Legal Notice North Carolina Cherokee County

In the Superior Court

Carl Linley Depty, Plaintiff
-vs- Blanche Pierce Depty, Defendant.
To Blanche Pierce Depty:

Take Notice that a pleading seeking relief against you has been filed in the above entitled action. The nature of the relief being sought is as follows: The plaintiff is seeking an absolute divorce from the bonds of matrimony against you on the ground of separation for more than two years next preceding the commencement of this action and is seeking to be awarded the custody of Carl Depty, minor child born of the marriage between plaintiff and defendant. You are required to make defense to such pleading not later than the 14th day of December, 1961, and upon your failure to do so the party seeking service against you will apply to the Court for the relief sought.

This the 20 day of October, 1961.

Annual Bazaar Held At The Episcopal Church

The women of the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Hayesville held their annual tea and bazaar on Thursday afternoon, October 26th. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. R. W. Myer. The largest room of the parish house which usually serves as the church was arranged with pews at the sides and three long tables in the center. On the organ was a beautiful arrangement of fall flowers in bronze and rust tones.

One table was filled with home baked specialties including shoo-fly pie and tomato bread. At another table, presided over by Mrs. Harold Gillstrom were hand-made gifts, baby presents, embroidered towels, laundry bags, a wide variety of aprons, etc.

At the tea table were cookies of every description. Mrs. W. L. Roberts and Mrs. Quentin Moore took turns pouring tea and, at the other end of the table coffee was poured by Mrs. James Blankenship and Mrs. Monroe Wilson. Mrs. R. G. Vick presided over the kitchen and Mrs. James Ledford helped generally.

About seventy people attended during the afternoon and over a hundred dollars was raised for the church building fund.

Former Hayesville Pastor's Wife Dies

Hayesville -- Word has been received here that Mrs. Dora Leslie Smith died October 21 in the Baptist Hospital, Winston Salem. She had been in declining health for the past two years and was seriously ill for two weeks before death.

She was the wife of the former pastor of Truett Memorial Baptist Church, the late Rev. L. P. Smith. The Dora Smith Circle of the Truett Memorial Baptist Church was named for Mrs. Smith.

Clay County PTA Clothing Drive

Please bring or send all outgrown clothing to the Clothing Room on the Hayesville School grounds on Tuesday, November 7th by 3:30 p.m. This clothing can be sent by the school children to their home rooms. Especially needed are coats, jackets and sweaters, but all types of clothing in the school age sizes will be helpful in keeping needy children in school and adequately clothed. Clothes should be ready to wear, clean, mended and marked for size if known.

Hayesville Seniors To Sponsor Sale

Hayesville -- The Seniors of Hayesville High School are sponsoring a sweater and scarf sale to help finance their trip to Washington. The sweaters will have Hayesville High School and also an emblem of the Yellow Jackets on them. The white scarfs also have the Yellow Jacket emblem. Adult size is $3.00 and the children size $2.75, the scarfs are $1.00 each. Contact any member of the Senior class to place an order.

Expresses Gratitude

Hayesville -- The program committee for Week of Prayer and Self Denial, of which Mrs. Jim Armstrong is chairman are deeply grateful to all the ladies who helped make this program a success. The Quiet Hour was held at the Rural Life Center, Sunday afternoon. Those taking part were Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. J. Walter Moore, Miss Louise McTaggart, Mrs. Ralph Jacks, Mrs. Marvin Alexander, Mrs. Carrol McClure and Mrs. Charlie Barnard. Without the aid of these ladies the committee could not have carried out the program so effectively.

Clay County Group Journey To Raleigh For Assistant

Hayesville -- A group of Clay County citizens went to Raleigh last week in an effort to seek aid from the State of North Carolina in the construction of a new Health Center for Clay County. While in Raleigh this group was told that if Item 8 in the Bond Election passes that Clay will be one of the first counties to get a Health Center. Item 8 is as follows: For or Against Issuance of $500,000 for Hospital capital improvement bonds for the State of North Carolina for the purpose of providing funds for participation by the State through the Medical Care Commission in local hospital construction.
