I surely appreciate the cooperation and hope we can find it the same way on Nov. 6, when we come together to elect the candidate of our choice to serve and represent the county and state for the next two and four years. We would like to have the man elected that would serve for the benefit of all the people in our county and state. There is one thing I would like to see, and that is for the candidates that are elected to be able to that are elected to be able to say they won it honestly. We have somewhere between two and three thousand legal voters in Clay County which could come to the polis and vote. This would eliminate so much dishonesty that is being carried on with absentee ballots. By doing this, we could have an election in Clay County that all honest people would be proud of. This way and less hard feelings between the two parties. Floyd Garrison Hayesville, N. C.
