Rally Here Starts Murphy's CD Plans With Bang

Murphy's newly - organized Civil Defense committee got rolling this week with an enthusiastic public meeting to explain goals and purpose of the system.

Under the direction of Herman Edwards, local attorney, the campaign will be spear-headed by 18 committee chairmen. Mr. Edwards outlined the vital need for a strong civil defense program Monday night at a meeting of some 100 citizens. He pointed out that such a program stands as

Posts Won't Be Filled Knitting Mill To Exhibit At Trade Fair

The Berkshire Knitting Mill will be among the :300 exhibitors at the first North Carolina Trade Fair beginning October 12 in Charlotte.

The fair will run for 10 days and will be held in Charlotte's new Merchandise Mart building and the nearby Coliseum, Gov, TerrySanford and Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges will be among the notables for the opening. Other notables during the 10-day period will be Ronald Regan, . movie and telivision actor, Miss North Carolina and Miss South Carolina and Marlene Schmidt, the 1962 Miss Universe, The German girl, an engineering graduate will make her last domestic appearance before leaving on a world tour.

Richard Mauney, former Murphy resident, is executive assistant director of the fair. He was assigned to help with the show by the State Depart-ment of Conservation and Development. He states: "Success is assured in terms of exhibitors, visiting buyers from overseas, and plenty of attractions for the general public. The early estimate was 300,000 visitors over the 10day period, but with the way the Trade Fair has shaped up I expect the estimate to prove conservative." "We'll open on October 12 with bands playing, flags find in Murphy, waving and the President of Then shop in the United States here in person," said Mauney, who rates.a private office as the assistant director of the trade fair. Mauney added, "There's no way to judge how much the fair will add to North Carolina's general prestige in the world, we'll have to see how many new plants locate here." More than 340 booths will feature exhibits by the 266 Tar manufacturers, dis-Heel tributors and service firms whose applications had been received, along with checks.

We'll Do Best We Can-Nave

Cherokee County's as sistant farm agent and assistant home demonstration agen@ will not be replaced. This was revealed Wednesday by W. S. Dickey, chair-man of Cherokee County Board of Commissioners.

These agents were responsible for working with the county's large 4-H Club program. Since they resigned several months ago, no meeting has been held with 4-h'ers and farm and home agents.

Farm Agent Paul Nave said Wednesday that the county's 4-H program will suffer since he and the home demonstration agent cannot give the project as much time as it requires. "We'll do the best we can by the 4-H program because it is so important, But this is more than two people can handle." her asserted.

Mr. Nave said it will be about the first of November duties. Normall such a meeting would be held in September.

Mr. Nave went on to praise the work of the assistant agents, pointing out that 4 h'ers won numerous prizes for their accomplishments.

Mr. Dickey told The Scout that the Commissioners have deferred action on the matter until December 1962.

The term of the present board expires December 1, 1962.

He went on to say that it Tri-County Ministers was the opinion of the board that one full - time home demonstration and farm agent can handle the program in addition totheir regular duties. Mr. Dickey pointed out that both the assistant farm agent and the assistant home agent resigned and were not discharged by the Commissioners.

Cherokee County has 1,155 members in its 4-H program. A total of 711 of these are from farms and 444 are from nonfarms. There are 254-H Clubs in the county.

The assistant home agents spent two-thirds of their time on 4-H work.

Midgets Edge Sylva 6

The Murphy Midget football team won over Sylva Tuesday night by a score of 6-0. The game was close all the way until late in the third quarter when Murphy's Don Stephens took a Sylva punt on his own 30 yard line and raced 70 yards for a Murphy TD. The game was played in Sylva, and some of the Murphy adult supporters who made the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Peyton Ivie, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Fish; Mr. James Pittman; Dr. Harry Dickey, Dr. Buddy Burch, Mr. and Mrs. John Carringer; Mrs. F. C. Bourne, Jr., Rev. Bill Thompson, Mr. Earl C. Van Horn.

Head Coach Frank Forsyth said he was extremely well pleased with his boys in their first game, Tripp Bourne was outstanding with his ball handling and passing as quarter-back, and Mike Jordan was a standout on defense.

The Mites also payed and were beaten 6-0 by the Sylva mites. In the mite game, also under the lights, played Murphy's Dannie Burrell made the longest run of the game when he ran a quarterback

Clay County PTA Clothing Drive

Remember the Clothing Drivel Clothes will be received Tuesday, October 3, starting at 8:30 a.m. at the clothing room on the Hayesvill school grounds, or they can be sent by the school children to their home rooms. Especially needed are coats, jackets and sweaters, but all types of clothing in the school age sizes will be helpful in keeping needy children in school and adequately clothed. Clothes should be ready to wear, clean, mended, and marked for size if known.

Waiting Sometimes Costly

North Carolina's Governor Sanford put his finger on a real problem existing throughout the nation when he recently discussed federal aid to education.

Speaking of the death of federal aid to education for this session of Congress, Governor Sanford declared at a news conference:

"The States have got to get on with this job. We have been deluding ourselves over a decade thinking that if we'll just wait a few years or a few months, then somehow the federal government is going to come along and provide the money to solve all the problems.

"We ought to quit waiting around for the federal government to come galloping up to rescue us." This was brought home to Murphy forcefully this week in connection with the construction of fallout shelters. At a mass meeting to discuss the subject, it was brought out that federal aid will be made available -- but not for some time. The point is that the fallout shelters cannot wait for the overnment to step in with aid. They are needed now and it becomes the responsibility of the individual citizen and the individual community to solve its problems,

The same is true with aid to education. No community can afford to let its educational system lag simply because it is waiting for financial help from Washington.

The Franklin Press, editorializing on the subject last week, suggested that "the best thing that could happen to education might be for the federal government to say with absolute finality, "there is going to be no federal aid -- now or ever."

Mayor Sets October 1 - 7 As Hire The Handicapped

Mason of Mayor L. L. Murphy proclaims that the week of October 1-7 be observed as Hire the Handicapped Week. This is in keeping with the national observance each year since 1945.

The national theme this year is ABLE WORKERS, not disabled.

Mr. Ed Bumby, Chairman of the local Employ the Handicapped Committee, says that when given an equal opportunity many so called handicapped, or physically limited workers can produce as well as, and in some cases. better than the able bodied worker, Mr. Brumby urges all employers of the tri-county to continue as in the past to hire people for their ability and not turn them away se of some disability that may not effect their work in any way. Mr. Jack Wilson Manager of the Local Employment Security Office, is a member of the local committee and he states that as in the test the commission office, throughout the nation work only NEPH week but during throughout the entire year with the local committees promoting employment of the physically limited worker. Mr. Wilson states that in his local office area there are some 225 people registered for work who have some limitations. He, along with the other members of the local committees of the tri county area, urges all employers to give the handicapped worker equal opportunity to prove he is an ABLE WORKER on a job that he is quallified to do.
