RED CROSS MONTH ANDREWS - March is Red Cross Month --- a time to remember "For 100 years the Red Cross has always been there to help. It always will be --- with your help." The Red Cross serves your community, your nation, and your world. It is not confined by local, state, or national boundaries. Your service as a volunteer, your contributed dollars, may help someone in your own community.

On Friday evening at 5:30 p.m., a house to house canvass will begin in Andrews area Red Cross Chapter by volunteer workers. It needs your confidence and support and the confidence and support of your neighbors and your community leaders.

It would be well to remember wherever people need help Red Cross is there --- because you care.

CALDWELL DEATH ANDREWS - Leland Caldwell, son of Mrs. L. O. Caldwell and the late L. O. Caldwell, died at his home in Pasadena, Texas, on Friday. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Relatives attending the funeral service held on Monday morning at Pasadena were Mr. and Mrs. Burke Wood, Mrs. Sam Hartman, Mrs. Harry Rogers of Robbinsville and Robert Caldwell of Brevard. His mother was visiting him at the time.

WESLEYAN GUILD ANDREWS - The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Fuller on Monday evening at 7:30 p.m.
