BY NEVA RENALDO
Cattail Correspondent

Wednesday night is the night of our fun festival and cake walk. Come early and enjoy hot dogs, sodas, coffee and homemade goodies. 6:30 is the time. The cake walk will start at 7:30. There will be door prizes as well as the cakes. So come and get lucky!

Ginny and David Tolliver are visiting with David's grandfather, GEORGE HAEGER. They are renewing friendships with cousin Joyce Haeger of Miami who is spending the summer with her grandfather.

Story book home is alive these days—with GRACE GRASSMUCK bustling round seeing that everything is just so for her granddaughter Patty and hubby, Ron Delan of Coral Gables, Florida.

The JOE WARDS have been entertaining Joe's sister Anne and hubby Ed Cramp of Florida. While here they celebrated their 39th Wedding Anniversary with dinner at "Beams".

Mrs. Joe Ward has been called to the bedside of her father who is in critical condition. We hope all will go well and you will be back in our midst soon, Kathy.

The REV. HAEGELERS are back after an extended trip with their Airstream Trailer and attending a huge "Wally" encampment in Canaan. Welcome home again.

The Mildred Ray Circle of Higgins Memorial Church held their annual picnic at the home of ELLA BATCHELLER with NEVA RENALDO as co-hostess on Thursday, July 17. The weather was perfect until about 2 o'clock when the Heavens opened and everyone scattered. Twenty five women were in attendance.

The JOHN MARSH family are really elated with the transformation of their old cabin. The stonework and decor are outstanding.

REV. DAVID DAY and family have arrived from Florida to enjoy a few weeks at their little hideaway.

FAYE MUNGER and son James and wife Judi of Miami, and daughter Melinda of DeKalb, Ill. and Steve Lipkowitz of Orlando, Florida are enjoying their vacation at their cabin in Cattail.

The Holden Bolten family are in visiting with Mrs. Bolten's mother, Mr. and Mrs. DON DOLLE.

The Pensacola Homemakers are busy quilting their second quilt this season. It will probably be on display at the fair.

Hope to see you all on Wednesday night.

Bowditch-This center did not meet last week but Marie Thomas worked on four cushion tops for the fair.

Baker's Creek-Three members met and quilted three quilts. Mrs. Axie Elkins' son, Gene and his three children spent last week with her. They are from Alexandria, Va.

Hardscrabble-The ladies here are so busy in gardens and canning that they could not spare a day for Wamy. But neither would they give up their "get-together" so they met on Thursday night and tacked one quilt and one-half of another.

Green Mountain-This center tacked one quilt and basted one. They made a quilt to sell for an orphan's home. What a good Christian example! Perhaps other centers would like to try that.

Double Island-This community held camp meeting last week so they didn't meet at the center. They held a Homecoming and dinner on the second Sunday in this month at Double Island Baptist Church. After dinner they covered the tables, went to camp meeting, and then returned to the church for supper. The evangelist was Billy Kelly of South Carolina. Lanny Richards of King, North Carolina was there. The pastor of the church is Arthur Woody.

George's Fork-These women worked on items for the fair. They were crocheting, working on rugs and making pocketbooks.

Blue Rock-These citizens tacked one quilt and quilted a Rose quilt. The roses were appliqued on white material.

Burnsville-This group quilted one quilt and laced one in. They had mustard greens for dinner out of their Wamy garden. They are making dolls, bonnets and other things for the fair.

Upper Higgins-Seven of the members met and tacked one quilt in the corners of each piece with white wool. Mrs. Bernice Silvers had her daughter, Mrs. Hal Plemons of Hickory as a weekend guest.

Little Creek-Six members met and made five quilts. We missed each member who was absent very much.

Budget-Stretching

To conserve energy and stretch gasoline dollars, warm your car up for at least three minutes before driving. Then, try to stay below 30 miles an hour for the first three or four miles. By doing this, you can save as much as four miles per gallon.

4-H Group Takes Camping Trip

Friday night, July 11, the first group of 4-H Action and Adventure participants went camping. They went to the lovely Briar Bottom Campground located next to Black Mountain Campground in the South Toe Refuge. The U.S. Forest Service has been very helpful in taking care of their camping facilities. Thirty-two adventuresome boys were in this group, and they learned a very good lesson about setting up camp and about the things it takes to get their camps in proper shape for their nights sleep.

Another camping trip will be taken Friday, July 25, at the same location. All 4-H Action and Adventure kids are urged to get in contact with the teen organizer in their community by Tuesday, July 22, to let him know how many will be going. Pictured above are 4-H Action and Adventure boys playing softball on the camping trip. The boys are from Bald Creek, Pensacola and Micaville clubs.

Yancey Jamboree Judges Selected

The eighth annual Yancey Jamboree, a traditional program of folk music, singing, and dancing highlighting Yancey County school students will be staged at East Yancey High School on Thursday and Friday evenings, July 31 and August 1 at 7:00 p.m.

Sponsored by the Yancey County Chamber of Commerce, the Jamboree is held in conjunction with the Mt. Mitchell Crafts Fair, which will run in Burnsville for two full days beginning August 1.

Entries in the Jamboree are both in exhibition and competition. Grand champion trophies will be given, and there will be awards to winners in folk song/folk ballad, religious, and patriotic songs, and instrumental numbers. Also, winners will be chosen in clogging, smooth square, folk, and buck dancing. Trophies will be presented for the most authentic individual and group folk songs.

In addition to the young people, adults will be participating in competition for the first time this year.

Judging for the event will be done by judges who reside outside Yancey County. The judges will include Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hart from Arden, Mrs. Dorothy Roberts, and Mrs. Betty Jolley from Mars Hill. Mr. Hart is with the Asheville Citizen-Times and has judged in other events in western North Carolina. Mrs. Hart, a teacher, has been interested in young people. Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Jolley are professors at Mars Hill College. Both Mrs. Roberts

Note Of Appreciation

To you who sent the lovely flowers, we all saw them there.

To you who sent a bit of food...To you who came to see us...To you who spoke the kindest words as any friend can do.

To you who were not there at all but thought of us that day:

Whatever you did to console our hearts...We want to thank you so very much whatever the part.

--Children of Mrs. S.J. Ray Edna, John, Pauline, Luther and Nell
