" and will be conducted by auctioneers who are residents at the School. All proceeds will be given to the Blue Ridge Hospitals Funds for the expansion of the Spruce Pine Community Hospital and for the construction of the Extended Care Facility at Burnsville. Instructors and students at the School will donate hand-crafted pieces in different media, including weaving, pottery, metalcrafts, jewelry, hand blown glass, graphics and photography. Prior to the auction there will be a buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

THE CHILDREN'S HOUR

CHILDREN'S HOUR will not be held in Yancey County Public Library July 13 or August 7. It will resume regular schedule on Monday, August 14 at 10:00 a.m.

The children who attended this week's CHILDREN'S HOUR learned how to talk with their instruments as they played the Percussion Instruments.

"Hi Cat!" by Ezra Jack Keats was read to the children by Mrs. Elaine Reed. Following the story, the children made paper masks like Archie did in the story.

CHILDREN'S HOUR concluded with the filmstrip, "Little Red Riding Hood", which all the children really enjoyed.

Attending the program this week were Randy Byrd, Christine Kelly, Pam McCalliard, Chris Fender, Crystal Davis, Becky Loftis, Jeffrey Autry, Lisa and Gregory Street, Ricky Crout, Chris Autrey, Angie Riddle, Angie, Shannon and Jeff Warren, Tammy Street, Donna and Darrell Mitchell, Curtis Hughes, Norma McCurry, John Kegley, Lou Ann and Steve Robinson, Eddie Rose, Gregory Moore, Jerry Rose, Royce Chrisawn, Randy Rose, Diane Raby, Steve Ness, Gregory and Donnie Ness.

News From Cattail Creek

By Mrs. Neva Renaldo
There is good news this week. Our own Grace Grassmuck is home and able to be up a few hours a day--we all hope you will continue to improve and soon be your old vivacious self again.

The Gronquist Cabin is beginning to bulge--Harold's family have been here for a month with grandmother Gronquist -- Now Harold will return with his brothers wife Barbara and her children Eric and Erin-- They will all spend the next month together.

The Bruce Mozerts flew in from Ocala, Fla. for a few days. They have as their guest Mrs. Mozart's sister, Mrs. Norma Speck of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. Pinder is glowing these days. Her son (former Air Force Capt.) Gary and wife Connie of Oklahoma City are visiting as well as daughter Susan and granddaughter Stephanie Cox of Blowing Rock, N.C.

Mrs. Fischer has had as her guest for the past week Mrs. Myra Thomas of Bethlehem, Pa. Mrs. Thomas is an avid bridge player and we welcome her to Cattail.

Here 'tis is full of activity these days with the Rev. Hedbergs of West Palm Beach in, as well as the Robert Rudolfs of Cleveland, Ohio. Both families are former Miamians.

Mrs. Loy Morrow and son, have been at Castle in the Sky for a couple of weeks. This past week their daughter, Lory, joined them after attending a youth seminar at Junaluska. Rev. and Mrs. Abraham of Grace Methodist Church of Miami, accompanied Lory to Cattail and paid a few short visits to their many friends here. We hope next visit they can stay long enough to be entertained.

Mary Ann Batchelor is due back with us after a trip to Flagstaff, Arizona with her sister, Edith Hazlehurst, by camper. They visited the Petrified Forest, Painted Desert and Grand Canyon on their travels. Welcome home Mary Ann.

Again let me remind you all of the Monday nite Movies -- Bingo on Wednesday and Cards on Friday nights--all at 7:30 p.m. Come--Take advantage of the Club House.

Postal Inspector Warns

A chain-letter scheme involving United States savings bonds is in operation, Leo C. Shatzel, area Postal Inspector in Charge, warned today. The scheme is illegal, he said.

The operation involves two savings bonds and a list containing names and addresses of various persons. The list is sold to a "customer". The buyer gives one bond to the seller of the list and, in his presence, mails a second bond to the person whose name appears on the list, Shatzel said.

The first name is then removed from the list and the new participant adds his name to the bottom, makes two copies and sells the list to two other persons.

The idea is to reap a rich harvest of bonds as the person's name reaches the top.

Shatzel warned that such schemes, in addition to being illegal, always turn out so that the few who start them get back more than their investment, while others lose their money.

Participants may be prosecuted under the fraud and lottery laws, Shatzel said. He urged anyone receiving such a letter to notify local postal inspectors or office of the Inspector in Charge, Chattanooga, Tenn. 37401.
