Mrs. Lillie Price CELEBRATES 80th BIRTHDAY (Photo by Mrs. Kitchens)

Mrs. Lillie Price Always Lends A Helping Hand

By Mrs. Neal Kitchens HAYESVILLE - What is more heart-warming than sitting by an open fire with the flames leaping up the chimney, and watching friends embrace a little lady who is celebrating her 80th birthday?

The children of Mrs. Lillie Price honored her with open house at the Price home on Sunday, Jan. 13, from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. on her 80th birthday. She was eighty on Friday, January 11. There was a steady stream of friends during the evening, bringing gifts and wishing her a happy birthday. She was presented a pink carnation corsage.

The table was overlaid with a white linen cloth, centered with a beautiful arrangement of pink carnations and apple blossoms, a gift of the Oak Forest Church. There was a large birthday cake decorated with roses and inscribed "Happy Birthday, Mother". Refreshments of cake, mints, nuts and punch were served to a large group attending. Mrs. Price married the late Will Price, who was the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coleman. Mr. Price died eleven years ago. This couple had eight children, five daughters and three sons. They are Mrs. J. K. Carter; Mrs. George Jarrett; Mrs. Eunice Hendrix; Mrs. Wade Palmer and James Price all of Hayesville; Mrs. T. G. Noel of Fortville, Ind.; the Rev. Edgar Price of Shelby; and Fred Price of Asheville. The children were all present except Mrs. Noel and Edgar.

ple, when anyone in the community calls a doctor and he can't get there, they call Mrs. Price. She knows more home remedies than any of the younger generation, and always lends a helping hand. It was quite interesting to her people express their feelings about this lady. One son-in-law said, "She is just one of the finest people I know." Then I heard a neighbor say, "Mrs. Price is one of the finest Christian ladies I have ever known." I also heard many other fine comments to numerous to mention.

Near the close of the evening, the honoree settled down to the pleasant task of opening a pile of packages. Someone in the crowd said, "Mrs. Price, I hope you live to be at least ninety and we will give you another party." To this she replied "If I can stay able to wait on myself and carry on as I do now then I hope so too; but if I can't then I rather go on."

A daughter standing by, handing her the packages said, "Why, Mama, you will be right here at that age still waiting on the rest of us."

Looking around at her home that she keeps as spick and span as she did when a bride, I, too, got the feeling that she will be doing just that.

Mrs. Nova Lowe Honored On 65th Birthday

HAYESVILLE - On Monday, Jan. 7, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall told her mother, Mrs. Nova Lowe, they wanted to take her out to dinner at a restaurant in Murphy because it was Mrs. Lowe's 65th birthday. The three rode along happily; but they didn't stop until they reached the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Stiles in Murphy where a surprise birthday party was waiting.

Mrs. Lowe is the widow of the late James E. (Jim) Lowe who died in 1947. They are the parents of Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. Dwayne Conley, Dale Lowe, all of Hayesville; Mrs. Boyce Stiles of Murphy and Mrs. Lois Phipps of Grassy Creek, N. C., all living in the late Mrs. Madge Wheeler of Black Mountain, who died in October, 1962. Mrs. Lowe has 21 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She is the daughter of the late Thomas Edwards of the Tusquitee section of Clay County and has lived in Clay for 49 years. Mrs. Lowe is a fine seamstress and enjoys piecing and quilting fancy quilts. She also enjoys gardening and working in her yard. She crochets and does a lot of reading. Those present and enjoying the birthday dinner and large cake, covered with candles were: Mr. and Mrs. Boyce Stiles, Victor and Pamela; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lowe and Mrs. Dwayne Conley.
