

Peachtree News

by Mrs. Dock Sudderth

A Halloween carnival sponsored by the Peachtree School PTA was held at the Peachtree School last Thursday night, October 26. More than $400 was taken in with a profit of $353. This will be used for play ground equipment, and steam table for the lunch room.

There were concession stands serving coffee, punch, cakes, hot dogs and candies. There were several side shows, a country store, a king and queen contest and bingo. Approximately 25 cakes and several pies were sold in cake walks.

Jimmy Foust of radio station WKRK was master of ceremony. In the auditorium music was furnished by Doyle Barker, Jerry Thomason, Billy Ledford and Mrs. Dock Sudderth. The prize for bingo consisted of such items as an electric iron, electric heater, clothing, house paint, a beautiful white marble table top, seat covers, a table lamp, reverse cook ware, cosmetics, etc.

We wish to thank the following business firms in Murphy who contributed these prizes: Ivie Furniture Store, Parkers Drug Store, Sinclair Service Station, Fayola, Walter Coleman appliance store, Bill Darnell, Cherokee Furniture Co., Hilton Business Equipment, Farmers Federation, Hughes Supply, Venson Stile Produce, Kephart Grocery, Mrs. Crisp Studio, Mountaineer Bakery, Hughes Electrical Shop, Sanitary Market, Sossamon Furniture, Davis Esso Service Station, Murphy Hwde, Rogers Electric Shop, Mulkey & Craig, Margaret Studio, Radford Saw service, Stiles Produce, Frank Dickey Supply, Messer Supply Co., Hackney Carolina, Murphy Florist, Kayes Auto Parts, Dockery Monument, Wilson Tractor Co.
