

Teacher of The Week

MURPHY - Miss Martha Sue Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hawkins of R. 4, Murphy, is head of the Hon. Economics Department of Murphy High School.

She is well-loved by her students, especially the seniors whom she sponsored this year. They feel that she is very understanding, and a common remark regarding her is "She's just like one of us."

Miss Hawkins directed the Senior play, "The Sky's The Limit," and traveled to Washington, D. C., with the class.

After graduating from Hiwassee High School in 1958, she attended Mars Hill Baptist Junior College and received an Associate in Arts degree in 1960. From Mars Hill she went to the University of Tennessee where she obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics. Her specialization area was

MISS MARTHA SUE HAWKINS

Child Development and Family Relations.

Miss Hawkins says that her interests are music and dancing and that she loves to converse with people about their basic philosophy of life. "I enjoy learning what makes people tick," she says.

Car Buyers' Bulletin

How to save $211* and get a better wagon in the bargain

Compare your Ford Dealer's Fairlane Wagon with the Chevy Biscayne Wagon...and draw your own conclusions:

Compare price labels: Our Fairlane wagon retails for $211 less than the Chevy wagon!

Compare room: Fairlane's load deck is 1.2 inches longer. Its front legroom is over 1" greater.

Compare performance: Fairlane's Challenger V-8 really moves this trim wagon, which is about 500 pounds lighter than the Chevy Biscayne wagon.

Compare economy: Fairlane's twice-a-year (or 6,000-mile) maintenance saves plenty.

Compare nimbleness: Fairlane's nearly 9 inches shorter outside—easier to park and handle. Compare everywhere! There's no doubt about it. Your Ford Dealer gives you more car for less money. But what's new about that?
